SIDE ONE

August 30, 1797

I have only time to scribble a few lines to my dear Anne to inquire after your good family, I sincerely hope your dear Father is by this perfectly recovered, give my best respects and love to him and tell him I sincerely wish him health and happiness - Mrs R. sets off for West River tomorrow, and I suppose will soon be with you, - Nancy Kemble desires me to give a great deal of love to you all, and is extremely anxious to see you, why can't you meet us at Annapolis you and your Sister, if your Father health at that time will permit you nothing wd give me more pleasure than seeing you there, and our carriage shall meet you at the ferry with your humble Servant (&c)
