FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1906.

The State Central Committee of the Democratic party met in Baltimore yesterday and named June 27 as the date and Westminster as the place for the meeting of the Second Congressional District convention. As Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbott carries the district in his vest pocket the action of the convention is a foregone conclusion and the Baltimore county boss may be considered as practically nominated before it will assemble.

RATE BILL AS PASSED BY SENATE.

The railroad rate bill, which had been under discussion in the United States Senate for a couple of months, was passed by that body on Friday, by a vote of 71 to 3. The Senators voting in the negative are Morgan and Pettus, of Alabama, and Foraker, of Ohio. The bill differs materially from its text as it passed the House of Representatives, and concurrence of the latter in the changes is necessary to make it law. Following are some of its leading features as adopted by the Senate:

The Interstate Commerce Commission is given power to fix the maximum rate to be charged, where complaints are made.

The rate so fixed may be reviewed to the fullest extent by the courts.

Before the rate can be suspended by any interlocutory decree notice of five days and a hearing before three judges are necessary.

The rate fixed and passed upon goes into effect within 30 days and may remain in force for two years.

The commission may fix through rates and part rail and part water rates.

The commission is to consist of five members, as at present.

Railroads and carriers are prohibited from dealing in commodities they carry.

Pipe lines, private car lines, express companies and palace car companies are made common carriers.

Rebates are to be punished by imprisonment of either the person granting or accepting a rebate, and fines of from $1,000 to $2,000 may be imposed.

A person soliciting or compelling a rebate may also be fined three times the amount of the rebate.

Railroads must keep a uniform set of books, accessible to the commission at all times.

Railroads must also make uniform reports.

The giving of interstate passes, except in stated cases, is prohibited.

The commission may compel switch and siding connections.

If the provision prohibiting railroads and common carriers from dealing in commodities they carry could be enforced without evasion, it would probably be the most important feature of the bill. Numbers of the leading railroads are owners of, or in some way financially interested in such commodities as coal and other products of mines and are operated in such manner as to prevent competition in these articles of prime necessity, so that the regulation of prices is practically under the control of these carriers. If they can be constitutionally divested of rights of property in coal lands, or, rather, constrained to transfer such rights, upon a fair consideration therefor, to other and uninterested sources, this part of the measure will have a most salutary effect in preventing impositions upon the public. The difficulty, however, lies in the many methods by which the law can be observed in its letter, but evaded in spirit. The prolonged discussion in the Senate and the many suggestions of defects in the bill, indicate the great difficulty of formulating a measure that will "hold water" and carry into effect the intention of the law makers.

The passage of the bill, however, is a fair warning to the railroads and other monopolistic corporations that their unjust exactions have aroused the people of the country to a determination that impositions upon public rights must cease and that, should the rate bill fail to accomplish its purpose, some legal means will be found that will be effective to that end.

INCREASED RAILROAD ASSESSMENTS.

The County Commissioners of Frederick county have increased the assessment of the 20½ mile trackage of the Western Maryland Railroad in that county from $3,000 to $5,000 per mile. This includes four miles of sidings.

The Washington County Commissioners have also made considerable increases in the assessment of Western Maryland Railroad property in that county. This action was taken on Tuesday last. The assessment on the main line, 24½ miles, was increased from $5,000 to $6,000 a mile; the Potomac Valley branch of the Western Maryland, 13½ miles, from $5,000 to $6,000; the Cumberland division from Cherry Run to Hancock, 12 8-100 miles, from $1,500 to $3,000 a mile. That part of the Cumberland extension from Hancock to the Allegeny county line, 10 23-100 miles, which had never been assessed, was valued at $1,500 a mile. The station at Hancock was assessed at $6,750 and the station at Pearre at $1,350. The stations were assessed at three-fourths of their value. The total increase was in the neighborhood of $80,000.

The assessment on the Washington county branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was also increased from $5,000 to $5,500 a mile.

The increase in assesments made by the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum last year is held to be both legal and right by the full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, which has dismissed a bill brought by Stephen W. Reynolds and others against the Supreme Council. The bill was brought to prevent the enforcement of the new schedule of rates, the petitioners being a committee of membership who held that a raise in the assessment rates was contrary to the by-laws of the organization.

In the case of Adam Long, who sued the Western Maryland Railroad Company in the Circuit Court for Washington county for $3,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by being violently pushed by Detective Cross from the platform into a crowded coach enroute from Pen Mar to Hagerstown, the jury late Thursday afternoon of last week returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, and assessed the damages at $200. The case was with the jury less than two hours. Whether an appeal will be taken by the railroad company is not known.

One man was killed outright and the other four were drowned by being thrown into the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

The grand jurors completed their labors yesterday and were discharged after having made the following report:

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Circuit Court for Carroll County.

The grand jurors of the State of Maryland for the body of Carroll county, for the May session of this Honorable Court, for the year 1903, respectfully report that they have to the best of their knowledge and understanding inquired into all matters concerning violations of law committed in Carroll county and to the best of their ability and judgment have examined and passed upon the truth of all such matters and acted thereon without envy, hatred, or ill will, and without fear, favor or affection have presented such cases as in their judgment the facts justified.

There came before them and were examined 97 witnesses and 8 constables, and as the result of their testimony they upon careful consideration have found 52 presentments and indictments and ignored 7 cases.

On May 21st the grand jury visited the county alms house located near this city limits of Westminster. Mr. A. G. Humbert, the superintendent for the ensuing term, met the gentlemen on the lawn and conducted them through all the buildings and explained everything to the satisfaction of all. We find few faults and have few suggestions to make. Would recommend a new roof be put on the main building and the hogpen be built on higher ground and a more adequate supply of water be provided, not only for the use of the inmates; but in case of fire there is no protection nor any means of getting water except the hand pump and running stream at the barn.

This body found 17 females, one colored; 15 males, two colored; 32 inmates all comfortably housed, the quarters of each sex being visited and all found very clean and comfortable indeed. The grand jury was pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Humbert, refreshments being served with ice cream and cake, after which the jury adjourned to meet at regular session at 9.30 A. M., Tuesday, May 22nd, 1906.

After being in regular session the grand jury adjourned to visit the county jail at 2 30 P. M., located at Westminster, Md., the county seat of Carroll, where they were met by the genial sheriff, Mr. Joseph L. Franklin, and his deputies, who conducted the gentlemen from start to finish through the numerous buildings. The first to visit was the stable fer the horses which was found in our opinion a reflection upon our fair county. We would recommend respectfully a commodious barn, built in some style as well as for comfort, with an open shed for shelter for the waiting team and to afford protection while hitching or putting in horses. Other outbuildings were visited which were probably good for all such purposes as needed, but the board walk leading from jail to them needs new boards and should be repaired at once.

The jail next being inspected everywhere was found to be in good sanitary condition, the inside of all the cells being fresh with a coat of lime and altogether floors and all parts of the prison gave evidence of great cleanline s and good care. We found seven male prisoners confined there for various offences, waiting the expiration of their confinement.

The residence portion set aside for the sheriff and his family should receive some consideration and the improvements started some time ago should again be taken up and completed by enlarging lower windows, provided with new shutters, also a new porch should be placed at the front entrance.

After completing our inspection of the jail we were invited to partake of refreshments and most delightfully served by the ladies and our happy host the sheriff, after which the jury adjourned to meet again for regular business on Wednesday, May 23, 1906.

Knowing of nothing more requiring our attention we respectfully request that we be permitted to adjourn to the call of the court.

FRANCIS J. ALBAUGH, Foreman.

James P. Carter, Sr., appellant, vs. State of Maryland, appellee; appeal from Justice Brandenburg; tried before the court; appeal dismissed, State to pay costs. Bond & Parke for appellant, Steele for State.

George Wade, appellant, vs. State of Maryland, appellee; appeal from Justice Brandenburg; tried before the court; appeal dismissed, State to pay costs. Clemson for appellant, Steele for State.

State vs. Joseph Hahn; larceny; plea of guilty confessed; sentence suspended, &c. Steele for State, Henning and Weant for traverser.

State vs. Edward Thomas, colored; larceny; plea of guilty confessed; sentenced to the House of Correction for three months. Steele for State.

State vs. Ephraim Warner; unlawfully secreting personal property with intention to defraud; plea of guilty confessed and fined $25 and costs. Steele for State, Walsh for traverser.

State vs. Martha Godfrey; colored; forgery and false pretence; detainer to indictment. Steele for State, Henning for traverser.

Pleasant Valley Items.

Rev. O. C. Roth, D. D., of Altoona, Pa., preached his 25th anniversary sermon to a large congregation of people last Sunday. The congregation of Pleasant Valley feels honored in having so large a man select so small a place wherein to celebrate such an anniversary.

Sunday School at 1 P. M. At 2 P. M. Rev. Jas. B. Stonesifer will preach to Camp No. 7, P. O. S. of A., the members of which will attend service in a body. After the service the Camp and Sabbath School will march to the cemetery and strew the graves with flowers. Every one is requested to bring bouquets of flowers. Our Band will head the procession.

Bankert's Mill Items.

Most of our farmers have finished their spring planting and now are busying themselves at odd jobs which are very essential to a well conducted farm.

The weather prophets are nonplussed at the lack of rain that was promised by them for quite a while; but, are like the member of the temperance society who, when asked to take a drink, did so with the remark that all signs fail in dry weather.

Mr. Ed. Hively is making necessary repairs to his barn, by building an additional mow and other improvements. Mr. S. Crouse is the contractor.

Mr. Jos. Formwalt is making improvements on his small farm on Pleasant Hill, near here, by adding a new pump bed and machinery to force the water to the barn. Mr. Palmer is installing it and Messrs. Powell and Hymiller are the masons.

Last Monday morning the air was very cold and a frost was noticed in the low lands, but so far as we can learn it had no damaging effect on vegetation or fruit. It is feared, however, that the early rye blossoms may suffer from its biting influence.

Rev. G. W. Baughman was greeted with a full house at Bausts last Sunday morning, where he held his spring communion service. Four adult persons were admitted to full membership, two by certificate and two by confirmation.

Mr. Geo. C. Harman is still suffering much inconvenience from his wound. He is now obliged to use a crutch to assist him in walking and to relieve the pressure upon his limb, which has become very weak.

A valuable young horse, owned by Mr. David Hahn, that got over the trace, causing a laceration of the flesh at the pastern, is doing well.

Miss B. Mae Harman visited relatives and friends at Taneytown the past week.

Mr. Flohr and wife, of Sykesville, visited their son, Mr. J. E. Flohr, and family, near here, last week.

He received a unanimous vote in the charge. We have not learned whether he has accepted the call to the pastorate or not.

Manchester Items.

Representatives from the Acme Hall and New York Clothing House were here last week to secure the order for the firemen's suits. The N. Y. House was the successful bidder and took the order for 30 suits of blue with cap to match. The company will be in parade on Whit Monday; also at the firemen's meet at Westminster. They have mapped out quite an attractive program for Whit Monday here. Several visiting organizations will be present with plenty of music.

The members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 28, I. O. O. F., will hold their memorial and decoration services in their Hall on Sunday afternoon, June 3rd, at 2 o'clock. Grand Secretary Goodwin, of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, will deliver an address, with other Grand Officers.

Rev. H. H. Flick held German Communion services in Emanuel Lutheran Church of this place on Sunday morning last which were largely attended.

Mr. Chas. J. Everhart had a flock of fine Langshan and Plymouth Rock chickens that were fine layers. On Thursday of last week he noticed that some of them were drooping and soon lost their motive power as if paralyzed and the next day died in spasms. Thus one after another died until but four are left, most of the hens would have weighed 6 or 7 pounds.

Mr. Benjamin Armacost is having his house on South Main street remodelled and enlarged, with a slate roof. Mr. Nimrod Armstrong is doing the work.

Mrs. Mary B. Lamotte was taken ill on Saturday last with acute indigestion, but was improving until Monday night, when she suffered a stroke of paralysis of the right side which has partly affected her speech. At this writing her condition is unchanged.

Silver Anniversary.

Sunday, May 20th, was a day long to be remembered by the people of Pleasant Valley and Silver Run. The Rev. Dr. O. C. Roth, of Altoona, Pa., celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his entry into the ministry in the Silver Run pastorate, having been called here in 1881, a young minister, from Gettysburg Theological Seminary. This young minister took, as his motto, "Onward," and onward did he press. During the brief pastorate of two and one-half years the spiritual and temporal interests of the pastorate were greatly developed. The handsome parsonage at Silver Run was built and his own hands planted the now beautiful shade and fruit bearing trees which surround it.

A short while after coming here he was married to one of Gettysburg's young ladies. They have spent twenty-five years of exemplary, happy, ideal married life and are the parents of two girls. One is at the Lutheran Deaconess' Motherhouse, at Baltimore, and the other is attending Irwin College.

In 1883, Dr. Roth received and accepted a call from the Lutheran Church at Taneytown. Through his successful efforts the people of Taneytown were able to retain him but six and one-half years. Grace Church, of Baltimore, wanted him and he relinquished his work at Taneytown to continue it in Baltimore for eight years, with very marked success, the highest number of accessions there on one Easter Sunday having been 157. With such work the Baltimore people were soon too weak to hold him. St. John's Lutheran Church, of Altoona, was without a minister. Dr. Roth was sought out. He received and accepted a unanimous call. For nine years he has been one of the foremost ministers of Altoona and pastor of one of the leading churches of the General Synod.

On last Sunday he came to his first flock in the full vigor and spirit of a godly man. He preached in the morning at Pleasant Valley to a full house. His theme was, "The Christ of to-day." For one hour he held the attention of every worshiper, preaching with great eloquence and force. In the afternoon he preached at Silver Run; theme, "The Church of today." The house was again filled to its utmost capacity. After each service the doctor was delighted to shake hundreds by the hand. The old and the young, babies and all, could endure the long sermon and say, with no idle speech, "Doctor, I was pleased with your discourse, and it did me good. God bless you."

Members' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given to the members of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County, (a body corporate of the State of Maryland) that a meeting of the members of said company will be held at the office of the company in Westminster, Carroll County, Md, on MONDAY, THE 11TH DAY OF JUNE, A. D. 1906, at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of adopting and taking such action in regard to the By-Laws of said company as the members may deem right and proper.

JOSHUA W. HERING, President.
C. Gloyd Lynch, Secretary. my 25 2t

CHARLES E. FINK,
Attorney at Law
And Solicitor in Chancery
Office—Court Street, Westminster.
All business promptly attended to.

To the Republicans of Carroll County, Maryland.

In the advertising columns of the American Sentinel, of the 18th inst., there appeared an article signed "A Republican" which, among other things, reflects unfairly and unjustly upon my action as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Election of this county in the organization of that body and the selection of a place for holding its meetings.

My concern is with the reflections upon myself and my action as a member of the Board solely, and I consider it proper to state that that action was, in my judgment, for the interest and benefit of the Republican party which I represent.

I have nothing to conceal in relation to the subject and have to say that, whether by design or mistake, the statements of the advertisement in question contains errors which should be corrected.

Neither Mr. Fink nor Mr. Musselman sought to confer with me or to make any suggestions to me concerning my course as a member of the Board, and in my action I was guided by my own judgment.

It is erroneously stated in the advertisement, too, that Mr. Musselman was nominated for the presidency of the Board by Mr. Fink. I placed Mr. Musselman in nomination myself, deeming it proper that as he was the only member previously connected with the office, he should receive that honor. I voted for the continuance of the office in its former locality subject to the approval of the County Commissioners, who are expected to pay the rental therefor or provide a place of meeting for the Board.

Finally, I was actuated solely by the purpose to perform my duty faithfully and to see that the Republican party, which I represent, shall have a fair deal and a square deal in all things relating to elections in this county. I may add that if the person whom I suspect is the author of the advertisement in the Sentinel I have been much more faithful to the party than he. I have not bolted nominations, either from personal reasons or any other cause, nor have I ever sought to defeat my party when its nominees were persona non grata to me. And why, may I ask, should I "get up and out" at the bidding of one man and he an individual who has not the courage to sign his name to an advertisement?

CHAS. H. SMITH,
Supervisor of Election for Carroll County.

THE MILLER BROS. CO.

Correct Clothes for Gentlemen.

THERE are a good many men in this town who are paying more for their Clothes than they need to. The custom-tailor habit is hard to break. But—when you stop to think that thousands of wealthy business men, club-men, society-leaders in the big cities are breaking the 'tailor habit'—buying first-class 'ready' garments instead, you have to admit there's a reason for it. The reason is simply Better Clothes. The best of all 'ready' clothes are 'SCHLOSS' Clothes.

We have them;—exact duplicates of the models worn in New York and other style-centers. Let us show them to you.

They cost from $10. to $20.

HERE are two very smart Summer Styles—single and double-breasted. Essentially young men's models though we have others more conservative. You can get such suits in Blue or Grey Serge, Homespun, Worsteds, and all the good summer fabrics. Styling and fit you could not better at any price.

The Westminster FERTILIZER CO.

On the 3rd of February last the well known Fertilizer business of Chas. Schaeffer passed into possession of the Westminster Fertilizer Company, an organization incorporated that day under the General Laws of the State of Maryland. This company is composed of citizens of this county, all of whom are more or less well known. The business of the new company will not only be conducted upon the same general and conservative methods carried on by its predecessor, but special care will be taken in securing pure material for its patrons. The celebrated brands of made by Mr Schaeffer and before him by the H. S. Roberts Co., will still be continued, and the same care exercised in their mixing will be carried out, so that practically the only change is in that of the name of the firm.

The company is now prepared to meet the wants of any of its old or prospective patrons, whether in the line of

MIXED BRANDS or MATERIAL in BULK,

and at the very lowest prices to be had in the county for the same quality of goods.

Particular attention paid to the mixing of PRIVATE OR SPECIAL FORMULAS.
