SIDE ONE

I received your letter My dear Cousin on Tuesday last and was very happy to know all our friends in Chester were well & that you still remember an Old friend; I thank you sincerely for your kind wishes for my company and can assure you I am as anxious to see you, your Mama, Papa, & Sister as you can possibly imagine; & I was much disappointed at not being at My Sister's Nuptials, but disappointments are so common, that in some measure I am a little of a Heroine when they befall me, & generally bear them with as much resignation as I can mus-
