SIDE ONE

Miss Ann Preston
West River

Your letter which I have this moment received My dear Ann, has given me infinite pleasure, and I am very happy to hear you are all well, what satisfaction would I injoy to see you once more, let me intreat of you to make haste to Town — I am now quite well & can enter into total amusement that wd offer itself with unusual spirits if your Mama & Fanny & yourself were here to join me — I have seen Miss A Murray, only a few minutes, but am sorry to say her beauty falls far short of what I expected to find it as to her mental accom-plishments, it is not a moment or a few
