SIDE TWO

Friend in Alphonsa Carmichael a few weeks previous to her marriage she wrote me to request I would forgive her, for never having placed that Confidence in me which I never asked, nor wished, also to invite me to be her principal Attendant at her Nuptials – her first, was easily granted, but her next wish I could not accede to, I never saw her Husband, therefore suppose the Correspondance will be for the future somewhat more formal – I often dwell with delight on the meeting which ~~from~~ what I have heard you & Mrs. Howard say we shall enjoy, during the approaching Session of Congress – Our Affectionate Wishes attend your Mama, Dearest Fanny. you – Believe that I love you most sincerely – if you are inclined to Pardon my apparent Negligence, assure me of it, by a Line & remove the Anxiety of your grateful

Ann Barry