LOCAL ITEMS.

Some of the skilled pork butchers of this county have been asking who can beat their records in the aggregate of weight of hogs slaughtered during the past season. Mr. George S. Barnhart, the fate butcher of Sandyville, is probably the champion in that respect, having killed 115 hogs which weighed 29,750 pounds, an average of nearly 259. He also slaughtered one beef which weighed 484 pounds. He wants to know whether anybody can beat that record.

Mr. Ward R. Warren, of Union Bridge, and Miss Abbie B. Foreman, of Taneytown, obtained a marriage license from the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, of Baltimore, last week, intending to have the ceremony performed in Uniontown, but after the license was issued learned that it would be invalid in the last named place. They were visiting the groom's uncle, Mr. C. Harvard Darling, and decided to be married at his residence sometime during the current week.

Mr. J. D. Young, of Uniontown district, slaughtered a hog last week, that was less than three years old, yet weighed 639 pounds. This immense porker was probably the champion in weight of the past season. Certainly he was so, taking age into consideration. He was a cross of the Poland China and Berkshire breeds. Compared with this porker a hog which the Baltimore Evening News of last Wednesday says was one of the largest ever received in that city, wasn't much more than a good sized shoat. It was received from Virginia by the commission firm of Davis & Davis and its weight, at 7 years old, was 548 pounds. If Mr. young had kept his hog until that age its weight would have easily doubled that of the Virginia animal. In the matter of big hogs Virginia isn't "in it" with Carroll county.

Mr. Clarence Zepp, near Reese, has purchased the house and lot of Mr. Nicholas Benson, on Liberty street, this city, for $2400.

Mr. Frank S. Koons, has been appointed rural carrier and Mr. Raymond K. Angel substitute on Route No. 2, at Union Bridge, Md., both to fill vacancies.

At the sale of Mr. F. W. Hull, on the New Windsor road near this city, on Monday, horses brought from $150 to $160, and cows from $45 to $50. All other articles sold for good prices.

During the month of February 38 deeds, 9 mortgages, and 2 bills of sale were received for record at the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, and 21 marriage licenses were issued.

Mr. Roger H. Anders, of this city, had a joint of his left hand dislocated and a bone fractured, last week, by falling on the ice. Dr. M. L. Bott rendered the necessary surgical aid in the case.

Snow fell to the depth of four or five inches on Sunday and on Tuesday night to the depth of about one inch. The weather for the most part for the past week has been cold, with intervals of higher temperature.

On Tuesday, February 19th, Mr. Samuel Sharp, of Tannery, slipped on the ice and fell against his milk wagon, fracturing one of the ribs in his right side. Dr. M. L. Bott, of this city, gave him the necessary surgical attention.

Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis and wife are now in Florida, where they will spend a month or two. They have recently been joined by Mr. Daniel Baker and wife, of Baltimore, who will enjoy the balmy climate of Florida with them.

Mr. Robert H. Zentz, of Bachman's Valley, had a valuable horse kicked by another, last Sunday, breaking its leg and making it necessary to kill the wounded animal which was done on Monday morning. Mr. Zentz paid $160 for the horse killed, only a few months ago.

Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, Ex-Comptroller of the Treasury, was the speaker at the men's meeting at the Masonic Temple, in Bel Air, on Sunday last. Hon. John B. Hanna, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, presided. Governor Warfield has promised to speak at one of these meetings, in the near future.

Our community has a great pleasure offered for tomorrow (Saturday) night in the interpretative Shakespearian recital by Dean Southwick, of the Emerson College of Oratory, at Alumni Hall. He is without a peer in his line of work and one may look for great things in his rendition of Julius Caesar.

Mrs. Susan Heard, widow of Ezra Heard, died on Thursday of last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eader, in Frederick, aged 83 years. Last week the case of James L. Shugars vs. Charles A. Shugars and others, appealed from the equity court in this county, was argued in the Court of Appeals by Thomas G. Hayes, John J. Watson, and Edward Colgan, of Baltimore, for the defendants, and by Charles E. Fink, Esq., of this city, for the plaintiff. This suit was brought to compel the re-execution of a lost deed.

A tree cut down on Tuesday, by Mr. Jesse Heagy, of Sandyville, a young married man, fell on his right leg, causing a comminuted fracture midway between the knee and ankle. Dr. Charles R. Foutz, of this city, adjusted the fracture and while Mr. Heagy will be confined to bed for some time, he is doing well and will probably recover without suffering more serious consequences than his inability to use the leg for the time being.

The announcement that Rev. Dr. Frank M. Gibson will deliver an illustrated lecture on "Egypt, the Land of the Pharaohs," at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Monday evening, 12th inst., will afford great pleasure to those who have knowledge of its superior character. AN ENJOYABLE FUNCTION—BANQUET OF WESTMINSTER LODGE No. 41, I. O. M.

The banqueting and entertaining by the benevolent and fraternal orders of this city, during the past month, has been of an attractive character which was not in any manner lowered by a function given by Westminster Lodge No. 41, I. O. M., at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Tuesday evening last. Those who participated in the event were the members, their wives, daughters, and other invited guests, including a select orchestra which rendered music of a very high order, to the great pleasure of all present.

Preceding the banquet the following program was rendered in the lodge room:

Music, Orchestra.
Opening Ode, by the Lodge.
Prayer, Rev. P. H. Miller, D. D.
Orchestra.
Address of Welcome, B. F. Crouse, Esq.
Recitation, "Strict Confidence," Mr. Jas. H. Cassell, as follows:

If you've got a little matter that you want the folks to know
And you think that advertising is perhaps a little slow,
Not to say that it's uncertain or confined to some extent
To the limits of a circle, which, of course, is evident—
If you want it universal—over all the city spread,
Never put it in the papers, I've a better scheme instead.
You can always send it broadcast with no possible delay
If you whisper to a lady in a confidential way.

If you'll let her wring it from you—by just throwing out a hint
That to any comprehension would be just as plain as print;
If you'll seem to dodge her questions with a knowing sort of smile,
Making damaging admissions with an aspect free from guile,
And then trust to her discretion and let everything be known
With the proper understanding—you confide in her alone—
That will do it. All will know it ere the closing of the day
If its whispered to a lady in a confidential way.

There is nothing that can beat it. Never think I mean to rail.
I have tried it very often and it simply cannot fail.
You insist that it's a secret with a grave and solemn frown,
And in four and twenty hours its the gossip of the town.
If a lady isn't handy I'll suggest another plan
That perhaps is even better: Go and tell it to a man.
Yes, I think a man is better, but be careful what you say,
And remember, too, to say it in a confidential way.

Orchestra.
Address, Rev. P. H. Miller, D. D.
Orchestra.

At the conclusion of the program, the Worthy Master, Mr. Walter M. Zepp, announced that the banquet was prepared and ready for service in the Hall below, to which the members and their guests to the number of 240, marshaled by Mr. Jno. H. Mitten, repaired and were speedily seated at tables groaning under the weight of tempting viands, upon which Rev. Harold M. Rider, pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, asked the Divine blessing. The menu consisted of

Roast Capon, Chicken
Smithfield Ham — English Switzer Cheese
Finger Rolls — Maryland Biscuit

The snowfalls of the week have brought out the sleighs again, but the pleasure to be had must be as scant as the snow.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Noss, the wife of Prof. Christopher Noss, of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church at Lancaster. Mr. Noss is the son of Rev. John Noss who was pastor of the Reformed Church here, and spent his early life in this village. Mrs. Noss, while not generally known in this community, visited here. Much sympathy is expressed for Prof. Noss in his sorrow, all the more severe because of the small children left motherless.

The members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. F., held their festival and oyster supper in the banquet room of the I. O. O. F. Hall on Friday and Saturday, 22nd and 23rd ult. The hall was nicely decorated and festooned with lodge and national colors and flags and a picture of Washington prominent in the center. The tables each had the famous cherry tree filled with beautiful artificial fruit. The appointments of the supper table first class; the usual drawings were indulged in and produced quite a revenue. The most of the fine cakes went off to the party who held the flag when the horn tooted "time's up" in a five minute cake walk in which most all the young folks took a part. The net receipts of the festival were $58. The committee was Mrs. Wm. Burgoon, Mrs. J. E. Musselman, Mrs. Robert Brilhart, Mrs. H. R. Rorbaugh, Mrs. H. M. Keller.

Mr. Chas. W. Motter gave a social to a number of his cousins and friends on Monday evening, 25th ult., that proved to be a most enjoyable affair. Charles is a strong believer in the negative answer to the question of "Auld Lang Syne" which he practically demonstrated at his function by having together so many old friends to enjoy his hospitality. Those who were not inclined to the amusements had opportunity to indulge in needle work, so that the useful as well as the enjoyable features of the evening contributed to the pleasures of the occasion. At 10.30 P. M. all were invited to the dining room, where a large table was fully equipped with abundant refreshments. A monster bachelor cake was prominent in the center and a large bowl filled with fruit punch was at the head where Mrs. Chas. J. Everhart served the delicious beverage to the guests. The host was looking his best and busy seeing that every one was plentifully served with hot coffee, cake and nuts. Those of the company were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brilhart, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. J. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. J. LaMotte, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Masenhimer, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Frankforter, Mrs. J. M. Motter, Mrs. Hutchins, Mrs. Wm. H. Shower, Mrs. M. E. Gettier, Misses Sadie Masenhimer, Edna Baker, Mrs. G. S. Motter, Mr. J. B. Baker, Mr. Rinedollar, Messrs. C. Warehime, A. H. Geiselman, Ross Shower.

Miss Sadie Masenhimer entertained the members of the Thimble Circle on Thursday evening, 21st ult., at her home on North Main street. It was made a Washington birthday meeting. Among the amusements was the drawing of pictures of George cutting down the cherry tree, for which prizes were awarded to the best and second best. Mrs. M. E. Gettier carried off the first prize and Miss Edna Baker the second. Abundant refreshments were served at a later hour.

Our schools observed Washington's birthday with appropriate exercises, consisting of singing, recitations and dialogues. Although they were not open to the public they were interesting and educating to the schools in general. Souvenir hatchets were worn by the scholars and were presented to friends.

Mr. John W. Warner sold at public sale, on Saturday last, some personal effects prior to his moving to Hanover on Thursday.

Mr. Chas. H. Everhart spent several days, including Sunday, at the home of his brother and sisters in Woodberry. His brother, Mr. William T. Everhart, is quite ill with nervous trouble. The home of Mr. E. Benton Hann, at Greenmount, was the scene of a double wedding on Monday evening at 7.30. Mr. John Albright and Miss Jennie Hann and Mr. H.
