The B. F. Shriver Company is having large quantities of peas brought from its farms to its canning factory in this city, for packing. The crop is said to be a large one generally.

Among those who attended the commencement exercises of Mt. Saint Mary's College, near Emmittsburg, this week, were Misses Mary O. and M. Madeline Shriver, of Union Mills.

Prof. S. Simpson, Ph. D., superintendent of the public schools of this county, delivered the address to the graduating class at the commencement of the Frostburg State Normal School, on Wednesday.

During the storm yesterday evening lightning struck a telephone pole on East Main street, this city, and Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller, who had taken refuge in the residence of Dr. Horner, opposite the pole, were considerably but temporarily stunned by the shock.

The SENTINEL has received from Benj. F. Crouse, Esq., State Insurance Commissioner, a copy of his report for the past year to Governor Warfield. Accompanying the report are interesting tables of statistics and the annual statements of insurance companies doing business in Maryland. The report contains information and makes recommendations of value.

On Tuesday afternoon Mr. Amos Wampler, of Medford, discovered a carrier pigeon feeding with his chickens and had no difficulty in catching the bird, which was probably partially exhausted by a long flight in the rain. It has a silver band on its right leg, with the inscription L 24,595, and on the left leg a plain brass band. The pigeon is now in excellent condition.

The severest electrical storm of this season passed over this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon, between 6 and 7 o'clock. Rain fell in torrents, flooding the streets and inundating meadows and lowlands along the streams in various parts of the county. Cornfields were badly washed, telegraph wires and telephones were burnt out and several places, elsewhere reported, were struck by lightning.

The regular 17-year locusts will not be in this vicinity till 1919. There are a few swarms of locusts to be seen, more or less numerous, in different counties of the state almost every season, their number depending upon the severity of the winter; for if there is much frost and then thaw most of the eggs will be destroyed. Few seasons pass without some locusts being seen in this locality, but they are not of the 17-year brood.

By the quarterly distribution of the State school tax fund, made by Comptroller Atkinson on the 15th inst., Carroll county receives $8,690.00, as against $9,760.15 for the same period in 1904-1905. The sum received for the second quarter of the year 1905-1906 was but $7,042.16, as against $8,450.60 for the same quarter in 1904-1905. The total received in 1904-1905 was $32,295.08, and in 1905-1906 $29,815.49. This is a decrease of $2,479.59. This shortage is causing the school authorities of this county considerable embarrassment. They fully anticipated the receipt of as large a sum during the last year as for the previous year. In fact an enlarged basis of taxation was ground for expecting an increase rather than a decrease in the receipts, and one of the consequences of the shortage is that for the first time since the present board has been in office a deficit will have to be reported. Dr. Simpson, the county superintendent, has written to Comptroller Atkinson expressing the hope that there may be some error in the case and that the county will yet receive more than the amount stated.

Mr. Wm. H. Vanderford, of the Advocate, whose serious illness was mentioned last week, is now in a very critical condition, with very little hope of his recovery.

The thirty seventh anniversary of the Finksburg Methodist Protestant Sunday School took place on Sunday last and services were held at 10.30 A. M. and 2.30 P. M. Large and greatly interested audiences were present at both services. Singing by the school, with solos, duets, quartets and choruses, was a prominent feature of the exercises. At the morning service a sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. F. T. Tagg, of Baltimore, and at the afternoon service Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, delivered an address, giving an interesting map talk on the New Testament map of Palestine. The church was profusely and beautifully decorated.

Western Maryland College has just issued a handsomely illustrated booklet. It is in its way a work of art. The cover design is printed in three beautifully harmonizing colors and gold. The inside is a heavy plate paper, buff in tint, printed in dark green, while the pictures are an exquisite shade of brown, giving them a sepia effect. These reproductions are all beautiful, made from photographs evidently taken with great care, as to time and place. Owing to the elevation of the college and the general location of the buildings, it is difficult to get anything like a bird's-eye view, yet there is a panoramic picture in which all the buildings appear. It gives the truest impression of College Hill that has ever been obtained in a single picture. The book was designed by Prof. W. R. McDaniel, and executed by the Munder-Thomsen press, of Baltimore. No pains or expense has been spared to give in it a fair representation of the college and it is in every respect a great success.

The individual deposits subject to check in a number of the national banks of this county, at the close of business on the 18th inst., were as follows: First National Bank of New Windsor, $98,145.65; Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Westminster, $167,160 27; First National Bank of Westminster, $302,185.70; Union National Bank of Westminster, $347,092.95; total, $914,584.57. Of other banking institutions in the county the Westminster Savings Bank had deposits amounting to $952.288.11; Westminster Deposit and Trust Company, $537,534 22; Birnie Trust Company, Taneytown, $449,473.19; Union Bridge Banking and Trust Company, $305,692.44; Manchester Bank, $241,430.73; Hampstead Bank, $223,990.78; Taneytown Savings Bank, $143,183.49; total, $2,853,592.96, and making a grand total of $3,768,177.53. The banks at Sykesville, Mt. Airy, Uniontown and Union Mills are not included in this statement. Their deposits would swell the amount considerably above four millions of dollars.

Buckingham; selection from Book of Law, Prelate Guy L. Fowler; altar service. Following the service at the hall the knights marched to Westminster Cemetery where the graves of nine of their deceased brothers were decorated, according to the ritual of the order. The services were largely attended by knights and citizens.

Barns Burned by Lightning.

During the thunder storm on Sunday evening the barn of Mr. Henry M. Griffee, in Freedom district near the border of Woolery's district, was struck by lightning, set on fire and destroyed, with all its contents, consisting of one horse, a lot of farming implements, harness, hay, straw &c. A female fox hound, of pure breed and very valuable, with seven puppies, also perished in the fire. Mr. Griffee and his family were absent from home when the fire occurred, which was about 7 o'clock. The loss on the barn is about $900 and on personal property, not including the fox hound and her puppies, about $500. Mr. Griffee had insurance of $600 on the barn and $204 on the personal property, in the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll county.

The barn at the residence occupied by Mrs. Margaret Bush, at Reese, owned by Mr. Vernon Reese, of Baltimore, was destroyed by fire yesterday evening, caused by a stroke of lightning during the storm which prevailed at the time. A horse, cow and colt were rescued and only a small quantity of provender was burned. A carriage shed attached to the barn was saved. The loss on the barn is covered by insurance in the Baltimore County Company.

The barn of Mr. Samuel Hoff, near New Windsor, was also struck by lightning during the storm and set on fire, but the flames were extinguished. Later during the evening the structure was again discovered on fire and the flames a second time suppressed. The fire must have smoldered during the night and this morning it broke out again and the barn was burned to the ground causing a loss of $1000. A calf perished in the flames. The other personal property destroyed was small in amount. As far as known there is no insurance.

Change of Time, W. Md. Railroad.

The new time schedule of the Western Maryland Railroad went into effect on Sunday last. This schedule will not appear in the SENTINEL in detail, as heretofore has been the case. The reason for this is that the company has decided to use other means to inform the public of the time of running its trains than by advertising in the local papers. Since the first of January the SENTINEL has been rendering that service gratuitously, but will not continue to do so, as the company is not a pauper and has no claim upon newspapers for gratuitous advertising. Heretofore the SENTINEL has given the time schedule of all excursion trains at stations in this county, but that custom will also be discontinued and advertisements of excursions must be paid for at the regular rates. For the information of readers of the paper the time of trains at Westminster Station by the new schedule is given here, as follows:

Going west, daily, 5.40 A. M., 6.08, 11.27 P. M.; daily, except Sunday, 9.35, 11.40 A. M., 4.25, 5.48, 7.57 P. M.; Saturday, 2.55 P. M.; Sunday 11.17 A. M.

Going east, daily, 9.25 A. M., 6.25 P. M.; daily, except Sunday, 4 55, 5.52, 7.25, 8.25 A. M., 1.15, 4.20 P. M.; Sunday, 7.00 A. M., 4.14, 8.10 P. M.

The 5.40 A. M. train, west, is the fast mail and only stops at Westminster, New Windsor, Union Bridge and Bruceville in this county; the 4.25 P. M. train is the Blue Mountain Express and only stops at Westminster, New Windsor and Bruceville; the 6.08 P. M. train stops at Westminster, New Windsor, Union Bridge and stations west.

The 6.25 P. M. train, east, is the fast mail and stops at the same stations as going west, as does also the Blue Mountain Express. The Blue Ridge Limited only runs west on Saturday and east on Sunday. Going west it stops only at Westminster, and east at Union Bridge, New Windsor and Westminster.

Daniel March, of Midway, and Miss Nora Zook, of McSherrystown, Pa., were married Sunday, 10th inst., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bixler, in Bachman's Valley, by Rev. J. P. F. T. Tagg. Mrs. Dickey has for years edited the Junior Lesson of Christian Endeavor in this paper, and is therefore well-known to our readers. She is a young lady of fine accomplishments, and will be a truly useful and resourceful helpmeet to her husband in the work of the ministry. They have our cordial congratulations.—Methodist Protestant, June 6.

The groom is well known here. He was a widower, his first wife having been a daughter of the late Geo. W. Stoner, Sr., of Stonersville, near this city.

Wilcox-Wilson.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at M. E. parsonage, Westminster, on Thursday, June 7th, the resident minister, Rev. H. M. Rider, officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Claude E. Wilcox, of Port Leydon, N. Y., and Miss Nena, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, of this county. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the many intimate friends of the bride having been present. The bride was dressed in white silk trimmed in point lace and carried white carnations. The groom wore the conventional black with white tie and boutoniere. A wedding collation was served at the Hotel Westminster, after which the bride donned her traveling costume, and the happy couple were driven to the depot where they boarded a train for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, New York City and other points of interest in the North and Northwest.

They will return to the home of the groom at Port Leydon about July 1st, and will make that place their future residence.

White-Buckingham

Centenary M. E. Church, this city, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding at half after 6 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, the bride having been Miss Mabel Elizabeth Buckingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Buckingham, of East Green street, this city, and the groom Rev. George Le Roy White, a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Westbury, Long Island, N. Y., a graduate of Western Maryland College and of Drew Theological Seminary, and formerly of Princess Anne, Md., Miss Elinore Adrian Buckingham, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Dr. J. Derby Hood, of Baltimore, cousin of the bride, best man. The ushers were: Messrs. Wilbur E. Buckingham, Alfred C. Buckingham, brothers of the bride; Dr. Grafton E. Day, of Camden, N. J., brother-in-law of the bride, and Rev. Charles M. Elderdice, of Baltimore. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk batiste over silk, with tulle veil and orange blossoms from Mexico, and a crescent of pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried Kaiserine roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of white silk tissue, with pink dots, over pink silk and carried American Belle roses. Miss M. Test Buckingham played the wedding marches, and the marriage ceremony was performed, with the ring service, by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Rider. A more beautiful and impressive wedding has rarely been witnessed in this city and the church was crowded with deeply interested spectators of the event. The happy couple, left for a bridal trip, followed by the congratulations and best wishes of many friends. They will reside at Westbury.

Gritzan-Miller.

Few weddings have occurred in this city, of recent years, in which greater interest was felt than that of Miss Florence Willard Miller and Mr. Harry C. Gritzan, which took place at 3 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, at Grace Lutheran Church. The bride is the eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. P. H. Miller, the pastor, and the groom a son of Mr. Theodore Gritzan, of Baltimore, of which he is also a citizen. The bride is deservedly popular with her father's parishioners and has many young friends among the active workers of the C. E. Societies of this county, all of whom were deeply interested in her marriage and cherish the strongest desire for her future happiness. The church was crowded by those anxious to witness the nuptials. The bride wore a gown of pure white silk and was unattended by maid of honor or bridesmaid. The ushers were: Messrs. Theodore Gritzan, Jr., Le Roy Gritzan, of Baltimore, brothers of the groom; Oliver Bachman, of Baltimore, and Luther Paul Miller, brother of the bride. The wedding marches were played by Miss Jane Reaver, the church organist, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Rev. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Baltimore, of which the groom is a member. Preceding the ceremony a wedding dinner was given to the ushers, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Gritzan left on their bridal trip by the 4.20 P. M. train. They will reside in Baltimore. The bridal presents were very numerous, useful and valuable. Among them being a handsome check to the bride from the father of the groom. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gritzan, Mrs. Henry H. Gritzan, Misses Mollie Gritzan, Emma Gritzan, Anna Gritzan, Nellie Corsey, of Baltimore; Mr. Harry L. Miller, of New York, brother of the bride; Mrs. Ellenberger, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Roberts and daughter, of Pennsylvania; Miss Rebecca Virts, of Virginia.

Price-Price.

We question whether any of the very many invited guests ever saw a more beautiful wedding than that which took place at "Rosemont," the residence of our popular farmer citizen, Mr. Jos. J. Price, near this city, at 11.30 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday last. It was the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, Miss Sara Elizabeth Price, and Mr. Harvey Emmett Price, of Grand Island, Nebraska. The ceremony was performed by Elder Wm. M. Wine, president of the Maryland Collegiate Institute, Union Bridge. The bride was dressed in a princess gown of sheer white organdie over white taffeta silk, trimmed with oriental and valenciennes lace. The maid of honor, Miss M. Katheryn Bechtel, of Hanover, Pa., was dressed in white organdie over white silk trimmed with oriental and valenciennes lace, with white girdle. The bridesmaids, Misses Florence Brown and May Price, cousins of the bride, were gowned in white Persian lawn with white silk girdles. The ushers were Messrs. H. M. Harvey and J. W. Thomas. Mr. James Garrett, of Hanover, Pa., was best man. The groom was formerly a student of the well known German Baptist educational institution, Mt. Morris College, and is a young man of fine attainments and exceptional business ability. The bride, as is generally known, is a graduate of the Maryland Collegiate Institute of this county, and one of the most accomplished young ladies in our community. Both Mr. and Mrs. Price, as well as the parents of both, are members of the German Baptist Brethren Church.

The ceremony was performed under an extremely handsome floral bell, while in the rear of the minister an immense bank of daisies and lillies contributed to the attractions of the beautiful display. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast of substantials and delicacies was served to the numerous assemblage, shortly after which the newly married couple, amid showers of rice and congratulations, drove to Taneytown, where they took a train for a bridal trip to Hanover and York, Pa.; Washington, D. C., and elsewhere. They will return here for a short time and then go to their future home at Grand Island, Neb.

Among those present were: Mr. Jos. J. Price and wife, parents of the bride; Paul Price, brother of bride; Mr. Abraham Price, wife and son Levine; Mrs. Elizabeth Gipe, of East Berlin, Pa., grandmother of the bride; Elder Ezra C. Brown, wife, daughter Florence, and son Wm. E., Miss Mary Price, Miss Catherine Bechtel, Mr. Harry Young and wife, Mrs. Wm. H. Geiman and family, Mr. David R. Geiman and wife, Mr. Theo. F. Englar and wife, Mr. Samuel Roop, Mrs. M. J. Woodward, Mr. A. H. Huber and wife, Mr. W. H. Davis and wife, Mr. Jehu Royer and wife, Mr. Jno. T. Cassell and wife, Mr. Wm. A. The Kind You Have Always Bought

Dr. Lewis Goes to Europe.

Rev. Dr. Thos. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College, accompanied by two of his daughters, Misses Clara and Marjorie, and his nephew, Lewis A. Jarman, Esq., and wife, of Rushville, Ill., sailed from New York for Liverpool, Eng., on Tuesday afternoon, on the steamer Caronia, of the Cunard line. Upon their arrival at Liverpool they will proceed at once to Switzerland and will probably spend the summer on Lake Geneva.

At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College, held in January, Dr. Lewis was granted a year's leave of absence, in order that he might travel in this country and abroad, to recuperate his strength and gather information that would be useful to him in his educational work. He was loth to cease his active duties, even for a time, but the necessity for rest from his arduous and strenuous labors was imperative, and, leaving the college in good hands, he has gone abroad to remain, probably, until next year. He expects to begin a tour of Egypt and the Holy Land in October and, following that, will spend the remainder of the year in travel.

Dr. Lewis has well earned this year's vacation. He has just completed his twentieth year as president of the college, which, under his able administration, has had almost phenomenal success. But, while his duties as head of the institution confined him closely he still found time for valuable work in other directions. Recently a volume of his sermons under the title of "The Good Life" has been published and widely read, and he has now going through the press another series of sermons on "The Divine Credentials." He has a wide and enviable reputation as an orator, both in the pulpit and on the educational platform. Only last month, by special invitation, he delivered an address before the Congregational Club of Boston, and he was compelled to decline an invitation to deliver the baccalaureate sermon at Oberlin College, on Sunday last.

He was one of the vice-presidents of the General Tri-Church Council of Congregationalists, United Brethren and Methodist Protestants, at Dayton, Ohio, in Februrary last, and is credited with having been the leading representative of his own denomination, and also with having, in a very large degree, shaped the policy of the council.

Dr. Lewis is, in fact, possessed of rare endowments. He is not only intellectually highly gifted, an able theologian and preacher, and an orator of power, but has executive ability beyond most men, as his administration of the affairs of Western Maryland College amply demonstrates. That he may return next year reinvigorated in health and prepared for a long period of future usefulness as the head of the college is not only the desire of his many friends, but of all who have the welfare of that institution at heart.

Freedom District Items

A valuable horse which belonged to Mr. Basil Dorsey, of Freedom district, fell through the bridge over Morgan's run, on the Oakland road, on Saturday and was so badly injured that its death was caused by the accident. It is reported that a plank which had been nailed over a weak spot in the bridge had been knocked loose, and that the flooring gave way under the weight of the animal.

Mr. H. Newton Devries, a prominent Freedom district farmer, met with a painful and, in some respects, serious accident on Saturday. He was operating a fodder cutter with horse-power, cutting hay, when his right hand was caught in the knives and three of the fingers and the thumb severed at the knuckle joints and the index finger at the second joint. Dr. M. Norris rendered the necessary surgical aid in the case and Mr. Devries is doing as well as the nature of his injuries will permit.

A heavy rain and thunderstorm passed over Freedom district on Sunday afternoon. Some hail fell, but not in sufficient quantities to do any damage to growing crops. Cornfields and public roads were considerably washed.

Wheat harvest began in the district the middle of this week and will be well under way by its close. The crop is a good one. The crop of timothy hay will also be excellent, but the yield of clover hay is short, the crop having been affected by the spring drought.

Mr. J. Thomas Harris is preparing to build a new dwelling house on his farm, near Freedom.

Mr. Wade H. D. Warfield has completed a three-story brick store building in Sykesville. The building has a granite front and is an imposing structure.

Mr. Wm. H. Anderson and family, of Baltimore, have moved to their country home, Windsor Forest, in this district, for the summer.

It is thought that some young men in the vicinity of Freedom will soon be taking wives from the neighborhood of Berrett, as they frequently visit that locality.
