SIDE ONE

Hunting Field March 15th
1802 (1)

After a long silence I again resume my pen to scribble to my dr Cousin; I am happy to hear of your safe return from Mrs Diggs's and hope you all spent your time agreeably there, I shall expect a long letter from you and Cousin Fanny giving me a history of your visits both to Baltimore and Melwood. I suppose by this your Brother has returned from his Northern excursion, I heard of him both from Mrs Kimble and Mrs McCall, the former regretted his very short stay at New York as she was much prepossessed in his favor the little time she was with him and
