SIDE TWO

babe, mine shall be untiring, unceasing prayers both day and night shall be offered by me, for his recovery the dr little affectionate Rogue is quite well and has got his rosy cheeks again, a sweet child you wd not if you could see him wonder that my very heart and soul is wrapped up in him he is indeed an uncommon child and one that wins on the heart of every one who sees him, my dr Maria is as great a favorite as ever, and is a promising child, Betty tho' last is not least in our affection, I really think her a very fine child and will leave you to judge for yourself as you may expect too much and be disappointed when you see her, which I sincerely pray, will be now in a little time you know not my anxiety to see you, when we meet we will con this over the less we think of it till then the better as it will only increase our impatience — Your kindness in wishing to be with me at the time of my distress, is exceedingly flattering to me and soothing to my feelings. Mr R. this day left me for Jeneffs wedding he wd experience great pleasure if he could make it convenient to see you, my dr Mrs Cheston, d Fanny, but I fear his stay will be so short, and his affairs at home call so loudly for him that it will be out of his power let me tell you that you are as great a favorite with his lordship as any body I know, and yr dr Mother you know was always thought a non such — I will not say what I think of the good little woman — Mrs R. is to be with me tomorrow as old lady she is much broke and her health exceedingly impaired — Nancy T. pretty well George has a very ugly Eruption which at pr is distressing to the little fellow, he has the subject to lit. Mary is quite well, your message shall be delivered to N. T. — my paper is almost filled and I being nurse, house keeper, and every thing else am so often called off that I know not hardly what I have written, but I have not said half what I wish to, you must excuse this scrawl as I really am so hurried I can scarcely, add I am with very sin-
