SIDE ONE

Miss Clara

My dear Ann

Chester Town February th 22.

Your letter delivered to me by Ben, gave me great pleasure; and I assure you with sincerity that let the hurry & bustle be what it will, I shall always with infinate satisfaction, attend to your very agreeable Epistols. therefore from this time do not stile it presumption in the supposition that I could find time to read them—

Madam T. Ringgold I have not scarcely had time to pass judgment on, but to all appearance is a very cleaver little woman, when I become more acquainted with her interior I will inform you, how I like her, and at the same time assure you that no person whatever will ever supplant you, I hope our friendship for each other is too well founded to be so carely shook
