1802

SIDE ONE

of Great Britain & Ireland on a reasonable Hope of procuring Orders to be forwarded to the said Chew & Chester or to any Part of the Continent of Europe for the same Purpose, or should the Chew & Chester with a View to increase the Consignments to the Said ~~Chew~~ Nicholas Stubey in London find it necessary to travel to any Part of the Continent of America with a reasonable Hope of effecting so valuable a Purpose It is agreed that the necessary Expences incurred by the one & the other Party shall be borne equally between them — Witness their Hands the 5th June 1802

Nicholas Stubey

Chew & Chester

Memorandum of Agreement entered into by Nicholas Stubey at present of Baltimore & Chew & Chester of the same Place Merchants. Whereas the said Nicholas Stubey is shortly to imbark for London with an Intention to reside and enter into Trade and from his Knowledge of and Acquaintance with many capital Houses in that City and in other Parts of Great Britain, he has Reason to believe it will be in his Power to procure orders for the Purchase of Cargoes of different Kinds in Baltimore and other Ports in America & consignments of many Species of Merchandize to such Persons as he may recommend and it being just & reasonable that he should derive Emolument from such Procuations as well on Account of his Care & Trouble in such Negociations as for the Safety that will be derived from his Attention in selecting none but safe Houses which his Residence on the Spot will effectually ~~enable~~ enable him to ~~determine~~ do. And the said Nicholas Stubey reposing Trust and Confidence in the said Chew & Chester has agreed upon his Arrival in London to make use of his best Endeavors to obtain Orders for the Purchase of Cargoes & Consignments of such Goods as may be proper for the American Market addressed to the said Chew & Chester on this Condition plainly and expressly, that the said Chew and Chester shall allow and pay to the said Nicholas Stubey one half of all Comissions on the Purchase of Cargoes of whatever kind & the Sales of every kind of Merchandize shipped thro the Agency & Procurement of the said Nicholas Stubey