By order of
COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

According to the Baltimore Evening News the gambling and liquor dens at the shore resorts in Baltimore county were ready for business on Sunday afternoon, but were restrained by a more potent power than the county constabulary—Jupiter Pluvius. Torrents of rain kept the thirsty from the bars and prevented many innocents from being fleeced by gambling devices. Many of the intended visitors to the resorts reached Highlandtown and shelter and found amusement in a big sweat and hazard game on Eastern avenue, and also an accommodating saloon near the car barn, where drinks could be had for the asking and the——money. The county police did make a raid on a gambling dive, at Westport, but that was on Saturday night. Public sentiment against the wholesale violations of the liquor, gambling and Sunday laws, at these Baltimore county resorts, is being aroused and may compel their suppression, but they are too valuable adjuncts of Hon. J. F. C. Talbott's campaign to be summarily dealt with and their proprietors punished as they should be. Will the good people of the Second Congressional district continue to sanction these outrages upon common decency by again electing Mr. Talbott to Congress?

Intelligent Democrats must find considerable food for amusement in the ready made "Editorial Notes" of the Advocate. Says one of these notes, in last week's Advocate: "The Democrats point with pride that they forced the Republican majority to vote for a rate bill, a pure food bill, and other remedial legislation that have for years been the principal planks in Democratic platforms." The managers of the bureau from which this and other inane stuff emanates for the general benefit of country Democratic newspapers, must imagine the free silver issue to have been of minor importance in comparison with these principal ones in Democratic platforms. Further they must wonder, if they think at all, why the Democratic party, when in full power and authority, legislative and executive, did not give some of these "principal planks" in their platforms the force of law, instead of waiting to force the Republicans to do so. At this rate it will not be long until these manufacturers of ready-made editorials will be asserting that the Democrats drove the Republicans to resume specie payments and prevented the payment of the national debt in greenbacks, and that, likewise, they forced the Republicans to adopt the gold standard as the basis of our national currency. That would be just as reasonable and truthful as the above quotation.

While Mr. C. Ross Mace, of Baltimore county, positively refuses to enter the lists as an aspirant for the nomination of the Republican party of the Second district of Maryland for Congress, it is stated that his friends will not become reconciled to the prospective candidacy of Mr. Robert Garrett to such a degree as to favor the election of a delegation to the congressional convention from Baltimore county in the latter's interest. The ground of their hostility is that Mr. Garrett endorsed a Harford county man as an appraiser of customs at Baltimore, a position which Mr. Mace was then occupying, and from which he was removed to give the place to the other man. Whether this opposition will prevent Mr. Garrett from carrying Baltimore county at the primaries remains to be seen. If it shall do so, or if the conditions are of such a character as to weaken Mr. Garrett, if nominated, at the polls, the SENTINEL suggests that the convention might do worse than to take a Carroll county man as the nominee. This county is not without good congressional timber. Either Mr. E. E. Reindollar, Dr. J. J. Weaver, Jr., or Dr. C. Birnie would make a candidate well worthy the united support of the Republicans of the district. Probably neither of them wants the nomination, but if nominated with unanimity could hardly refuse the call to such a duty.

The heaviest rainfall in Baltimore since the establishment of the United States Weather Bureau in that city, thirty-five years ago, occurred on Sunday afternoon when the precipitation exceeded six inches. The highest previous record was in 1893, when a total of 5.08 inches of rain fell within 24 hours. The six-inch record of Sunday was made between 1.51 o'clock in the afternoon and midnight. Its effect was to swell the waters of Jones' Falls beyond the capacity of the stream and the section formerly known as "The Meadow" was flooded. The water backed up on Holiday street, between Hillen and Saratoga, to a depth of four feet. Harrison street, as usual on such occasions, was under water and the first floors of most of the houses along the street were flooded and damage wrought to the goods and effects of the people resident therein. Jenkins' run, in the northeastern section of the city, also overflowed and wrought thousands of dollars damage in that vicinity. Nearly every section of the city suffered to a greater or less extent by the tremendous downpour. Crops in Baltimore county, for a considerable distance from the city, were damaged and the highways badly washed.

THE R. F. D. READJUSTMENT.

It can be stated authoritatively that the readjustment of the R. F. D. routes in this county will go into effect August 1st. This has been determined by the department from whose dictum in the matter there is no appeal. Steps, however, are to be taken to correct such mistakes as may be pointed out in names of location, length of routes &c., and an inspector of the department will visit the county, hear complaints and, as far as possible, straighten out the tangle. Without question many persons will suffer inconvenience in the early stages of the new arrangement, but eventually the location of all who receive mail by the R. F. D. system will become known to the carriers and the difficulties incident to the readjustment will settle themselves, except, perhaps, in the matter of the repetition of numbers. In that case mail addressed to an individual residing on a route the number of which is attached to one or more routes elsewhere in the county, must name the postoffice at which the route will have its beginning. Otherwise there will be no end to the confusion.

It is said the department did not undertake the readjustment of the routes for the purpose of saving money, but to improve the service. As that had become generally satisfactory the readjustment was a work of supererogation, as the protests which have been made against it were not without reason, without taking into consideration the repetition of route numbers.

There is reliable authority for all the statements which have emanated from this county in relation to the defects of the readjustment, and, doubtless, the department has knowledge of some of these facts. Otherwise it would have no occasion to send an inspector to the county to make such corrections as may be necessary. It will not only do this, but, we are informed, has directed and enjoined the postal employees in the county to exert every possible effort to serve receivers and senders of mail in a satisfactory manner. Accordingly the patrons of the R. F. D. system should meet its efforts in the same spirit and thus get the new system of routes working smoothly as quickly as possible.

There is little hope of liberty for the Russian masses in the near future. The dissolution of the Duma—the national parliament recently conceded to the people by the Czar—is being followed up by preparations for the rigid suppression of all revolutionary movements. The Duma, elected by the people, was overwhelmingly in favor of liberal government and, in effect, undertook to defy the Czar, and insisted upon the adoption of its theories. As time passed the members became more bold and the proceedings were fast preparing the people for revolution. Then the Duma was dissolved and prohibited from meeting anywhere on Russian soil. It did meet, however, in Finland, and issued a revolutionary manifesto to the Russian people. The response came, however, not from the people but from the government, which is making ready to employ drastic measures to maintain the absolute power of the Czar. As long as the army remains loyal to the throne the people will be powerless. Assassinations of leading members and officers of the government may continue, but, while they may inspire terror will only serve to cause more rigid and despotic action by the autocracy.

The fortieth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Minneapolis, Minn., August 13 to 18, proximo. John R. King, James Campbell and John G. Taylor comprising the committee on transportation earnestly urge all their comrades of the G. A. R., members of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and friends who intend to make the trip to send in their names at once, either to headquarters of the department of Maryland, or to the members of the committee. This they say is important as everything depends on numbers in making their arrangements. The railroad fare for the round trip from Baltimore will be $25.

Mr. George P. Shamer, of Baltimore, has been appointed an assistant paymaster in the United States Navy, after a Civil Service examination in which he stood fourth in a class of 56. Mr. Shamer is a native of Arcadia, Baltimore county, and during the past year was a teacher in a Baltimore public school. He is a graduate of Baltimore City College and also studied at the University of Chicago, and the Baltimore Teachers' Training School.

It is stated that farmers throughout Frederick county are busily engaged in thrashing wheat. Among the large yields is that of George Rhoderick, a portion of whose crop will make 35 bushels to the acre. In various localities the entire crop will yield 30 bushels to the acre. Indications point to a tremendous yield of corn.

Michael W. Pendergast and Bartholomew Feeney, trading as Pendergast & Feeney, have sued the Western Maryland Railroad Company for $3,000 damages for causing the destruction by fire of a storehouse, icehouse, dwelling and other buildings at McKenie's Farm, Allegany county, alleging that the fire originated from sparks emitted by a Western Maryland locomotive.

Rev. F. B. Cunz, pastor of St. Matthew's German Lutheran Church, of Hagerstown, is leading a movement to induce German Lutherans to settle in Washington county, and General Manager Alexander Robertson of the Western Maryland Railroad, in a letter to the preacher, states that the company will do all in its power to assist him.

Friends of Viney Fields, a negress, who died Monday at her home, 211 Virginia avenue southeast, Washington, D. C., without medical attention, assert that she was at the time of her death 118 years old.

Mr. Frank Diehl, of New Oxford, Pa., died last week from injuries sustained by falling from a wagon. He was in his 60th year.

The State convention of the Prohibition party of Maryland will be held at Laurel on the 12th of September.

A Sunshine Club.

In the quiet and peaceful little village of Manchester live many kind and generous Sunshiners. Please read it correctly, not "moon" but "sun" shiners. A number of them has formed a "Pass It On Sunshine Club," which is trying to cast the rays of love and kindness into dark and saddened hearts, by sending flowers and fruits to the hospitals, and clothing and literature to the needy. This week a call was made upon the members of the club and their friends to give a donation to the Aged People's Outing Association, at Glyndon Park. This association gives thirty old ladies from Baltimore, who are dependent upon relatives, a two-weeks' outing. An exceedingly liberal response was made, and a large box of groceries, and a barrel of vegetables was packed at the home of Dr. Luther Trump, Monday evening last.

Birthday Anniversary Party.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beacham gave a very enjoyable party at their Avondale home, on Monday evening of last week, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Catharine. The grounds were illuminated by a profusion of Japanese lanterns, affording a beautiful setting for the many animated groups of gay young people upon the lawn. An untimely shower compelled the guests to take refuge within the house. But here the time was passed no less pleasantly in singing and dancing. At eleven o'clock tempting refreshments were served, and not long afterward the guests began to take their leave, bringing the pleasant evening to a close. Among those present were: Misses Catharine Beacham, Margaret Beacham, Alice Miller, Harriet Miller, Marie Shriver, Grace Smith, Caroline Buffington, Mary Osborn, Reba Richardson, Virginia Richardson, Caroline Billingslea, Sue Billingslea, Nettie Whitmore, Harriet Gist, Ruth Gist, Hattie Miller, Caro Bell Miller, Larue Myers, Messrs. James Beacham, Roger Englar, Tom Englar, Augustus Shriver, Raymond Richardson, John Smith, Charlie Richardson, Roger Smith, Chester Baile, Roland Baile, Howell Billingslea, Robert Billingslea, Noah Schaeffer, Ober Schaeffer, Russell Schaeffer, Edwin Brundige, Trump Herr, Ober Herr, Willie Roberts, and Maurice Englar.

A TRAGIC FINISH.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

In loving remembrance of my dear father, Wm. H. Franklin, who departed this life July 31st, 1905.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart;
'Tis hard so hard to speak the words,
Must we forever part?

Dearest father, we have laid thee,
In the peaceful grave's embrace;
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy Heavenly face.

Dependable Clothing

For Men and Boys.

Don't be misled by this price and think them a lot of "slipshod" ready-made stuff bought for this sale.

They come direct from our regular stock of Serges and Mixtures, some heavy enough for late fall and early winter wear. Those in boys sizes are just the thing for school, they resist wear and tear.

Gray serges are the thing this season only 3 left, sizes 37, 38 and 40. Cut in the latest style, double breasted, sold up to this sale at $16 now $12.

A nice assortment of fancy yet serviceable mixed Worsteds, could be used for winter wear They go at $9 were $12.

A lot made as good with a little less quality at $7.50 they were the $10 kind.

Here is what we call excellent. It is a Gray Crash up to the minute make, cool, stylish, and durable only 3 left, now $12 ought to have $14.

Just the time to fit the Boys' in a very nice Sunday Suit and then take it for school a little later.

They come in blacks, blues, worsteds and cassimeres at $3.75 were $5.00 worth $6.00.

$2.75 " $3.50 " $4.50.
$2.25 " $3.00 " $4.00.

RARE MUSLIN CHANCE.

Can't I use some Muslin? Give this a thought it will be time well spent.

We have three bales Unbleached extra heavy yard wide Muslin the kind others get 7c for we only ask 5c yd. for ours.

Durable Table OIL CLOTH.

This rare offering should interest every lady. 200 pieces of the best quality fancy 5-4 Oil Cloth going at 9c yd., we need the room. Originally 12½c goods.
