1859 April

SIDE ONE

Mrs Dr Morris
Ivy Neck

Phlada. Saturday April 23d 1859

My dear Cousin Anne

Yesterday Cousin Caspar read to me the very kind messages you sent to me and the affectionate wishes that I would look upon your house as my home. Truly, no-where should I feel more at home than with you, for you have ever acted as a tender and loving sister towards me, and my heart sincerely returns your valued love. But, as our Heavenly Father has graciously given me, in all present probability, the means for having a house of my own, I believe it will be best to make such arrangement and I shall, thereby, be enabled fallen asleep in Jesus - how great the mercy, how inexpressible the blessings "thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." May I be enabled to trust in and obey that Saviour, that we may meet in His presence to be separated no more.

I feel much interested in your movements at West River and trust all may be ordered for your happiness and comfort. My best love I wishes to dear Mary and Harry. I send a little doll for Cornelia, as I suppose she will manifest the usual feminine inclinations. Hoping that we shall soon meet again, with sincere gratitude for all your unvaried kindness, believe me dear Cousin Anne,

affectionately
Your's
Emily Hollingsworth