A CONSISTENT FREE TRADER.

Free traders are patting Senator Rayner of Maryland on the back and complimenting him very highly for the stand he has taken on the resolution offered in the United States Senate in relation to purchases of material and equipment for use in the construction of the Panama canal. The resolution provides that such purchases "shall be restricted to articles of domestic production and manufacture, unless the President shall in any case deem the bids or tenders therefor to be extortionate or unreasonabe." As a free trader Senator Rayner is not content to quietly vote against the resolution, but has made one of his caustic, characteristic speeches condemning it from the "tariff reform" standpoint, to the great delight of the people who have no sympathy with the protection of American labor.

Senator Rayner is consistent, in his attitude toward the Aldrich resolution, although it must have taken more than ordinary courage to bitterly denounce a proposition which, it is said, if adopted will be of great value to a Maryland industry employing hundreds of workmen—the Maryland Steel Company. The adoption of the resolution, it is stated, would operate to secure to this company a contract to the amount of three-quarters of a million of dollars, and thus be of great value to its employees. The company has a great plant and is prepared to engage in large construction enterprises, but it cannot pay its workmen such wages as an American artisan or laborer is entitled to and compete with low-priced foreign labor.

Now the protection of the American workman is the very kernel of the tariff, and, as a rule, when free trade legislators are confronted with some proposition, the effect of which would be beneficial to some local industry they generally find an excuse for avoiding opposition to the measure. Not so Mr. Rayner. He seems to have the "courage of his convictions," unless, indeed, the fact that the resolution will probably be passed in spite of his opposition and denunciation has influenced him to stand by his free trade guns in this case. It would be interesting to know just what he would do in the premises if the fate of the resolution depended upon his action.

The passage of the resolution will, of course, be consistent with the Republican policy of protection which has done so much for the comfort, happiness and prosperity of American workingmen and has, also, made the nation great in wealth, power and influence. If the workingmen of the country are to be put in competition with the low priced labor of foreign lands by the government it should be upon precisely the same conditions and under such competition as now exists on the part of private enterprises, if that were possible. As it is not, however, the only proper course, to be consistent, is to pass the Aldrich resolution, or something equivalent thereto.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the annual reunion of the Lutherans of Maryland, Pennsylvania, the Virginias and the District of Columbia, to be held at Pen-Mar, July 26, has engaged the following speakers: Rev. Charles Steck, of Frederick, to speak on "Martin Luther in the Home;" Rev. Dr. William H. Dunbar, of Baltimore, on "Martin Luther in the University;" Rev. F. D. Weigle, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., on "Martin Luther in the Pulpit." A select orchestra will furnish music.

The Sunday School of Emory Methodist Episcopal Church, near Fowblesburg, has elected the following officers: Superintendent, Carroll Raver; assistants, Lewis Jones and Mrs. Wesley Bond; secretary, Mr. Lewis Mummaugh; assistant, Miss Mary Roop; treasurer, Frank Raver; librarian, Mrs. A. W. Harris; missionary committee, Mrs. W. Bond, Mrs. Harry Stull and Mrs. Carroll Raver.

Mr. Daniel L. Brinton, one of the most prominent members of the Baltimore bar, died Saturday last at 5 45 P. M. at his home, 2309 North Charles street, Baltimore. Death was due to a complication of diseases, and Mr. Brinton had been in ill health for more than a year. He was a native of Cecil county and a prominent Republican. He was about 48 years old.

The members of the Lutheran Church at Arcadia, Baltimore county, have decided to remodel it. Memorial windows will be installed and the exterior will be painted and the interior papered.

Mr. George A. Davis, of Reisterstown, former school examiner of this county, has been appointed and commissioned by Governor Warfield as an election supervisor of Baltimore county.

Snow fell at St. Louis, Mo., on Monday, after a drop of 39° in temperature during the previous 24 hours. Half an inch of ice was formed in Wisconsin during Monday night.

REPLY TO CHAS. H. SMITH, ELECTION SUPERVISOR.

In reply to the explanation made by Chas. H. Smith in the columns of the Sentinel on May 25th, wherein he attempts to show justification for doing what he calls his faithful duty; the writer desires to inquire of him as a public officer, for the benefit of the Citizens of Carroll County, whether the people are given, as he terms it "a fair deal" in endorsing the expenditure of the people's money by paying to the law firm of Roberts & Crouse the sum of $50.00 for several days office rent when the said firm only pay $96 00 rent for the entire year?

If Mr. Smith will ascertain the general sentiment of the Republican voters of Carroll County who are not allied with the Democratic organization, he will find that there is more than "one man" who will say that it will be for the welfare of the Republican party should he "get up and out."

The Democratic-Republican Trust of Carroll County, whose head-quarters are in Westminster, suggest only the appointment of men who lack will-power and agree to pledge themselves to follow the dictates of the Trust leaders.

Mr. Smith must not forget that he is a public officer paid with the people's money and as such the eye of the public will scrutinize his actions, which actions thus far during his short term, speak much louder than words and reveal the hidden hand of said Democratic-Republican Trust.

Nor must Mr. Smith forget that the attention of the public will be called to any further "unfaithful" acts committed by him during his term of office.

Strange coincident that Messrs. Smith & Musselman, two appointees recommended by the Democratic Republican Trust should so well agree upon a method to freeze out Mr. Fink. But the camel's back was broken when they agreed to place all the papers and books belonging to the Board of Supervisors in the safe belonging to Roberts & Crouse who alone had the combination to the safe. Will Mr. Smith explain how this is "for the benefit of the Republicon Party" which party he says he represents.

The Firemen's Convention, Meet and Parade.

The firemen of this city are making extensive preparations for the State convention, meet and parade next week, and all things point to a great time for the fire organizations which will participate in the event and for the citizens of Westminster and the surrounding country. The firemen are having arches erected on East Main street, opposite their building and near Court street; on Liberty street near Green, and at the junction of West Main street and Pennsylvania avenue. These arches will be handsomely decorated with flags and bunting and illuminated with electric lights. Public buildings and private residences will be generally decorated also, and everything will be done to give the visiting firemen a cordial welcome.

The great parade on Wednesday will be the leading feature of the meet, but the several contests will be of most interest to the firemen. The program on the first page of the SENTINEL gives ample information concerning these contests. Upwards of thirty-five organizations, with fifteen bands, will take part in the parade the route, official formation, and divisions of which will be as follows:

West Main street to Union street, to Pennsylvania avenue, to West Main street, to Bond street, to Chase street, to Liberty street, to Main street, to Washington avenue, to East Green street, to Centre street, to East Main street, to Court street, to Willis street, to Centre street, to East Main street, to Liberty street.

The Westminster FERTILIZER CO.

On the 3rd of February last the well known Fertilizer business of Chas. Schaeffer passed into possession of the Westminster Fertilizer Company, an organization incorporated that day under the General Laws of the State of Maryland. This company is composed of citizens of this county, all of whom are more or less well known. The business of the new company will not only be conducted upon the same general and conservative methods carried on by its predecessor, but special care will be taken in securing pure material for its patrons. The celebrated brands of made by Mr. Schaeffer and before him by the H. S. Roberts Co., will still be continued, and the same care exercised in their mixing will be carried out, so that practically the only change is in that of the name of the firm.

The company is now prepared to meet the wants of any of its old or prospective patrons, whether in the line of MIXED BRANDS or MATERIAL in BULK, and at the very lowest prices to be had in the county for the same quality of goods.

Particular attention paid to the mixing of PRIVATE OR SPECIAL FORMULAS.

A full line of the celebrated ASHLAND STOCK and POULTRY FOOD kept in stock.
