n.a.

SIDE TWO

beautyfull appearance, the clover seed comes up very well, and could I see a good chance of a good price for our tobacco, I should be in hopes of doing very well, It will give me real pleasure to hear you see a prospect of turning your money to a good account, the times are critical and call for prudence, perhaps more then so young a man can be expected to possess, you will think those are the fears of a timerous Women but five years hence it may appear to you in a different light, It is said that Many more failures must take place this spring in Baltimore. Your Sis. Nancy is grown so fast that she has been obliged to let out her gown sleeves I never saw her look better she yesterday got a slight cold and complains of a sore throat, as there is no fever I expect it will soon be gone, Fanny is better tho not quite free from the Rheumatism,

Old Jock says I must send you in exchange a hat you prem[illegible] Your shirts and [illegible] Sally make a bu[illegible] and send them dow[illegible] that are worth it and return them to send me some of your old clothes [illegible] it

I am Your Affte Mother
Ann Ewing

Monday Night

pray put this in to the fire as soon as you have read it let me have a long letter by return of the Sally