The weather during the past week has been, with a couple of slight intermissions, unseasonably cold. Ice was formed every morning from Saturday till Wednesday, and on most of the days a little snow fell. Pear buds in this locality have been frozen to such an extent that blossoms will not appear. It may be set down as about certain that the crops of such fruits as peaches, plums, cherries, apricots and pears will totally fail in this locality and the apple crop may also be endangered. Mr. Parvin Harbaugh, a son of the late George W. Harbaugh, of Uniontown, and brother of Mr. H. H. Harbaugh, of this city, has won an important suit in the Supreme Court of New York. Mr. Harbaugh is a real estate dealer in Brooklyn, N. Y., and was the president and a director in the Hollis Park Company, and the owner of one-third its capital stock of 3000 shares. It was proposed to him by Artemas Ward, Sr., William Gow, and the other directors of the company to reduce the stock to 300 shares and the capital stock to $30,000 instead of $300,000. Mr. Harbaugh accepted the proposition and cancelled 900 shares of his stock. But Ward and Gow, instead of reducing their stock, which amounted to 950 shares, divided Mr. Harbaugh's stock between them and added 450 shares to each of their holdings. The suit was instituted to have the cancellation of his 900 shares of stock by Mr. Harbaugh declared void, and Justice Maddox, of the Supreme Court, has decided in his favor. The property of the company, of which Mr. Harbaugh is the owner of a third, is said to be easily worth $600,000, though the company is capitalized at $300,000. The importance of his legal victory is thus apparent.

A Pastor's Reception.

Rev. Harold M. Rider, pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, received a most hearty welcome from his members and friends upon his return to the pastorate for another year. On Friday evening last the official board of the Church met at the parsonage to begin the planning necessary for the present conference year. The ladies of the church, however, saw to it that no business was transacted on this particular occasion. The pastor had been left entirely out of the plan and was completely surprised to find that instead of the seven men who usually transact the board's business there were enough persons present to fill the entire first floor of the house, kitchen included. So well arranged were all the details that not a single idea as to what was to transpire had leaked out even at the hour set for the meeting. It was only on the arrival of a delegation, comprising almost the entire membership and many friends of the church, that he was aware that the parsonage had been literally "taken by storm." Mr. Simon P. Weaver, the recording steward of the board, was master of ceremonies and after ably representing the board in a short address, introduced as the next speaker Mr. George R. Gehr, who welcomed the pastor back to the church on behalf of its entire membership. Mr. Atlee W. Wampler then made the welcome address for the Sunday School and was followed by Mrs. S. K. Herr, who spoke for the ladies of the church and the Junior Epworth League, and Mr. A. H. Huber and Mr. H. Peyton Gorsuch, as representatives of the entire community. The addresses were replete with historical facts, repartee and humor, and if the pastor had any doubt as to the nature of the welcome he would receive on his return for the second year of his pastorate his mind was certainly at ease ere his turn had arrived for a response. This was made as only a surprise complete in every respect, coupled with the warmly spoken words from the various representatives of the church, could inspire, and was full of thanksgiving that in one year the membership of the church and its friends had so fully taken him into their hearts.

After the response Mrs. Dohnea Nygren, Miss Florence Ogg and Miss Azalea Shipley favored the audience with readings and Miss Starr sang a contralto solo. The ladies then took charge of the program and saw to it that all were abundantly supplied with various kinds of cake and ice cream, after which there was a hearty hand shaking and a general "open house" ere pastor and people said good night and many wishes for even a more prosperous year than the one just ended.

Rev. Mr. Rider has won many friends in the year's pastorate of Centenary Church and judging by the words spoken by the gentlemen representing the community is only as yet in the infancy of his popularity.

Farewell to a Pastor.

A large number of the members of the congregation of the Methodist Protestant Church met in the Sunday School room, on Friday evening last, and marched in a body to the parsonage, to bid farewell to their much beloved pastor, Rev. L. F. Warner, and family, who will remove this week to Newark, New Jersey, to take charge of the M. P. Church, in that city, to which he was appointed at the recent meeting of Conference. Arriving at the parsonage, Dr. J. W. Hering, on behalf of the congregation, spoke of the pleasant relations which had existed between them and their pastor, and while wishing him Godspeed in his new work expressed the universal regret at the severance of his pastorate with the Westminster Church. Mrs. Warner, who has shared her husband's popularity and has won by her gracious manners the love of all who knew her, was presented with a handsome five-branch silver candelabrum, and the pastor with an envelope containing a goodly sum of money with which to purchase for himself something for his library. Remembrances were also given to each of the children. The occasion was a very pleasant one notwithstanding the sadness which filled every heart, and smiles and tears mingled together, as good bys were said. Rev. Mr. Warner leaves Westminster carrying with him the good wishes of the entire community. During his five years residence here he has made many warm friends outside of his own congregation, and many kind wishes follow him to his new home.

Western Maryland Baseball Team.

Western Maryland baseball team has been busily engaged during the past week contending with other teams, with varying degrees of success. On Friday last the Delaware College team, of Newark, Del., came here and downed the W. M. C. by a score of 9 to 3. It was a one-sided affair and a rather uninteresting performance. The ground was wet, making fielding very difficult. Mr. S. S. Wilson was umpire.

On Saturday the Western Maryland boys went to Frederick and walloped the team of the Maryland School for the Deaf by a score of 8 to 1. Superior batting and better all around playing than the mutes gave the W. M. C's. their decided victory. A large crowd witnessed the game. The lineup of the W. M. C's. was: Short, 2b.; Bragonier, ss.; Baldwin, 3b.; Smith, c. f.; Hanks, r. f.; Adkins, l. f.; Gibson, c.; Haverstrite, p.; Coe, 1b.
