1796

Anna Clarke
(1776-1811)

SIDE TWO

he is a great favorite of mine — my husband also chines me to say he anticipates great plea-sure from seeing you all here; — I suppose before this you are fully acquainted with Master Jenny's Propination towards the paths of matrimony that he may be happy in the connection is my sincere wish, particularly as I know it will add much to the happiness of our good mother if so; her situation is sad and truely to be lamented and I conider it our duty to alleviate as much as possible her feelings, which at times are very acute, the dr Old Lady for some days past has been unwell, Nancy L. spent last week with us, but was oblige to return on Saturday last to her account — How are the Tulip Hill family tell Mary G — I want much to see her and hope she will not forget me little Betsy she wd no doubt be much pleased with. pray offer my sincere wishes to Mr & Mrs G for their health and happiness, tell them I should be extremely happy to see them with Mary in this part of the country — Mr B. Galloway dined with us yesterday Mrs G — is not well owing to her having her rest much disturbed by a set of rioters who have behaved very ill to Mr G but proper exertions have quelled the party, and their minds are now at ease, it arose from a scandalous report one Morrison circulated concerning Miss N. F. she is extremely imprudent and like unthinking giddy girls often acts in a strange, foolish manner. It is quite impos-sible for me to relate to you on paper the report tho' swift footed scandal may probably ere long acquaint you with the circumstances in full — Have you seen Mrs Ogle since she became Gr Lady, I think I can see her officiating in that capacity with all the grace and heart felt joy Imaginable, can you inform me whether she has had an additional blood since she Mary has commenced woman, is she thought Pretty? or does Kitty Mary, (as the country folks say) wipe the shine off of her — You will I fear with my dull lines in the fire, and as it is near 12. O'clock I will beg you to accept of a Kiss from My Husband, and the sincere love of Your affectionate

Ann

Pray give my best love to your dr mother Sister, and Brother, if with you.