SIDE TWO

for she too has had her share of Fatigue.— Bro.r Sam & Maria were here yesterday, very well she looks as Beautiful as ever, just begins to look of a very Fashionable shape and will increase her Family the first of next December this to yourselves.— Bro.r Ben is with us, and Tench will be here Tomorrow.— I am very glad to hear Aunt Galloway has got Home, you must write me what Improvements d.r Mary has made.— Cousin John Shippen was here last Saturday week, he went to Baltimore and told us he should be here again in a week if he did not extend his ride as far as your House, as he is not come yet I think he must have p.d you a Visit, I hope he has, as a little Company I should think would be of Service to your Papa's Spirits.— Mr T.— is making preparations to Build, I look forward with pleasure to the time when that I shall be fixed in my own House, and hope I shall be blessed with the sight of both my d.r Cousins in it one day or other.— poor old Mrs Chew is so much recovered as to reach Bath without being injured by the bad roads or distress. Uncle and Aunt Galloway went up with her.— Aunt G.— is in a bad state of Health, I hope she will be benefited by the Bath Waters.— what think you of a Theatre being opened in Hagars Town, a Company of strolling Players going to perform.— Uncle J. Galloway wrote Mama that he had been totally entertained with seeing the young Gentlemen at (illegible) perform the fair Penitent, Mr Perry whom we saw at Acted Twelve.— the old Gentleman writes in good Spirits, and shall visit us again this Summer, he was much pleased with our Society, indeed they were very Attentive and polite to him. I must beg the favor of you to write me the dimensions of your Papers for getting out wheat.— Mr T. wants to have his made by them immediately, Mr T. joins me in Affect.e love to you all.— believe me my d.r Cousin
