SIDE TWO

she lives.- I am truly glad to hear your Dr. Bro. and Sister are so comfortably settled, my good Aunt and yourselves must enjoy ~~[illegible]~~ your time spent with them: what a Blessing a good Son is, to a Parent God grant you may all live long to ~~[illegible]~~ pay them many happy Visits, it is with real sorrow that I tell you we have entirely given up our Jaunt to see you and our friends on the Eastern Shore, as we cannot accomplish it with-out borrowing Money it certainly is most prudent to stay at home, as it will cost a smart Sum to travel with so large a family.- I often think of the length of time that has past since I p.d you a Visit, but I will be satisfied until it suits our pleasure. I have a great many Blessings in this World to make me happy, an Affte good Husband that lives with me in the utmost Harmony and love, four smiling Babes, a good Mother and a self approving Conscience, which is better than all the Riches upon Earth.- I hear much of the singu-lar Style of dress in which Madame Bonaparte appears, what is it you have seen say and can write me. I am sincerely glad to hear Cousin Nancy has got over her Cold so easily, I was frightened when I heard she had a Cold in Baltimore. what stay do you make in Baltimore. you must excuse this letter my [illegible] and the Children are talking round me and one often gives me a punch. Mama and my join me in Affte love to you Aunt Cousin Nancy & James, and the a stranger to your Sister I feel an Affte for her that induces me to send her my love and good wishes. my little Pet says give Little Susans love to Aunt Chezz. believe me give my love to all the good family at Belvidere.-

Your Affte Cousin
