The price to be paid, therefore, is a small fraction less than $1.61 per square foot. Those whose names have been erased from the lists of registered voters can get certificates to that effect by writing to the Board. Harvey U. Jackson, son of John T. Jackson, a workman in the shops of the railroad company at Union Bridge, was tried before Justice Eckstein, of Frederick, on Friday, on the charge of abducting or kidnapping his 13-year-old sister, Mary Jackson. The Justice acquitted him, the girl having testified that she went with him willingly. She was living, with her father's consent, in the home of Frank L. Stoner, of Frederick. Her father and mother have separated, and the brother, who is not yet 21 years old, desires to take care of and provide for her and send her to school. He says he is able to do so and is not willing that she shall live in a menial position. The young man is employed at the South Baltimore Car Works and is supporting his mother, who lives with him. The justice, while dismissing the charge of kidnapping, ordered that the girl be returned to the custody of her father, but she wept so bitterly that an arrangement was made by which she is to remain with her brother.

A Skillful Surgeon.

Cumberland papers tell of a recent surgical operation in that city, by Dr. A. Leo Franklin, that marks him as a surgeon of much more than ordinary skill and ability, though he is yet a young man. The operation is known as Caesarian section and is one of the most dangerous, difficult and delicate in surgery. The subject was Mrs. Mamie Twigg, who resides about six miles from Cumberland on the Baltimore turnpike. It happened that Mrs. Twigg had previously undergone three severe abdominal operations, which added to the danger and delicacy of that performed by Dr. Franklin. Notwithstanding this it was eminently successful and saved the life of Mrs. Twigg and her babe which thus first saw the light through a process very rarely adopted in such cases. Dr. Franklin had the assistance of several other physicians, but it was his hand which held and safely guided the knife with which the operation was performed. He is a native of this county and the son of Dr. B. G. Franklin, of this city, who has every reason to be very proud of him and his professional success.

WEDDING BELLS.

Grim-Grimes.

A wedding which smacks a little of the romantic was performed in Hagerstown last week by the Rev. J. S. Simmon, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, of that place. The principals were Mr. Frederick Grim, of Ellicott City, formerly of Winchester, Va., and Miss Alice M. Grimes, daughter of Mr. Ephraim D. Grimes of Baltimore, formerly of this city, where the bride also resided and was well known. Miss Grimes was visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry J. Turfle, in Winchester, when she met Mr. Grim. The couple became very intimate, and Thursday morning left together, saying they were going to Washington, D. C., for the day. Instead they went to Hagerstown. Mr. Grim is an employee of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The couple will make their home in Winchester for the present.

The bride, who is a tall and graceful blonde, was attired in a very handsome gown of white silk over taffeta, with trimmings of valenciennes lace. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and ferns. The wedding march, as the bridal couple entered the parlor, was very skillfully and beautifully rendered on the piano by Miss Lillian Shipley. The marriage ceremony was performed in an impressive manner by Rev. Harold M. Rider, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church. Congratulations, warm and earnest, were then extended by all present to the happy couple following which all were invited to the dining room, where an elegant wedding luncheon was served. Among those present on the occasion were the aged grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Jesse N. Williams, of this city; the mother and sisters of the bride, Mrs. L. He was a worthy gentleman and was highly esteemed by his neighbors for his upright life and character. He was a son of the late Peter Baile, of New Windsor, and leaves many relatives in this county and elsewhere in this State. The late Miss Deborah Baile, of New Windsor was his sister. Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

The Quarterly Meeting of the Maryland Branch, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Protestant Church, met in the church of that demonation in this city on Wednesday. There were about 80 delegates present. The president, Mrs. W. W. Baynes, of Baltimore, presided. Much of the time was taken up in discussing plans concerning various phases of the work. The reports of auxiliaries showed encouraging progress during the quarter. The business sessions were interspersed with songs, prayers and quiet moments of consecration. The ladies of the local Missionary Society furnished lunch in the Sunday School room at noon and in the evening. The visitors were much pleased with their trip and were loud in their praise of Westminster's hospitality and scenic surroundings. In place of the regular prayer meeting the pastor, Rev. L. F. Warner, conducted a missionary service in the evening, at which Miss Florence Hammond and Mrs. Henry Hupfield, of Baltimore, made addresses.

Western Maryland Railroad Notes.

Trains on the Western Maryland Railroad were detained for hours last Saturday afternoon and evening by two wrecks, neither of which, however, was otherwise very serious. The first occurred about 4 o'clock, between Medford and Avondale. In this case the trucks of a car filled with earth or gravel broke loose and tore up the track for some distance. In consequence of the accident the Blue Mountain Express and the Fast Mail train were held up west of this city, and the Union Bridge Accommodation arriving here shortly before 6 o'clock was run on a siding about a quarter of a mile below the station, and Westminster passengers were given the option of sitting in the cars for several hours, or tramping that distance up the track to the Main street of the town. Of course the train officers were only obeying orders, but somebody must have blundered in giving them.

The other wreck was caused by the derailment of the engine and four coaches of the Through Passenger Express leaving Baltimore at 4.55. The accident occurred near Glyndon and the track was torn up for a considerable distance, but the damage was otherwise slight. The passengers were somewhat shaken up, but nobody was seriously injured.

Trains were delayed yesterday by a slight accident to the Blue Mountain Express, near Glen Falls, on its run to Baltimore.

Tournament and Horse Show.

The fourth annual tournament and horse show of the farmers of Carroll, Frederick, Howard and Montgomery counties was held at Wildwood Park, Mt. Airy, on Saturday last. A large crowd was present. The first event was a balloon ascension by Prof. Jack Hayne, who, upon reaching an altitude of 2,000 feet, leaped from the car with a parachute and descended in a field two miles south of Mt. Airy.

The tournament followed. The charge to the knights was delivered by Charles O. Clemson, Esq., of this city. The successful knights were Gordon Hobbs, who crowned Miss Sadie Hobbs queen of love and beauty; Asa Hobbs, who crowned Miss Mamie Jones first maid of honor; Frank Hobbs, who crowned Miss Julia Fowler second maid of honor, and Robert Mercer, who crowned his wife. D. Princeton Buckey, Esq., of Frederick, delivered the coronation address. The officers were: Chief Marshal, Caleb Hobbs; assistant marshals, Riggs Dorsey, Charlie Hobbs, Gus Riggs, Nathan Dorsey, Roland Dorsey; heralds, Malcolm Sellman and Carl Horn; judges, Dr. R. A. Williams, Sydney Sappington, F. A. Crawford, M. Warfield, D. Roop, H. D. Wolf, Lou Miller, B. Patrick, W. H. D. Warfield, C. E. Poole, C. A. Runkles, O. M. Spurrier.

A mule race was won by Pessie G. after an exciting run.

In the horse show the prize winners were: Double team, Ernest C. Horn; single team, James Stewart; saddle horse, Roland Dorsey; heavy draught horse, Alva Ramsberg; light draught horse, Robert Diller.

A game of baseball between the Mount Airy and the Denning teams resulted in a score of 28 to 4 in favor of Mount Airy.

The Baltimore Presbytery and Miss Sallie Longwell's Will.

The Baltimore Presbytery, at its meeting in October, will probably consider and accept or decline a bequest made by the late Miss Sallie Longwell, of this city, whose will was admitted to probate in the Orphans' Court July 10, 1905. In the will Miss Longwell devised to the bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Maryland her mansion house and 15 acres of land in this city, also $10,000 additional, and made the diocese her residuary legatee, which increased the bequest about $10,000 more, all upon the condition that the divisee establish and maintain on the premises devised an institution designed for benevolent, charitable or educational purposes.

The diocese was given a year in which to accept or reject the bequest, and in the event of the latter course, then the property and monetary bequest and the residuary devise were to go to the Presbytery of Baltimore upon the same terms and conditions.

The bequest to the Episcopal diocese was not accepted, and the reversion to the Presbytery is now to be considered. If that body shall decline to accept the bequest, the mansion and grounds are to be sold, and out of the proceeds $5,000 is to be given to the Church Home and Infirmary of Baltimore to endow a bed in that institution, and the residue of the estate is to be equally divided between the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America and the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. If the bequest shall be accepted by the Presbytery and it shall fail at any future time to effectively maintain such an institution as is described in the will, the property and other devises will be forfeited and divided between the two boards of missions referred to.

It is stated that the Presbytery of Baltimore has in contemplation the acceptance of the bequest and the establishment of a Presbyterian home for the aged. To do this, however, it will be necessary to raise an additional sum of $30,000. It is not obligatory under the terms of the will upon the Presbytery to decide upon its action before July next, but it is supposed the question will be carefully considered and possibly a conclusion reached at its meeting in October.

An Enjoyable Reception.

Miss Ella Lydia Yingling, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Yingling, and Mr. Horace Leppo, a well known young farmer, son of Mr. Wm. K. Leppo, a wealthy farmer of Bachman's Valley, were married on the 23rd ult., by Rev. R. W. Doty, the bride's pastor, and a reception was given in their honor at the home of the bride's parents on Sunday. The interest of the occasion was greatly heightened by the fact that it occurred on the 89th birthday anniversary of the aged grandmother of the bride—Grandmother Yingling, as she is familiarly called. The aged lady and the bride and groom were the recipients of many useful and ornamental presents. An elegant, sumptuous and most tempting dinner was served at 12 M., and lighter refreshments in abundance at 4 P. M. The bride was handsomely gowned in sky-blue silk, trimmed with white satin and satin brocade ribbon, while the groom wore the conventional black. Beautiful vocal and instrumental music, by Miss Mabel Gottling, of Baltimore, gave great pleasure to the guests, who were also entertained with music on the organ by others present. Before leaving for their homes all joined in singing, for the pleasure of the blind and aged grandmother, "Nearer My God to Thee," and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

A Camp Fire.

Thaddeus Stevens Post No. 40, G. A. R., of New Windsor, held its twenty-second annual camp fire in Smith's Simonia Park, August 30 and 31 and September 1. It was largely attended and was visited by Department Commander George Prechtel and Chief of Staff Frank A. Butts; also by Mrs. Lizzie Smith, past department president, Woman's Relief Corps; Mrs. Wilhelmina Treff, inspector, and Mrs. Annie Earl, assistant inspector; Mrs. Brandow and Mrs. Emich, all of Baltimore. The camp-fire was a grand success and all had a joyful time. The ladies sang Auld Lang Syne, the Star Spangled Banner and My Country, 'Tis of Thee, and there was great cheering. The visitors returned to their homes in Baltimore on Sunday.

Wentz's Union Sunday School held its annual celebration on Saturday last. Brodbecks Band was here at 8 o'clock, and at 9.30 band and school marched to Mr. Crumrine's grove where an enjoyable day was spent. At Mr. Joe James' home the band played a selection for Mrs. Hann, a former member of the school, who is very ill. Among the speakers who addressed the school were Rev. J. A. Metzgar, of Hanover, Pa., who spoke on "The Origin of Sunday Schools;" Rev. H. H. Flick, of Manchester, on "The Bible and Its Use;" Mr. Emory Decker, superintendent of a Sunday School in Baltimore, numbering 350 members; Mr. Edward Kreidler, superintendent of Kreidler's Sunday School for nearly 35 years. The program during the day and evening was well rendered. Good order prevailed and all said it was as good if not better than our previous celebrations. The school was organized nearly 60 years ago, and Mr. Phanuel Wentz, one of its organizers, now aged nearly 84 years, was present at the celebration.

Don't forget Bachman's picnic, Sept. 9th, and Kreidler's, Sept. 15th.

A young son of Mr. Oden Barnes, near Marston, was driving a mower and got out on the tongue of the machine when the horses started and threw him under it. Both his hands were caught in the knife nearly severing one and the other partly. He was taken to the Md. University Hospital, Baltimore, by Dr. Brooks on the 1 o'clock train. At this writing it is thought both hands can be saved, although in a crippled condition. The lad is a grandson of Mr. John Thomas Ridinger, formerly of Taneytown.

On the 1st inst. your correspondent, with a party of seven friends, enjoyed a trip to the celebrated battlefield of Gettysburg and were impressed with the marvelous care taken to mark the scenes of the historic events there enacted. We were glad to note that while many States have marked the localities in which their troops were engaged, with fitting and splendid monuments, Maryland is by no means the least among them all in that respect. On our return trip on the 2nd inst. we were nicely entertained at Littlestown by Mr. John T. Lawyer and friends and reached home after a moonlight drive, tired, but with a fund of observation to relate, which had been a constant source of pleasure as we passed over the many points of absorbing interest. In Gettysburg we had the pleasure to meet Mr. G. W. Weaver and son in their fine store that employs 15 ladies and gentlemen.

On Thursday evening the members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., with friends to the number of 85, enjoyed a strawride to Hampstead at the invitation of Mrs. W. C. Stick, who then opened the fine home of the Hampstead Hotel and soon all were ready to enjoy the pleasures of the evening. All participated in a grand march in the bowling room that was the introductory to dancing by many of the young folks, while other amusements were equally well enjoyed. At 10 P. M. all were invited to seats and were served with refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, coffee and fruits. A most delightful moonlight drive home was enjoyed.

Mr. Horatio Loats, who had been playing with the Erie baseball team for two seasons, filled an engagement with the McSherrystown team on Labor day. The team was pitted against the Gettysburg team for two games. In the morning game the home batteries were used, but in the afternoon Loats and Felix were the battery for McSherrystown and had to face the Carters, the battery of the Cuban Giants. But they proved themselves equal to the task. Loats put up a fine game and was well supported by his catcher, so that the Gettysburg boys did lots of fanning at his drop balls. The game ended with a score of 4 to 0 in favor of the McSherrystown team, which had also won the morning game. Loats struck out 11 men and they only got 2 hits off of him. A number of our baseball enthusiasts went to see the game and gave him quite an ovation.

Mr. Jacob H. Blocher made a close call from being killed yesterday at Alesia. He was standing between the main track and the switch on which was a freight train. They cut loose several cars and let them run back at the turn. Mr. B. was watching an oncoming train south and did not hear the cars running back, which struck him and he fell with his head 6 inches from the main track. The train flew past but the engineer saw him, put on his brakes and picked him up. He was unconscious for quite a time. Dr. Weaver was called but found no special injury more than the shock. He was able to be brought to his home here late at night. Mr. and Mrs. Blocher moved into their home here last week.
