of giving time and attendance to the patients & money to the institution. She looks well and is proposing to purchase a neat house in this vicinity. Mrs Mary, Mary Bolton has a son and is doing well. and ask her if I may not procure some pretty trifle & send in her name. You know Mrs B but her such a pretty basket. We have paid our debts at present. & I think it is only proper to make some token of recognition of kindness. I saw Mrs G. W. Bradley yesterday who reports Caroline Mr Mentice & the Chittenden all well. Mrs Buckley is sobered. Mary & Annie designs going there with Effie in about 10 days. They have an invitation to make a visit to New York
