Messrs. L. M. Bushey and Sons, of Freedom district, have their new barn, on the Hess property, nearly completed. Mr. Charles E. Will is doing the carpenter work.

The butchering season is at hand and next week many citizens will slaughter their porkers. It is said that not as many of extraordinary weight as usual are to be found in this vicinity.

Mr. Oliver M Crouse, who purchased the residence of the late Grove A Shipley, on West Main street, this city, has repaired and moved into it.

A high wind prevailed in this city on Wednesday causing the dust to fly in blinding clouds, especially on Main street, much to the discomfort of those who passed along that thoroughfare.

The following hog weights are reported. Mr. David J. Witter, two, 291, 346; Mr. James Boylan, two, 418, 440; Mr. Frank Reese, of Cranberry Valley, six, 312, 321, 330, 342, 375½, 379½, total 2058;

From Messrs. Doyle & Magee, furniture dealers, this city, we have received samples of their 1907 calendars, which are very handsome and have large and legible figures, making them desirable and convenient.

An alarm of fire in this city yesterday morning was caused by the burning out of a chimney at the residence of Mr. Ferd. D. Schaeffer, on Pennsylvania avenue. The fire department responded promptly to the alarm.

Mid-Shipman Lawrence Reifsnider, son of J. M. Reifsnider, Esq., of this city, is in the hospital at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, as a result of football practice Tuesday afternoon. His injuries are not serious.

From Mr. J. Hoffman Fuss, of this city, agent of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, we have received an excellent calendar for 1907, and also a very handsome one from Mr. W. H. H. Zepp, proprietor of Zepp's saddlery and harness emporium, West Main Street.

Miss Grace Elgen, daughter of Mr. Jacob F. Elgen, of this city, was taken to the University Hospital, Baltimore, by Dr. Charles R. Foutz, on Tuesday, where she underwent an operation for an abscess. The operation was successful and when last heard from she was rapidly improving.

The SENTINEL has printed time cards giving hours of arrival and departure of trains on the Western Maryland Railroad, at this city. The time of departure of trains from Bruceville, on the Pa. R. R., is also given on these cards, which were printed for Mr. H. D. Fowble, the energetic agent in this city.

Signs of the approach of Christmas are becoming apparent. Our merchants this week begin advertising their Christmas goods, and those who are looking for suitable articles of this character will find as full and complete stocks in this city, as are offered in any city of the State outside of Baltimore.

About two weeks ago a dog belonging to Miss Ella Brown, residing on the Baltimore turnpike, near this city, went mad and bit a colt and a number of dogs in the neighborhood; also her pet dog. This pet dog went mad on Wednesday. His condition was, fortunately, at once discovered, and Miss Brown had him safely penned up and killed as soon as possible.

On Saturday last Mr. Loyd B. Shipley, mortgagee of Joseph E. Haines and Mary J. Haines, sold at public sale to Mrs. Mary J. Haines, a tract of 11 acres, 31 perches, with improvements, for $500, and a tract of 2 acres, 1 road, and 10 perches unimproved land to Francis N. Bowers, for $250. Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., was attorney in the case, and Mr. F. A. Crawford auctioneer.

At the meeting of the County Commissioners on Monday, Mrs. Ella M. Little, of district No. 7, was ordered to be confined at Springfield Hospital, at the expense of the county, until she shall be discharged according to law. A committee from the Carroll County Grange appeared before the board and requested that copies of the county road law be printed and distributed throughout the county. The board voted to comply with the request.

The Western Maryland College football team played a strong, but losing, game at Mt. Washington on Saturday last, the score against it having been 12 to 6. The Mt. Washington team is a strong and well trained one, but, according to reports of Saturday's game, "went up against the fastest aggregation" it has met this season and was surprised to find the first half ending with a touchdown and kicked goal by the visitors. In the second half, however, Western Maryland was unable to prevent the Mount Washingtons from scoring, the latter making two touchdowns and kicking goal on each.

The case of Sarah Ohler against H Rowe, administrator of Oliver Morrison, reported in the proceedings of the Circuit Court for this county, is of some local interest here, as Morrison frequently spent considerable time in this city and vicinity and was known to many of our citizens. It was a suit for services rendered by the plaintiff and originated in Frederick county. It was first removed to Washington county, where it was non prossed. Then it came to this county and after a trial extending over several days a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff for $602.73.

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly in this city. Business was generally suspended.

Mrs. Elizabeth Roop, a venerable resident of this city, is suffering from a dislocated hip.

Rev. Chas. D. Bonsack, of Washington, D. C., preached last Sunday morning and night in the German Baptist Church, this city, to large congregations.

Mr. Geo. R. Gehr, cashier of the First National Bank of this city, who has been confined to his home the past week by illness, is better and expects to be out in a few days.

St. Paul's congregation, Reformed Church of Union Bridge, has decided to refresco the main auditorium and repair the Sunday School room and repaint the building.

The Junior Band of this city was out yesterday afternoon and made a very favorable impression. The boys have not had much time or opportunity for practice, but did very well indeed and received considerable commendation.

The Union Thanksgiving service held yesterday at St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, was largely attended. Rev. Harold M. Rider, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church preached the sermon, which was heard with marked attention by the congregation.

The Carroll Athletic Association of this city and the Western Maryland College football team played an interesting game yesterday. The Association boys put up a strong game, but were without sufficient practice to conquer the strong college team. The score against them was 16 to 0.

The new concrete pavement at St. John's Catholic Church, this city, is finished and is certainly a great improvement, both in appearance and convenience. The work was pushed with remarkable energy, under many difficulties, by a large corps of workmen under the direction of Mr. Paul Case, the contractor.

Mr. Clarence Cole, who was accidentally shot while gunning last week, in Cranberry Valley, is still at the Md. University Hospital, Baltimore, under treatment, but is improving and expects to come home in a few weeks. Besides losing his eye his jaw bone was broken, two teeth knocked out and his head and neck received a number of shot.

A piano recital was given in St. Paul's Reformed Church of Union Bridge, last Thursday evening week, to a large and appreciative audience. The recital was given by Miss Elizabeth Slagle, assisted by Miss Katharyn Slagle and Miss Madeleine Gilbert, all of this city. The performers rendered their parts in a most excellent manner, and it was a rare treat to hear the high class music. Miss Elizabeth Slagle is a unique performer on the piano, and fairly captivated her audience. Miss Katharyn Slagle has a voice of great volume and excellent cultivation. She sings every Sunday in a fashionable church in Baltimore. Miss Gilbert is a born elocutionist. There were numerous encores.

Elder Uriah Bixler has permitted us to examine some entries in an old memorandum book and in some old papers, of which a portion, while plainly written, are not decipherable except by persons familiar with the German language. One of the entries is dated in 1788 and seems to be an account. The handwriting of this entry is excellent. Among these interesting old relics is a sale book of the personal estate of Samuel Bixler, deceased. The name of each purchaser and of the article or articles purchased are written neatly in English and the sale footed up 161 pounds, 10 shillings, 8 pence. The sale was on the 12th day of August, 1803, more than 103 years ago. Another paper is a receipt bond from James Feasant to Peter Bixler, dated March 29, 1813, for $100. By the terms of his father's will Mr. Bixler was required to pay to each of his brothers and sisters $200. James Feasant married Mr. Bixler's sister Rachel and so, as the bond sets out, became entitled to the money, and the bond was in fact a release, the other $100 having been previously paid.

K of P. District Meeting.

The Knights of Pythias of the third district of Maryland, comprising the lodges of the order in Baltimore, Carroll, Frederick and Montgomery counties, held a district meeting at Union Bridge, on Tuesday. There are seventeen lodges in the district, all of which were represented. The sessions were for the most part held in secret, the morning having been devoted to a reception of grand lodge officers and others. At the afternoon session, after remarks of welcome, Kt. Rev. Edgar T. Read offered an invocation and addresses were delivered by grand Chancellor Richard Laws Lee and P. G. Chancellor W. F. Broening. At a business session the secret work of the order was exemplified, and at the evening session the First and Third ranks were exemplified by the amplified rank team of Calanthe Lodge No. 183 The affair ended with a banquet at which quite a number of Knights from this city was present.

The Teachers' Institute.

On account of the indisposition of the editor the SENTINEL was unable to procure more than a mere outline of the program followed in the work of the Carroll County Teachers' Institute, held in this city the first three days of this week. It was, however, an instructive, interesting and successful affair. Among its prominent features were: "Talks to Teachers," by Prof. W. A. Garrison; a series of lectures on "The Public School and the Teacher," concluding with "The Teacher and the Public School," by Miss Lelia E Patridge; lectures on "Primary Work," by Miss Belle Upshur; lectures on "Teaching Arithmetic," by Miss Lida L. Tall, and on "English," by Prof. T. O. Gibson; addresses by Prof. W. R. McDaniel, Dr. George W. Ward, Dr. M. Bates Stephens and others. The first session of each day was opened with music, scripture reading and prayer and all the proceedings were interspersed with music.

Melrose Items.

Mr. D. J. Titlow, of Eastern Virginia, recently spent a few days with J. Albert Zepp and family.

A small daughter of Mr. Daniel Royer, who has had an attack of typhoid fever, is improving.

As our printer was at work on the big December issue of his magazine the shaft in his big Gordon press broke. As a new one must come from the manufacturer's it means quite a delay in the work.

We are glad to welcome any enterprise that comes into our midst. Last week in two days the pupils of Wentz's public school, under the supervision of the teacher, Mr. E. W. Burgoon, raised $10 for a public library. The School Board will add another $10, so a nice collection of books can be furnished for a beginning.

Mr. Andrew Eisenhuth had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse lately.

Mr. J. B. Lynerd, of near Manchester, slaughtered four hogs, weighing 346, 332, 303 and 300. 425 pounds of lard, 18 crocks of pudding and 1½ bushels of sausage were made from them, beside leaving plenty of juicy hams and "sidespheck." Let us visit Mr. Lynerd and keep him from overeating.

Morgan Items.

For several years much interest has been created on "Woodland Farm," the home of Mr. Joseph J. Brandenburg, of Freedom district, by the large amount of corn husked in a single day. In November, 1902, Messrs Frank and William Brandenburg and Thomas Dixon husked 45½ bbls. in 11½ hours. In November, 1905, Mr. Frank J. Brandenburg and Lea West, the latter a colored man, husked 34 bbls. in eleven hours and 35 minutes.

This year people for miles around have been anxiously waiting for results again, as the boys had promised an honest day's work with best of proof, (for many had doubted previous records,) and on November 21st, the greatest quantity of corn probably ever husked in the State by three men in a given time was the result of the effort. The quantity was 60½ bbls. husked in exactly 11½ hours. Mr. Bayardd Dorsey, of Berrett, husked 19½ bbls.; Frank Brandenburg and Lea West, of Woodland Farm 20½ bbls. each. Mr. Frank W. Gosnell, a retired farmer of this place, witnessed the measuring. An 8½ acre field, in which the work was done, made 156½ bbls.

For the Sentinel.

A Delightful Reception.

A most enjoyable reception was given in honor of Miss Anna B. Walkling, of near this city, by her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Petts, at their home, 1213 Wolfe street, Baltimore, on Thursday evening, 22nd inst. The house was tastefully and beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. Selections were rendered on the piano by Miss P. Burns, of Raspeburg, Baltimore county; Miss Annie Holzschner and Mr. Frank Claus, of Baltimore. Solos were sung by Mrs. Hugh Magill, of Baltimore, and Mr. Morris Hauskey, of New York. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George E. Petts, Hugh Magill, George A. Voelkel, Wm. Rutter, G. L. Ellis, John T. Corback, Jesse Keen, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. A. Meyer, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schratke, of Raspeburg; Misses Annie Holzschner, Lula Beltzel, Lottie Meyer, Mildred Corbuck, Lottie Voelkel, Helen Rutter, Evelyn Rutter, Lula Keen, of Baltimore; Misses Anna B. Walkling, of Westminster; Mary Schratke, Martha Schratke, P. Burns, Helen Burns, Maud Biddison, of Raspeburg; Messrs. Ernest Walkling, Omer F. Petts, Geo. H. Walkling, Frederick Voelkel, Frank Claus, John Meyer, Carl Magill, John Magill, Dr. Carl Meyer, of Baltimore; Mr. Fred'k. Walkling, of Westminster; Messrs. Alex. Schratke, Max Schratke, Frank Burns, of Raspeburg; Morris Hauskey, of New York.

WEDDING BELLS.

Bloom-Boylan

Mr. Murray Bloom, of Union Bridge, and Miss Kate Boylan, of Pensylvania avenue, this city, were married at St. John's Catholic Church parsonage, this city, on Wednesday afternoon, by the pastor, Rev. Joseph H. Cassidy.

Wimsatt-McSherry.

Miss Bertha McSherry, youngest daughter of Chief Justice James McSherry, of the Maryland Court of Appeals, and William Kurtz Wimsatt, of Washington, D. C., were married at 11.30 o'clock Wednesday morning in St. John's Catholic Church, Frederick. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Boyle and Judge J. A. C. Bond, of this city.

Buckey-Griesemer.

Dr. S. R. Brinkbaugh, assisted by Rev. M. W. Sweitzer. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Buckey will reside in Frederick.

Case-Hunter.

Mr. Paul Case, a prominent young contractor and builder, and Miss Emma A., second daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Hunter, this city, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, East Green street, on Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. J. A. Cassidy. Only the immediate families of the parties were present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Case took an evening train for a week's trip to the South. Both bride and groom have hosts of friends who wish them long and happy lives.

Hamer-Yingling.

Miss Clara Lou Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel K. Yingling, of this city, and Dr. Jesse W. Hamer, of Clio, S. C., were married on Wednesday, at the home of the bride's parents, on East Green street. It was a quiet, but interesting event. There were no attendants. The bride, who is a graceful and handsome lady, wore a Parisian gown of navy blue velvet and carried American Beauty roses. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. L. F. Warner, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church of this city. A wedding luncheon was served and Dr. and Mrs. Hamer left by an afternoon train for a Southern trip, after which they will reside at Clio, S. C.

Wantz-Hahn.

Miss Clorinda Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Hahn, of Hahn's mill, and Mr. Arthur G. Wantz were married on Thursday, 22nd inst., at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed Church. The attendants were four pages or flower boys —Masters Harvey Wantz, brother of the groom; Clarence Bankard, Paul Bankard and Lloyd Basehoar, nephews of the bride. While the wedding march was being rendered as a duet by a sister of the bride, Mrs. William Keefer, and her daughter, Miss Ethel Keefer, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. Arthur Stonesifer, of Westminster, and the groom was accompanied by Mrs. Stonesifer, sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed beneath a festooning of evergreen, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. A reception followed the ceremony and an elegant and elaborate wedding luncheon was served. The occasion was a delightful one and the guests were happily entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Wantz, accompanied by best wishes of friends, left during the afternoon for a bridal trip. Those present at the wedding were:

Rev. J. S. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley J. Hahn, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. DEATH'S DOINGS.

Anna M. Little.

Anna M., aged 5 years, 6 months and 17 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Little, formerly of this vicinity, died this week at the residence of her parents near Hyattsville, Montgomery county, after an illness of about 30 hours.

Edward H. Stimmel.

Mr. Edward H. Stimmel, a well known citizen of Woodsboro, and the oldest male resident of the town, died at his home at 9 30 o'clock Monday night, after a short illness, due to a carbuncle on the back of his neck, aged 90 years, 7 months and 23 days. One of his sisters, Mrs. Josephine Baker, resides in Manchester, this county.

Miss Annie Ocker.

Miss Annie Ocker, a former resident of this city, died this morning at the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. David J. Roop, Uniontown district, after a long illness of general debility, aged about 72 years. She had been an invalid for some years. She was a sister of the late Lieut. Thomas Ocker. Another brother, Mr. Josiah Ocker, resides in Mansfield, Ohio. She was a devoted member of the M. E. Church. Funeral services will be held at the house at 1.30 Sunday afternoon; interment in Westminster Cemetery. Mr. F. C. Sharrer will be funeral director.

Samuel Carr Wickert.

Mr. Samuel Carr Wickert, for many years and until about three months ago, a resident of this city, died at 1 o'clock, Monday morning, of paralysis, at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Harry C. Albaugh, in Hanover, Pa., at the age of about 68 years. Mr. Wickert was widely known and had many friends all over this county. He was the Democratic candidate for sheriff in 1889 and was elected by a plurality of 393 votes over his Republican competitor. He served one term efficiently and acceptably to the people. He was subsequently the proprietor, for a number of years, of the First National Restaurant, finally retiring on account of ill health. His wife died in June last and about three months ago he went to reside with his son-in-law and daughter at Hanover, Pa. Mrs. Albaugh, his daughter, and one son, W. Clarence Wickert, of Baltimore, survive him. His remains were brought to this city on Wednesday morning and interred in Westminster Cemetery with Masonic honors, by Door to Virtue Lodge No. 46, A. F. and A. M., of which he was a member. The funeral services were held at the residence of his brother in-law, Mr. W. L. Brown, East Main street, by Rev. L. F. Warner, pastor of the M. P. Church. The pall-bearers, all members of Door to Virtue Lodge, were: Messrs. Chas. E. Woodward, Chas. V. Wantz, Jesse C. Sharrer, John H. Cunningham, O. D. Gilbert and Dr. Geo. E. Baughman. Mr. F. C. Sharrer was funeral director.

Prof. A. Newton Ebaugh.

Prof. A. Newton Ebaugh, an eminent and widely known educator, died suddenly of disease of the heart, on Sunday morning, in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he resided and had been for some years a member of the faculty of the Brooklyn Manual Training School. The following sketch of Prof. Ebaugh, taken principally from the Baltimore American, is we believe generally accurate in detail and does not exaggerate the ability and high qualities of the deceased:

"Professor Ebaugh was a native of Hampstead, Carroll county, Md., and was the son of Mrs. Harriet A. and the late Zachariah Ebaugh, of that place. He was educated in the public schools of his county and at the Maryland State Normal School, from which institution he was graduated in 1878. After graduating he continued in the school as a teacher under the principalship of the late M. A. Newell. In 1881 he was appointed to the chair of mathematics in the Baltimore Manual-training School, now the Polytechnic Institute; later he was appointed professor of English in the Baltimore City College, which chair he filled for several years, when he was selected as professor of mathematics in the Manual-training High School of Brooklyn.

"Professor Ebaugh was noted for his enthusiastic devotion to, and unusual capacity for, study, as well as his broad and consummate knowledge, extensive attainments and exceptional ability, especially as a teacher. He was an earnest advocate and firm adherent of educational progress; fully in touch with modern ideas, and never neglected an opportunity to lend his aid and support to any movement tending to further educational lines.

"Professor Ebaugh held the degree of doctor of philosophy, conferred by the Illinois Wesleyan University, and during his residence in Baltimore pursued special courses at the Johns Hopkins University for a number of years. In 1885 Professor Ebaugh married Miss Annie Leverton, of Chestertown, Kent county, Md., who survives him. He was a member of a family of 23 children, 21 of whom were teachers. He is survived by his mother (Mrs. Harriet Ebaugh), and among his brothers and sisters are Mr. Z. C. Ebaugh, principal of the Franklin High School, at Reisterstown, late examiner of Baltimore county schools and ex-member of the State Board of Education; Mr. George W. Ebaugh, principal of one of the groups of the Baltimore city schools; Dr. Irvin Ebaugh, Mrs. W. S. Love and Miss Effie Ebaugh."

Mr. J. Webster Ebaugh, a well known builder and contractor of this city, is a nephew of Prof. Ebaugh. Prof. Ebaugh was a member of Arcana Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Baltimore, and the lodge had charge of his funeral, which took place from the residence of his brother, Dr. Irvin Ebaugh, 1710 Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore, yesterday morning.

Will of a Former Resident of This City.

By the will of the late Emanuel T. Forsyth, formerly of this city, lately probated in the Orphans' Court of Baltimore, the late Robert Ireland is named executor. A codicil, which was made after Mr. Ireland's death, names Mrs. Jane Ireland, his widow, executrix.

The house 629 North Bond street, Baltimore, is left to Mrs. Jane Ireland, who is the daughter of the testator, with all the furniture and other effects. To his daughter, Mrs. Mary E. Coates, he left the house 33 Randall street and $800. He left a house on Milliman street and $700 to his son, Mr. William C. C. Forsyth, who has since died, and a codicil bequeaths the house to Mr. Edgar M. Forsyth, son of the late William Forsyth. To Mr. Beauregard Forsyth, another son, the testator left the house 622 North Bond street, and released him of all his indebtedness to the estate.

To Miss Jessie A. Forsyth he left the house 624 North Bond street, stating that since he has not heard of his son, Mr. Samuel J. Forsyth, for years, "he having abandoned his wife and child for nearly 25 years, I left them what I would have given him, after deducting sums advanced him, amounting to $600. If he makes any demand upon the estate I leave him the sum of $1." He directs that his farm of 35 acres in Baltimore county and 10 shares in the American Tobacco Company be sold and go toward the division of the estate. The rest of the estate is left to his children —Mrs. Jane A. Ireland, Mrs. Mary E. Coates, Mr. Beauregard Forsyth and granddaughter, Jessie A. Forsyth. The will was executed December 3, 1898.

A very pleasant party was given at the home of Mr. Charles Bittle, residing at Good Hope schoolhouse (formerly known as Frock's schoolhouse), about 1½ miles from our village. Mr. Bittle is an invalid and has been bedfast with rheumatism for the past 8 months, though he is always cheerful and glad to see his friends. Miss Elsie V. Leister gave some fine selections with her grapophone, with which he was very much delighted. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bittle, Mrs. Harry Devilbiss and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheets and daughter Miriam, Mr. Fred G. Yingling and daughter Ida, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Unger and son Byers, Misses Elsie, Mary and Mabel Leister, Fannie and Maggie Myers, Ada and Laura Geiman, Sallie Myerly, Messrs. Carroll and John Myers, and John Leister.

Mrs. Edwin Frock and daughter Ruthetta, of Hanover, Pa., are visiting friends in this place.

The Union Sunday School will hold its Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve, December 24th.

Union Mills Items.

"The wild steer," as he is called, referred to several times in these items, is still roaming over the county, no one knows where, and no definite intelligence of him has been received by the syndicate that purchased him for $20, for several weeks. About a week ago it was reported that the steer was seen somewhere about Manchester, and two of the company went over there to investigate and remained away for a day and a night, but on their return home they had only a gloomy report to make at the next meeting of their fellow stockholders. Several members of the company have received souvenir postals that were decidedly appropos and very amusing.

On the 29th inst, the Reformed and Lutheran congregations at Silver Run, united for the first time, in the holding of the Thanksgiving day services. The services were held in the Reformed Church, and the sermon was preached by Rev. W. O. Yoder, pastor of the Lutheran Church.

The Union Mills string orchestra is about to be revived with new vigor, and with an increased membership.

Part of the Silver Run Company's telephone line is completed and in operation, namely, those phones that are connected with the Littlestown exchange. The balance of the line, which is to connect with the Taneytown exchange, and to which the Union Mills end will be attached, it is expected will be finished in a very short while.

Our new physician, Dr. G. L. Wetzel, is receiving a very large practice and he is proving himself worthy of it.

Manchester Items.

The beautiful bright morning on Sunday last brought out a large congregation to Trinity Reformed Church of this place to hear Rev. Hiram J. Hillegass, of Shrewsbury, Pa. He had been invited by the direction of the joint consistories of the Manchester Charge to preach a trial sermon. He held the close attention of his audience for 30 minutes. At 2 P. M. he preached to a large congregation at the Lineboro church and at night again filled the pulpit here in Trinity Church preaching to a large congregation.

Mr. Josiah Dehoff died at the home of Mr. Jacob N. Dehoff, Greenmount, on Sunday evening last, in his 82nd year. A bad cold brought on spinal and brain trouble and he became unconscious and remained so until his death. His remains were laid away to rest on Monday in the U. B. Cemetery, Greenmount, Rev. Zuse officiating. He leaves a widow and a brother.

The social given by the members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., on Friday evening, 23rd inst., in their hall, was attended by about 80 persons, who enjoyed a
