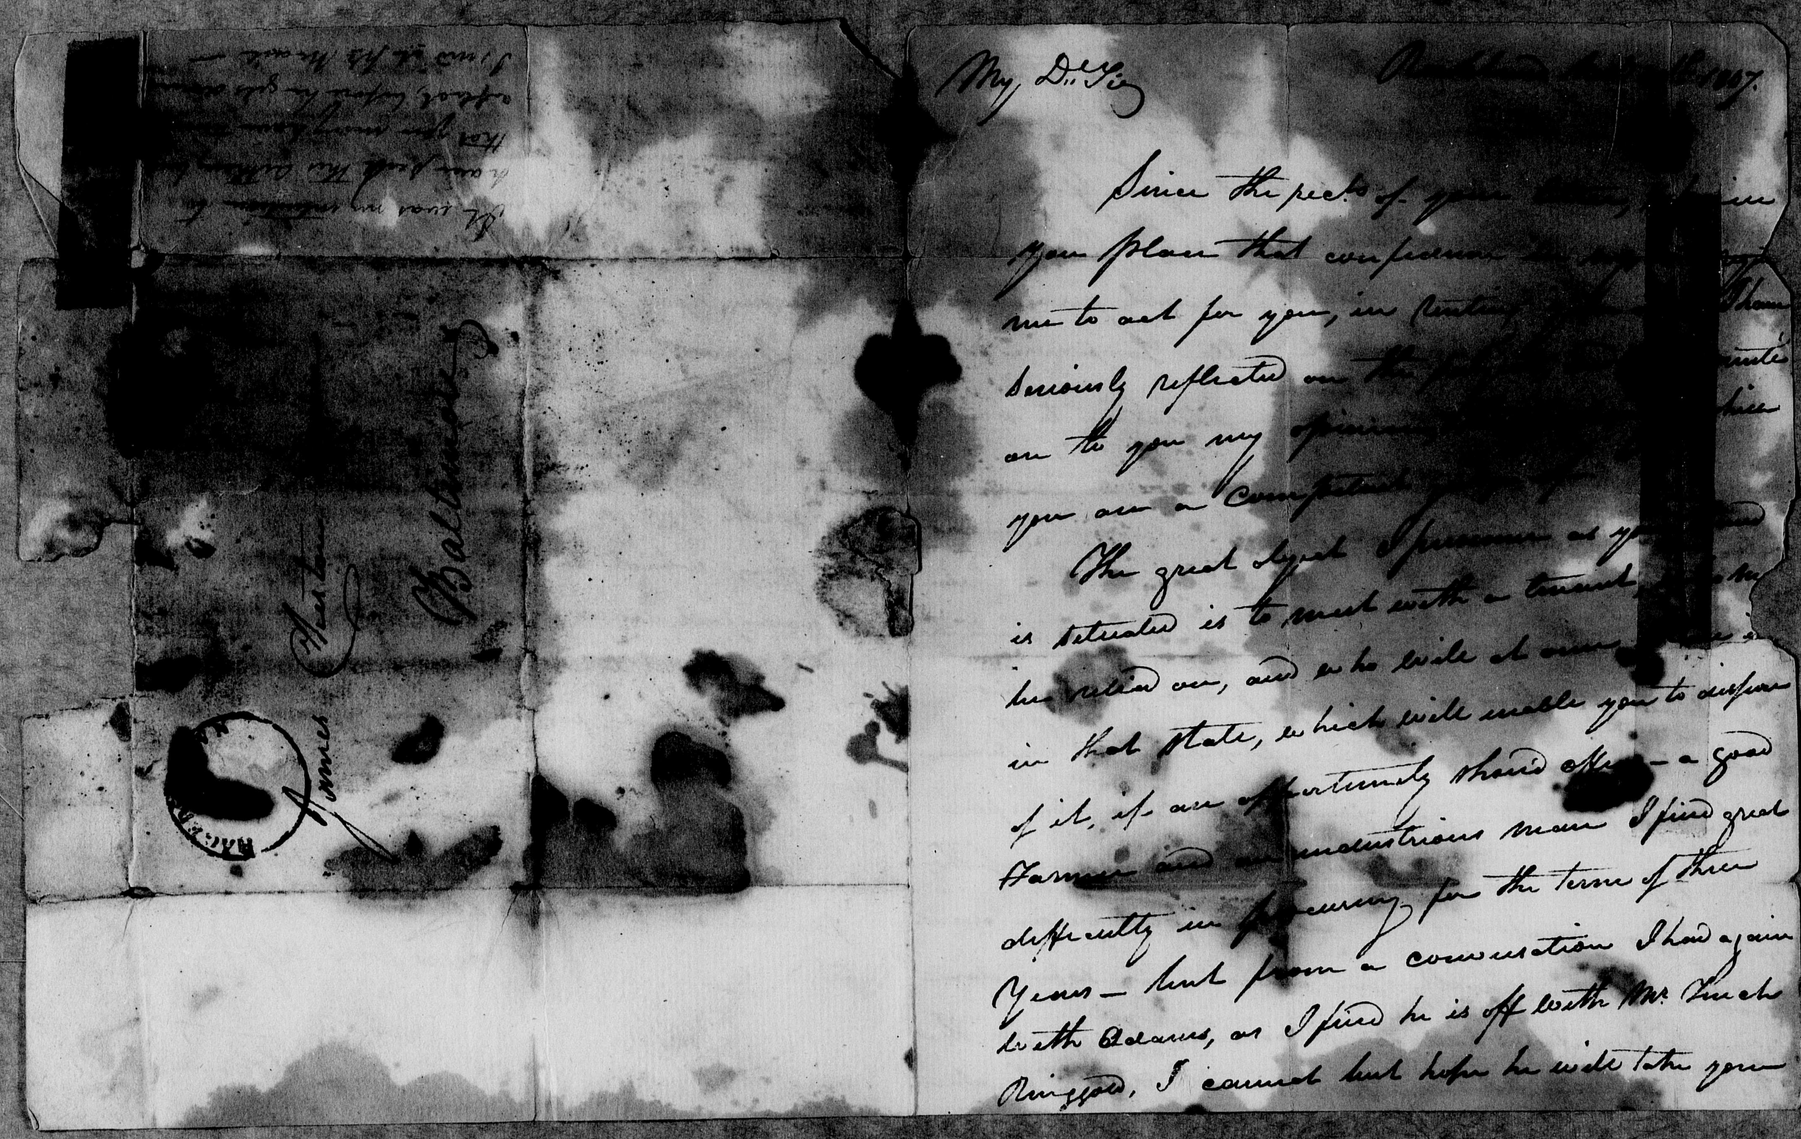
SIDE ONE



My Dear Sir

Since the pick of your [illegible] you plan that confidence [illegible] me to act for you, in renting [illegible] seriously reflected on the [illegible] on the you my opinion [illegible] you are a Computed [illegible]

The great object I presume of your [illegible] is intended is to meet with a tenant [illegible] he rented out, and who lives at a [illegible] in that State, which will enable you to dispose of it, if an opportunity should offer — a good Farmer and an industrious man I find great difficulty in procuring for the term of three years — but from a conversation I had again with Adams, as I find he is off with Mr. Inches Ringgold, I cannot but hope he will take your
