SIDE ONE

Fountain Rock, July the 31st 1803

I cannot express to you how very happy I was to hear that you my dr. friend had recovered your health and strength in such a manner as to take, once more the direction of my dr. Aunts family, you should be careful at the same time and not exert yourself too much, a letter from my good Aunt mentions how very active you are, but expressively sorry I am to hear cousin Frances is so unwell, pray tell her from me that I wished of all things for her a few days ago, we had young Randolph with us on a visit he stayed nearly a week, during which time I was more entertained with his agreeable conversation than I could have, supposed it possible mortal could be, he was in fact a treat and such a one as I have not met with for years, his general knowledge and that discovered to you without the smallest
