Roeder and the Manchester charge was dissolved and he was dismissed to Zion's Classis in Pennsylvania. The members of the classis expressed their great regret at the departure of Mr. Roeder. During his pastorate of thirteen years at Manchester and his connection with Maryland Classis he has won, by the sincerity of his Christian character, the esteem and regard of his parishioners and his brethren in the holy ministry. On November 1st he will become pastor of the Glen Rock charge in York county, Pa.

Western Maryland College every year furnishes the people of Westminster entertainments of a high order and cultural value. In the Concerto number of the program she will be assisted by Miss Charlotte Herron. On Friday evening, November 2nd, the Schubert String Quartet of Boston will play. As this is not only their first appearance, but the first entertainment exclusively by stringed instruments ever given in Alumni Hall, it ought to attract unusual attention. The public is welcomed to all Alumni Hall entertainments and in the majority of cases no charge for admission is made. There will be no charge for the piano recital next Friday evening.

Mr. Elias B. Arnold closed his canning factory at Smallwood this week. He had a large pack of tomatoes and had the members of about fifty families from Baltimore engaged in the work, all of whom have gone to their homes.

Mrs. Ella A. Martin, near Medford, sold her herd of milch cows, at public sale, on Saturday last, at prices rarely, if ever, surpassed at such a sale in this county. The herd contained 16 cows, all of which were disposed of. The maximum bid for each, in the order given, was as follows: $35, $45, $77.50, $50, $40, $34.50, $40 25, $68, $50, $35.50, $35, $50 50, $50, $30, $41.50, $45; total, $725.75, an average of $45.36. The sale was advertised in the SENTINEL for several weeks and attracted numerous bidders. The cows, with few exceptions, were exceptionally fine ones.

Sometime ago the SENTINEL told about the skill in drawing displayed by Master Leslie H. Lovell, of New Windsor, the ten-year-old son of Mr. Wm. D. Lovell, one of the deputies in the office of Mr. David P. Smelser, clerk of the Circuit Court for this county, and has again had the privilege of examining specimens of the lad's work, which not only show marked improvement, but exhibit extraordinary talent in one of such tender years. The drawings referred to are enlarged copies of prints, mostly of children in caricature, but in one instance the principal object being an aged colored individual and in another a ferocious creature, apparently closely allied to the gorilla tribe. In all these the fidelity of expression to the original from which they are copied is remarkable. Another very striking picture is that of three horses drawing a chariot driven by a woman. The drawings are in pencil and, we are informed, were made by the lad with the greatest celerity. Master Leslie certainly gives promise of artistic skill of a high order and, we are sure, will at some time in the future be heard from as a superior artist in the lines described.

Sowing grain is about done with and husking corn is now keeping the farmers busy. The early sown grain came up nicely and the fields are becoming green. The corn crop is a fair one, and many barrels of this valuable grain will be stored away during the present month. Many here are making farming a professional business and are giving greater attention to the needs of the soil and the kinds of seeds which will give the best results. Others are copying the example and, upon actual measure, some have realized from 12 to 16 barrels of corn per acre this year, where, in other years, only 8 and 11 barrels per acre grew.

Mr. Joseph Dodrer, a retired farmer, residing with his son-in-law, Mr. Milton Bowman, near Silver Run, died on the 15th inst., at the age of seventy-three years. Mr. Dodrer belonged to one of the old established families of this district and was a man of sterling qualities. He was successful as a farmer and leaves a comfortable estate. The late James, George, John and Josiah Dodrer were his brothers. One sister, Mrs. John Motter, survives. Also the following named children: William Dodrer, Westminster; Harvey Dodrer, Littlestown; Calvin Dodrer, Baust's Church; Edward Dodrer, Mayberry, and Mrs. Milton Hull and Mrs. Milton Bowman, of Myers district. In politics Mr. Dodrer was a Democrat, and in religion a member of the Reformed Church. His funeral took place at Silver Run Cemetery, on Wednesday last, Rev. J Stewart Hartman, pastor of the Reformed Church, officiating.

Dr. J. J. Stewart, register of Wills of Carroll county, and for many years our local physician, moved to Pennsylvania avenue, Westminster, on the 18th inst. Dr. Stewart was successful and popular as a physician, and he carries with him to his new home the good wishes of his many friends at Union Mills. He will be succeeded by Dr. Wetzel, now of St. Luke's Hospital, Baltimore, who expects to locate here, next week.

About two weeks ago the B. F. Shriver Co. moved a bunch of steers from the cars at Westminster, to Union Mills. While they were being weighed at the latter place one of them broke away from the drove and is still at large. Gangs of men on horseback and on foot, equipped with ropes, etc., have made several attempts to capture him, but so far without success, as this particular gentleman appears to be a genuine wild-westerner. They say he can run like a deer and don't stop for anything. His lair is the woods and meadows along Big Pipe creek, about two miles above Union Mills.
