SIDE ONE

Philad. July 1. 1859

My Dear Wife

Ebenezer returned last Evening apparently quite well and not desiring to return again to Olney prefers Spruce St.

While Mr Jones continues he present condition Smart remain here also. Soon as I can I shall escape & return to you. In the meanwhile My Collections have proved successful. & I am able to put my entire accounts here all straight and I hope to have a small balance to remit to Galloway I now feel that we have been favored to get through the storm and that you have the means of providing for your wants day by day as they

Your's Wednesday has only passed
You've yet at it will pass
Do not be anxious. How are you about walking? How is your Gutters feet quite out.