SIDE TWO

of this week, so that I hope the fortnight that the old people is to stay with us will pass away agreeably, and rather be of service to Mama than otherways; the Girls will stay with us for some weeks and I am in hopes one of them the Winter I wish I could say the unhappy difference was at an end, but it rests as it did when I wrote you last Mama has made every exertion, I am sorry for it as Mrs Lee and Eliza are dear, but I hope it will be attended with good Consequences after it is made up, they will not be so apt to fall out again. — I am happy to hear from Mrs M. that Polly Lynn and her little girls are well, they did not take the small Pox by the first Inoculation and they have determined not to try it again. — I scarcely know what I am writing, I am rejoiced to hear of your dear Mrs. recovery God grant him long life and good health; my dear love attends you all Supper is ready. I have got a fine Colour in my Cheeks this night than I have had these three years. —

Yours most affty

A. M. T. —
