1798-1778

SIDE TWO

take that trout home and if I do not go to Annapolis I shall be left quite alone tho' I assure you it is much against my inclination for I really ~~dread~~ wish to go to a place that must recall what I wd wish for ever banished from my thoughts but poor mortals we women are not a way of our own, husands we must obey after that solemn vow to god.— I am really very anxious to see you and the pleasure of your company at that time will add greatly to my happiness— God bless you my dear cousin I have not time to write more as I am called away so adieu with much love to all your good family

I am sincerely your affec.te friend M. R.