SIDE TWO

next thursday by the death of Mrs Clesgot Sister in Baltimore Mr Gilpinew rode to see me to day and Mary who is with me Jack just well of a Severe Phuresey Sally of the Measils she came on New years day brought it with her she behaves very well and so does Polly my New house keeper I slept none Night last week nor a Soul on the floor with me in a high fever Mrs Rachel went of Sunday was Sick Jenny with Jack Polly with Sally or could I get a Soul to be with me Nancy, family all was laid up my Sister and Mr Jenny afr afraid of the Measils for Eliza its hard to leave Nann on the Eastern Shore I rejoice your your Dear Nancy is so well also that your Son will be with you so lovey my love to Jenny and your other three Children as you call Mary Hall one I have had no fever with these, I am your aff Sister last pains which I wonder at but Mary Kinnard its favorable and I have had an appetite this two days
