SIDE ONE

day that I am so well as the distress of our family and alarms I have had was enough to knock me up. last Saturday Evening poor old Rachel fell down in the Kitchen in an Apoplectic fit, this terrified us all very much but she come to at last and had her Senses and Speech perfectly, the next day the Doctor thought her pulse very bad, but she walked about her Room and seem'd better, however we were vainly flatter'd for about 3 O'Clock the good
