My dear Cousin

I promised to write you as soon as I reached home, which I did the 22 and have the satisfaction to tell you I found all my dear children perfectly well dear little Anna more improved than you can imagin and to my great joy has not forgotten me. My faithful Jenny has not disappointed me in her attention to all the children Anna doates on her and you would be surprised to see how much sewing she has got through. I find Fanny progressing very well in English Grammar much beyond my expectation and is generally at the head of her class. I am sorry to find that Mary from inattention has not come on so well but I hope to be able to give her more ambition and shall attend very much to them myself this Winter. I suppose you have seen Mr Tilghman who would tell you what you wished to know of our journey
