FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1907.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The members of the Republican County Central Committee are requested to meet, at the Firemen's Hall in Westminster, at 11 o'clock, A. M., tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is desired.

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1907,

ANDREW D. REESE,
Chairman.

FRANK T. SCHAEFFER,
Secretary.

The building of the Young Men's Christian Association, in Baltimore, is to be put to a singular use on Tuesday next. A conference of Democrats is to be held in the building for the purpose of selecting a candidate for Governor to be nominated by the State convention. The sanctity of the building, however, will not serve to divest the conference of its character as a boss assemblage.

Baltimore County Republicans.

The Republicans of Baltimore county held their nominating convention on Monday and named a ticket which is said to be one of the strongest ever presented to the people of the county for their suffrages. It is as follows:

Register of Wills—W. A. Lee, Ninth district.

County Treasurer—Thomas J. Miller, Tenth district.

State's Attorney—Willian H. Lawrence, Twelfth district.

Sheriff—T. Irwin Zimmerman, Third district.

Surveyor—J. Milton Green, Ninth district.

County Commissioners—A. F. Fuss, Fourth district; W. W. Boyce, Eighth district; Adolph G. Kelm, Twelfth district.

Judges of the Orphans' Court—J. Frank Armacost, Fifth district; J. W. Burns, Seventh district; Dennis Carter, Ninth district.

State Senator—C. Ross Mace, Fourteenth district.

House of Delegates—William P. Gundry, First district; Michael J. Hanley, Second district; Peter F. Wilhelm, Sixth district; William J. Davis, Eleventh district; Henry S. Shaefer, Thirteenth district; Henry P. Pielert, Fifteenth district.

Ex-Senator Louis E. McComas, now one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and Mrs. Hebe Harrison Muir, widow of Judge Upton Muir, of Louisville, Ky., were married at noon, on Saturday last, in St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church, Atlantic City, the rector, Rev. W. W. Blatchford, performing the marriage ceremony. Judge and Mrs. McComas sailed for Europe, on the White Star liner Adriatic, on Wednesday morning.

While Mr. David A. Ebaugh, of the Fifth district, Baltimore county, was running a mower one day last week the machine struck a rock and he was thrown from the seat with such violence that two of his ribs were fractured. The accident probably prevented the nomination of Mr. Ebaugh as one of the Republican candidates for judges of the Orphans' Court in Baltimore county.

Harrison Wagner who has for more than a quarter of a century been notorious in Maryland, Virginia and in Washington City as a chronic litigant, who was recently sentenced to the penitentiary for perjury in connection with some of his endless litigations, has been declared of unsound mind by a jury in Washington, D. C., and has been sent to St. Elizabeth Asylum.

It is estimated that 4,200 persons were prostrated by the heat in Philadelphia on Thursday during the progress of the Elk's parade. The parade was one of the greatest seen in that city in years, and it is estimated that more than 1,000,000 persons crowded into Broad street to view it.

A cloudburst on Wednesday played havoc with the Western Maryland Railroad, between Thomas and Elkins in West Virginia. Within a distance of seven miles there were 24 landslides. One of these slides was 180 feet long and 10 feet deep.

Over a score of horses were roasted to death in a stable struck by an electrical bolt in Baltimore last night. The car service and telegraph and telephone lines were crippled and the lighting in the suburbs was put out of commission.

Fully 5,000 persons attended the eighteenth annual reunion of the Reformed Churches of Maryland and the adjoining States, at Pen-Mar, yesterday. The assembly voted to hold the next reunion on the 18th of July, 1908.

Rev. Barton R. Carnahan, pastor of the Reformed Church at Keedysville, Washington county, was unanimously elected pastor of the Mount Pleasant Reformed charge, Frederick county, on Sunday.

Gamber Items.

Rev. George W. Beck and wife, of Ohio, are visiting Mrs. B's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Benson, of this place. Mrs. Mamie Caple and children, of Philadelphia, and Mr. John O. Benson and wife, of Baltimore, are also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benson.

On Sunday last Mr. Lewis Breanning and family, Mr. Charles C. Caple and family, Mr. Horace Shipley and family, and Mr. Williams and family, all visited Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shipley, of Gamber.

Mr. Clinton Pfeiffer, of Baltimore, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Miller.

Mr. Robert E. Barnes, of the Baltimore custom house, paid a flying visit here on Sunday last.

Grain harvest is progressing and about all wheat and rye will be cut by the end of this week. The grain is fine I am informed, and well filled.

Mr. Levi E. Gamber, painter, finished his contract at Senator Beasman's place, near Sykesville, in painting all of the buildings on his premises, houses, barn, and all out-buildings, on Monday last. I am told it is a fine job of work and reflects credit on the workmen.

On Saturday next, 20th inst., Providence Sunday School will hold its picnic in the grove at the old Church, commencing at 2 o'clock, P. M. The Oakland Band will be in attendance.

On the following Saturday, July 27th, the Sunday School at Mount Pleasant M. E. Church will hold its picnic.

For the Sentinel.

A Family Reunion.

A pretty reunion of the children and grandchildren took place at the home of Mr. Jacob Null last Sunday. All were there to witness the social greetings. An excellent dinner was served at the usual time, and this was supplemented with ice cream, bananas, cake, lemonade, raspberries etc., about mid-afternoon. Plates were laid for thirty in addition to the host and hostess.

A principal feature of the occasion was the photographing of the entire group by Rev. A. G. Null, of Fairmont, W. Va., who is spending his vacation here and in the vicinity of Dennings. His wife and Master William are with him to see the harvest off. He is expected to preach in the chapel at Frizellburg Sunday night at 7.45 o'clock. Come to hear him.

Union Mills Items.

The present is about the latest harvest ever known in this locality. It is now past the middle of July and there is yet much wheat to cut, and it is doubtful if the entire crop will be in the barns before the first of August. In ordinary seasons the wheat crop is hauled in by July 4th.

This is excellent weather for the growing corn which is making up much of the lost time of the early summer when it was too cold and wet, and there will be a good yield if the favorable conditions continue. Field corn looks better than the sweet corn.

Albert J. Bemiller, of Silver Run, is an up-to-date truck farmer. He cultivates ten acres of land which he keeps in prime order, sparing no expense on labor and fertilizer, and last year he cleared from it, above all expenses, about $400, or $40 per acre. His main crops are beans, peas and potatoes. He also uses crimson clover as a soil enricher. Mr. Bemiller is a gentleman of intelligence and takes a just pride in his little ten-acre farm and in bringing it up to a higher state of productiveness. He is a school teacher by profession, and also raises fancy poultry.

Rev. H. M. J. Klein and family, of Allentown, Pa., are making their summer visit to Mrs. Klein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wirt Shriver.

Mrs. Walter Frazier and children, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are spending some time with relatives here.

Mr. Herbert Yingling and family, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. Yingling's father, Mr. Ephraim J. Yingling, recently.

Mr. T. Herbert Shriver has purchased a new Franklin six-cylinder automobile. It carries seven passengers.

Prof. Charles Huber, of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., called on friends at Silver Run and Union Mills, this week.

During a thunderstorm last week lightning struck and killed three cows for Mr. Wm. J. Brown, of Silver Run.

Orphans' Court.

Monday, July 15th, 1907.—Marion S. Coane and Ella L. Brown, acting executrices, of Sarah R. Brown, settled first and final account.

Francis L. Mullinix and John G. Gist, executors of Lydia A. Greenholtz, received order to sell real estate.

Frederick F. Schneider, administrator W. A. of Henry Huning, returned inventories of debts and leasehold property, and settled first and final account.

Charles S. Roop, administrator of Elizabeth S. Roop, returned inventory of personal property and settled first and final account.

Tuesday, July 16th, 1907.—Letters of administration on the estate of Henry W. Geatty, deceased, were granted unto Virginia E. Geatty, who returned inventory of debts and settled first and final account.

George W. Driver, administrator W. A. of Lewis A. Hall, returned inventory of personal property and received order to sell personal property.

Benjamin F. Bowers, executor of Margaret J. Baumgardner, settled first and final account.

John P. Myers and Sylvester Mathias, executors of Mary Ann Myers, received orders to sell personal property and real estate.

THE CHARMING WOMAN

is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women, give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at all Druggists 50c.

LONG LIVE THE KING!

is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throat after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by all Druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

NO. 4357 EQUITY.

Mary S. A. Beaver, Plaintiff, vs. William N. Beaver, Defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree granting the plaintiff a divorce a vinculo matrimonii from the defendant.

The bill states that on December 26, 1894, the plaintiff was married to the defendant, at Westminster, Carroll County, in the State of Maryland, and that they lived together as husband and wife in Carroll County until the first day of September, 1901.

That the plaintiff was always kind, affectionate, faithful and chaste toward her husband, the defendant, and that without any just cause or reason the defendant abandoned and deserted her and has declared his intention to live with her no longer and that said abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than five years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

That before and since said abandonment of the plaintiff by the said defendant, he, the said defendant, committed the crime of adultery with women who were, and with women who were not, inmates of houses of prostitution in the City of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland, and the City of Philadelphia in the State of Pennsylvania.

That the plaintiff did not discover or learn of the said adulterous acts of the said defendant until after he had abandoned her.

That the plaintiff and defendant have no children.

That the said defendant fled the State of Maryland about five years ago and is now a non-resident of the same.

It is thereupon, this 18th day of July, A. D. 1907, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll county, in the State of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 19th day of August, 1907, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 9th day of September next, to show cause, if any he have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

In Hampstead District, Carroll County, Md.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting in Equity, passed in a cause in which Henry Wilson Ebaugh, et al., are plaintiffs and Sarah Ebaugh is defendant, the undersigned trustee will offer at public sale, on the premises, situate on the public road leading from Carrollton Station to Wesley Chapel, M. E. Church, two miles from the former and one mile from the latter, in Hampstead district, Carroll county, Md., on at 2 o'clock P. M., all that lot or parcel of land containing

73 ACRES, 2 ROODS AND 20 SQUARE

Perches of land, more or less, being the same land of which Joel Ebaugh died seized and possessed.

The improvements thereon consist of a 2-story frame dwelling house, barn, barrack, corn house, hog house, implement house, dairy, wash house and all other necessary outbuildings. All the buildings are in good repair, there is an orchard on the place consisting of all kinds of fruit, and there are about ten acres of woodland and a fine meadow.

The property is located in a good community and convenient to churches and schools, and has an abundant supply of running water.

Terms of Sale.—One third part of the purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser or purchasers to the trustee on the day of sale, or upon the ratification of the sale by the Court; and the residue shall be paid in two equal payments, the one to be paid in one year and the other in two years from the day of sale, with interest, and to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with security to be approved by the trustee.

ULYSSES S. EBAUGH, Trustee.

These tickets will be good to return the days following days of sale. Rates will be published in due time.

The Union Bridge Band will render a sacred concert Sundays, August 11th and 18th, at one (1) P. M. and six (6) P. M.

With a new water supply and extensive improvements at the hotel, there is not a camp meeting ground or assembly that surpasses Emory Grove for comfort or convenience.

Arrangements can be made to have the W. M. R. R. trains go up as far as Thurmont, if a sufficient number will communicate with Rev. A. F. Campbell, 423 N. Bond street, Baltimore, Md., and indicate the day they desire to visit the camp.

For hotel rates, write to Emory Grove Hotel.

For tent rates write
