LOCAL ITEMS.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore on Tuesday to Joseph E. Classon, of Taneytown, and Mary L. Haus.

Mr. Wm. Armacost, who purchased the Babylon property on Belle Grove Square, this city, is remodeling the house and has also built a new barn.

Harvest did not actually end in this county until the early days of this week, some wheat having remained unreaped at the close of Saturday.

By the distribution of the free school book fund of $150,000, made by Comptroller Atkinson on the 20th inst., Carroll county receives $4,938.

The new church edifice of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, near Keyser avenue, Reisterstown, which was built at a cost of $13,000, was dedicated on Sunday.

The First Regiment Band will give a concert of sacred music, at Belle Grove Square, from 4 till 6 o'clock next Sunday afternoon to which all citizens are invited.

The fete of St. John's Catholic Church, of this City, for the benefit of the Parochial School, will begin tomorrow evening and continue until the Saturday evening following.

Fourteen men and boys, in addition to those previously employed by the B. F. Shriver Co., arrived here from Baltimore several days ago to pick beans on the company's farms.

The brickwork of the new Baust Union Lutheran and Reformed Church, near Tyrone, is nearing completion, and the beauty and dimensions of the structure are thus made apparent.

Numbers of carpenters, painters, cleaners and others are at work on the old Westminster City Hotel, putting it in order for occupancy and it already begins to show a greatly improved appearance.

Mr. C. R. Fogle, a clerk in the railroad office in this city, has accepted the position of freight agent on the Annapolis Electric Railway Co's. Short Line, and will enter upon his duties on the first of August, proximo.

From all indications, this season promises to be the most successful in the history of Emory Grove. Every tent and cottage available on the grounds has been taken and the hotel is overrun with guests. At the present 75 are stopping at it.

Dr. Louis K. Woodward, of this city, has been appointed a surgeon of the Western Maryland Railroad, in conjunction with Dr. Joseph T. Hering. Dr. Woodward is universally recognized as a skillful physician and surgeon.

An interesting illustrated sketch of the history of Westminster Cemetery will be found on the fourth page of the SENTINEL this week. The cuts showing prominent scenes and objects in the cemetery were kindly furnished by the secretary of the company, Mr. Jno. J. Reese.

At their meeting on Monday the County Commissioners awarded the contract for building the abutments for a bridge over Middle run, at Bollinger's mill, to Larence E. Lyons, at $375. The board also audited the books of County Treasurer Hann and found them correct in every particular.

Democratic primaries will be held in this county tomorrow to elect delegates to the State and Judicial conventions of that party. As far as known the Democrats of this county are generally without a decided preference for a gubernatorial candidate and the primaries will probably be held without any contests.

Farmers are very busy hauling in wheat and securing their timothy hay, the crop of which is universally acknowledged to be large and of prime quality. Oats harvest is at hand, some of the grain having been cut already. With favorable weather the harvest will become general by the first of next week.

The standing committees of the Maryland State Teachers' Association have been appointed by the retiring president, Dr. James W. Cain, and the names of the chairman have been announced. Among them are the following: On Manual Training, Mr. Everett E. Hidey, of this city; on English, Miss Ida F. Lockard, of this city, and on Geography, Mr. B. F. Fleagle, of Hampstead.

A partial eclipse of the moon occurred Wednesday night, but as the sky was, during most of the time of its duration, overcast with clouds, was only visible at times. At 11.22 P. M., when the obscuration was greatest, the moon was almost directly between the sun and earth and nearly three quarters of its surface was eclipsed. It passed from the shadow at 12.27 yesterday morning.

A nine-year-old lad named Fowler, living with Mr. George A. Shoemaker on the farm of Mrs. George H. Birnie, near Taneytown, stepped in front of a mower in motion, yesterday morning, and had one of his feet cut off. The knives of the mower cut through flesh, muscle and bone and left the foot hanging by only a shred of skin. Dr. Chas. E. Roop was promptly summoned and amputated the leg of the unfortunate lad just above the severed foot.

During the last fiscal year postoffice inspectors collected fines to the amount of $58,065 imposed for placing written messages in packages of merchandise or other matter mailed at less than two cents an ounce, and the Postmaster General, believing that such messages have often been sent by persons ignorant of the law has directed that notices, warning the public against the practice, shall be placed in the postoffices of the country.

Howard Barnes, of Freedom district, was arrested on Wednesday afternoon by Detective Kehoe, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, while riding on a freight train of the road, en route, it is supposed, for Sykesville. Barnes is accused of having robbed the postoffice at Morgan, this county, about eighteen months ago, and is also suspected of having robbed the postoffice at Sykesville on one or both of the occasions on which that office was broken into during the past year. It is said that detectives had then sufficient evidence to warrant his arrest, but he disappeared and could not be found. He was recognized on the freight train on Wednesday by Mr. Clynton Brandenburg, of Sykesville, who reported his presence to the detective and he was taken into custody and held until turned over to the Federal authorities.

Rev. Jno. O. Yoder, of Silver Run, will preach in the Chapel at Frizellburg, Sunday night at 7.45 o'clock.

Mr. A. M. Warner is having his residence on West Main street, this city, repainted.

The weather prediction for to-morrow is for fair and somewhat cooler; light to fresh southwest to northwest winds.

At the railroad station in this city, yesterday, 51 whole and 8 half tickets were sold to the Lutheran reunion at Pen-Mar.

We are informed that from this date the drivers of the ice wagons in this city will not deliver ice in customers' residences, but will deposit it on the pavements.

Mr. Albert V. Cover, son of the late Peter H. Cover, has sold his farm containing 195 acres, at private sale, to Mr. David E. Stem, for $12,000.00. This farm is considered one of the best in New Windsor district.

From Monday till today at noon Messrs. Roberts, Roop & Co., of this city, received at their steam roller mill 0000 bushels of new wheat. It was of prime quality and the producers reported large yields, some having gotten 40 bushels per acre. The price paid at the mill today was 87 cents per bushel.

As Mr. Charles N. Mitten, of this city, was about to get into his buggy last night his horse started and he was thrown to the ground and dragged some distance. He was cut and bruised considerably, but no bones were broken. The horse was caught without having done any injury to himself or damage to the buggy.

Mr. John Willis Nusbaum, of Taneytown, while at work on a new house being erected for Mr. D. A. Sharetts, on Saturday, fell from a trestle on the second story to the joists of the lower floor, sustaining several cuts and bruises about the head, face and back, but was able to return to work a few days later.

The first new wheat received by the N. I. Gorsuch Son Co., of this city, was delivered on Monday by Mr. John T. Wagner. It was of good quality and Mr. Wagner reported a satisfactory yield. Mr. C. C. Gorsuch, of the company, says "the movement of the crop is nearly three weeks later than last year, as the first new wheat was then received July 3rd. While the season is much later than in previous years, the price of wheat is averaging about fifteen cents a bushel more.

Frederick county must be having much the same experience with its rural free delivery service as Carroll has passed through, or, perhaps we should say, is enduring. The Frederick Examiner, in its last issue says: "The rural free delivery service in this county was giving practically complete satisfaction, when along comes a new Postoffice Inspector, who knows nothing about our people and their needs, and mixes things up so that there is general dissatisfaction all over the county."

A dispatch from Hagerstown to the Baltimore Sun, says: "The machinery for the new Western Maryland Railroad shops in Hagerstown is nearly in position and the shops will be in operation within 30 days. The Union Bridge shops, it is understood, will be closed in part or entirely after the Hagerstown shops are completed." Whatever action the railroad company may take in the matter will not, it is thought, seriously affect the prosperity of the thriving little Carroll county city.

Mr. Hamilton M. Lambert, of Huntington county, Indiana, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Dr. D. F. Shipley, of this city. Mr. Lambert was a former resident of Westminster. He left here in 1864, and this is his second visit to his old home since that time, 31 years having elapsed since his last previous visit visit. He left his Indiana home about six week ago and visited many places of interest in Ohio, New York and the New England States, going as far north as the State of Maine, before coming to this city.

The only report of the Lutheran reunion at Pen-Mar which has come to our notice, states that nearly 10,000 persons were on the ground. July 23, 1908, was selected as the date for holding the next reunion and Pen-Mar was again selected as the place. The committee of arrangements named for the occasion is: Rev. G. W. Enders, York, Pa.; Rev. E. Leisenring, W. L. Gardner, Harrisburg, Pa.; W. W. Doub, Middletown, Md.; Rev. Chas. S. Trump, Martinsburg, W. Va.; Rev. P. H. Miller, D. D., Westminster; Rev. G. W. Miller, D. D., Baltimore; Rev. Dr. Simon, Hagerstown.

Cardinal Gibbons passed the 73rd anniversary of his birth very quietly at "Avalon," the home of Mr. B. F. Shriver, of Union Mills, on Tuesday. He gave interviews to representatives of the Baltimore American and the Sun, the former of which published a very interesting story of the event, the Sun giving a less elaborate account. On Wednesday the Cardinal went to Baltimore in Mr. Shriver's big motor car, and after transacting some business at his residence, returned to Union Mills in the automobile, in the evening. He expressed great enjoyment of the trip.

The annual reunion of the Reformed Churches of Carroll county will be held on Thursday, August 15th, in the grove of Mr. Joseph P. Yingling, at Pleasant Valley. It will be an interesting event, as Rev. W. C. Cremer, D. D., of Chambersburg, Pa., a former pastor, will deliver an address on the occasion. Rev. Thos. S. Land, D. D., of Manchester, will also speak. Miss Madeline Gilbert, of this city, will recite a selection. The choirs of the Reformed Churches at Silver Run, Manchester and Pleasant Valley will each sing an anthem. The Pleasant Valley Band will furnish instrumental music.

Mr. James Peeling, a Carroll county farmer; Charles E. F. Shroeder, 1212 Harlem avenue, Baltimore, weigher at the Western Hay Scales, and Claude H. Butler, colored, were indicted last Thursday week on the charge of conspiring to defraud E. Madison Mitchell out of $22, claimed to be the price of a certain amount of hay weighed at the scales named. Mr. Peeling has been released on bail. He made a statement to State's Attorney Owens which may be used as state's evidence. Attorney Owens says that the statement could be used as such, but that he is not prepared, as he has not had time to consider the matter, to say whether it would be so used or not. Attorney Owens said that he did not care to discuss the nature of the statement made by Mr. Peeling.

A bad freight wreck occurred on the Western Maryland Railroad between Blue Ridge Summit and Sabillasville, on Tuesday afternoon. Engine No. 607, drawing an eastbound train of 30 cars loaded with coke and coal, left the track and tumbled down an embankment. Seventeen of the cars were piled upon and along the track, which was torn up for a considerable distance. The members of the train crew jumped and all but one—Brakeman Walter McClain—escaped serious injury. He was badly cut and bruised, but no bones were broken. He was taken to the Washington County Hospital at Hagerstown. Passengers were transferred at the scene of the accident, but a delay of many hours occurred in the running of trains.

Pleasant Company.

A little company was given on Wednesday evening, 24th inst., by Miss Anna Walkling, of this city, at her home on East Green street, in honor of her guest, Miss Lula Beitzel, of Baltimore. Several vocal solos were rendered by those present, Miss Beitzel, playing the piano as accompanist. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walkling, Mrs. Pensil and Mrs. Voekel, of Baltimore; Misses Lottie Seip, Sadie Gesell, Rosa Case, Lena Gesell, Mary Case, Carrie Gesell, Lottie Voekel, Lula Beitzel, Anna Walkling, Messrs. Wm. Walkling, Henry Gesell, Ernest Walkling, Edward Case, Edward Rowles, Fred Voekel.

Tuberculosis Exhibit.

One of the most interesting features of the annual farmer's reunion, which began on Wednesday at Taneytown under the auspices of the Taneytown Grange, and will continue until tomorrow, is the exhibit of the Maryland Association for the Prevention and Relief of Tuberculosis. The association has spent several months gathering photographs, charts, model shacks, window tents, pathological specimens and various other things designed to demonstrate the communicability, the preventibility and the curability of tuberculosis.

The exhibit was first opened in Baltimore, June 25, and proved a decided success. Mr. Reynolds, under whose management it was first shown, is in Taneytown and will remain during the entire time it is there explaining the exhibits and giving informal lectures. Dr. Buckley, of the Maryland Agricultural College, has an exhibition in the same building with that of the association, showing the effects of the disease on cattle. The trip to Taneytown is the first in response to a number of invitations which the association has received from various towns and communities through the state to set up the exhibit.

For the Sentinel.

An Enjoyable Evening.

Wednesday evening, July 24th, on the kind invitation of Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, pastor of St. Mary's Ref. Church at Silver Run, a party of gentlemen from Westminster enjoyed a tally-ho ride to his hospitable home. After a delightful ride of nine miles they arrived at Silver Run about 8 o'clock, where they were most cordially welcomed by Mr. Hartman and wife. After a visit to their beautiful "God's Acre," they were shown through the elegant Reformed Church, a building seating 900 people. Rev. Mr. Yoder then kindly showed them the magnificent Lutheran Church. It will be a surprise to many people in Carroll county, as it was to these gentlemen, to know that these two churches are the largest and most beautiful in the county, and notwithstanding these churchly surroundings and the presence of a number of ministers, all of which should have had an uplifting influence, the party immediately upon their return to the charming lawn of the parsonage resolved itself into a full fledged Ananias club, and for two hours the contest was sharp and fast and it has not yet been decided who won the trophy. If Ananias had been present he would have realized that as a prevaricator he was indeed a novice. Splendid refreshments, consisting of ice cream, raspberries and cake, were served in great abundance on the lawn, which was lighted with lanterns. The party left for home about 11 o'clock, enjoying the eclipse of the moon on the homeward trip, but were unable to determine whether it was really an eclipse or just clouds they saw, although the eclipse or something else had a peculiar effect on some of the party and strange hallucinations or symptoms of "brain storm" seemed to possess them, one insisting that the berries served with refreshments were strawberries and not raspberries; another, that we were passing through Uniontown and not Union Mills; another that "Billy" Bryan was the coming man. The party reached Westminster about midnight, after a most thoroughly enjoyable evening, for which they most heartily thank Rev. Hartman and his good wife. Several classical selections by "Bugler" added much to the pleasure. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Hartman, Rev. and Mrs. Yoder; Dr. Hartman, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Rev. C. S. Slagle, D. D., Messrs. H. Peyton Gorsuch, Geo. R. Gehr, Oscar D. Gilbert, Dr. Louis K. Woodward, Messrs. Fred D. Miller, Thos. K. Shaw, J. Walter Davis, Jas. Pearre Wantz, Jas. H. Cassell, Dr. J. E. Myers, Messrs. George H. Armacost and Jno. H. Mitten.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

John J. Hape.

John J. Hape, a son of Jacob Hape, near Woodsboro, and who was a motorman on an electric line in Philadelphia, was crushed and almost instantly killed between two cars, last week. He was in his 32nd year. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge at Taneytown. His remains were interred, after funeral services, in the Cemetery of Rocky Hill Lutheran Church, near Woodsboro, on the 18th inst.

John W. Few.

Mr. John W. Few, who had been living retired from business in Frizellburg, for a year or two, died suddenly about 11 o'clock, yesterday morning, of heart failure, aged about 42 years. His wife, who was a Miss Ruby, of Hampstead district, survives him, but he leaves no children. His funeral service will take place tomorrow morning, in the Church of God at Frizellburg, after the meeting at the house, which will be at 9 o'clock. His remains will be interred in the Cemetery of St. John's Lutheran Church, near Brummel.

Mrs. Margaret Knight.

Mrs. Margaret Knight, widow of the late John Knight, was found dead in bed, at her home in Warfieldsburg, on Tuesday morning, aged 82 years 2 months and 1 day. She lived alone in her own house in Warfieldsburg and was possessed of a considerable estate. She leaves no children, but one sister and three brothers survive her—Mrs. Thomas Phillips, near Bird Hill; Mr. Thomas Smith, of Baltimore; Mr. Lewis V. Smith, of Gist, and Mr. Eli N. Smith, of Bloom. Funeral services were held yesterday morning, Rev. Victor K. Betts of the Church of God, officiating. Interment in the Church cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Vachel Sellman, George Harris, Jno. W. Zile, Jno. W. Duvall, Albert Woods and Jas. H. Robertson. Mr. Jas. M. Stoner was funeral director.

Miss Lydia Staley.

Since the brief notice of the death and burial of Miss Lydia Staley, in Philadelphia, published in the SENTINEL of the 12th inst., numerous inquiries have been made by persons who knew her when she resided here, concerning her last days. As far as we have been able to ascertain she was a zealous and faithful member of St. Luke's Methodist Protestant Church, Philadelphia, into which she was admitted October 2, 1881, by Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, then the pastor. She was a helper in the infant department of the Sunday School and its members were much attached to her. For a time after her removal to Philadelphia she lived with the family of Prof. F. R. Buell. She was always active and energetic until incapacitated by old age and failing health. Her extreme illness only lasted about two weeks immediately preceding her death, but she had been gradually growing weaker for about two months. At her funeral three clergymen officiated, the choir sang her favorite hymns, closing with "Nearer, My God, to Thee," as they stood around her casket, and the children of the infant department of the Sunday School were present and occupied the front seats. There were many beautiful floral tributes. Interment was in the lot of Mr. Daniel Miller in Northwood Cemetery, where the deceased had purchased space for her grave.

Orphans' Court.

Monday, July 22nd, 1907.—August Gesell, surviving executor of John Zehner, deceased, settled his first and final account.

Rufus W. Reaver, administrator of Elmira J. Shriner, deceased, received order to pay to Roda L. Bechtel.

Tuesday, July 23rd.—Letters of administration on the estate of John B. Rakestraw, deceased, granted unto Elizabeth Rakestraw, who received warrant to appraise, also order to notify creditors.

Mary Effa Albaugh, executrix of Kitturah R. Wickert, deceased, returned inventory of debts and settled her first account.

James C. Galt, executor of Sarah Galt, deceased, received order to transfer notes and stock and settled his first and final account.

Shipley Items.

Well, harvest is about over here again and a fairly good one has been saved and stored away. The cereal crop is believed all right and the hay crop, in most instances, is good. Corn is growing rapidly and all are hopeful of a good yield. So far as we know the harvest, (aside from having been quite late) has come up to our farmers' expectations in both quantity and quality and has been saved without any serious accidents. The fields sown to grass seeds here this spring are well set.

G. J. Hill, chairman; Messrs. Solomon Myers, Milton Zollickoffer, Morrison D. Smith, Mrs. George Selby and Miss Annie Baust comprise the committee. There are but four of the ex-pastors of the church living—Rev. Dr. H. C. Cushing, of Westminster; Rev. J. T. Lassell, of Baltimore; Rev. B. W. Kindley, of Seaford, Del., and Rev. C. E. McCullough, Monterey Springs, Pa. Rev. J. B. Jones, of Brooklyn, Md., was assistant to Rev. D. E. Reese, in 1860. Rev. R. S. Murray is connected with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Further notice of the date will be given.

Rev. G. J. Hill went to Frederick county on Thursday, having had a number on the program in the Sunday School convention at Central Church.

There will not be any preaching service in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday night on account of the absence of pastor G. J. Hill.

Miss Carrie Parkhurst is a guest at the Lutheran parsonage since she and Miss Mary Baughman returned from the "cottage camp," at Pen-Mar.

The Mite Society of the M. P. Church will meet at the home of Mr. Leonard Zile and family, at Frizellburg, August 13, instead of the first Tuesday night of the month.

Miss Helen Price is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Bostian, of Bark Hill, and other friends near Union Bridge.

Miss Missouri Smelser and Miss Martha Franklin, of Smelser's Mill, were guests of the former's brother, Mr. Charles Smelser and family, on Tuesday.

Pleasant Valley Items.

The remains of Fannie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Bowers, Sr., were brought from Baltimore and buried at this place on last Monday. Her age was 8 months and 14 days.

As there has been some contention about the date of the Reformed Church Reunion we will say it is to be held Thursday, August 15th, in Mr. Jos. P. Yingling's grove, near this village.

Mrs. Frederick Myers and Mrs. Harry J. Myers, who had been spending some time in Baltimore, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hahn and son William, of Baltimore, have returned home after spending a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hahn and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Myers entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jas. D. Mitchell, of Westminster, last Sunday. Mr. Mitchell always enjoys himself when he visits our village.

Master Wm. B. Yingling, who spent a week in Hanover, Pa., has returned home very much delighted with his trip.

Miss Edna Byers, of Union Mills, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. R. Unger, has returned home.

Mrs. Frank Byers, of Westminster, spent a few days with Mrs. Wm. R. Unger.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fowler, of Baltimore, are spending some time with Mrs. F's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Myers.

Rev. John O. Yoder will hold his summer communion Sunday, July 28, at 10 A. M. Preparatory service Saturday afternoon at 2 P. M.

Gamber Items.

On last Saturday two games of ball were played here near the picnic ground, between a picked nine and Gamber, and Oakland and Gamber. Score of first game stood Gamber 6, Picked Nine 4; second game, Gamber 3, Oakland 0.

The picnic held Saturday at Providence Church was quite a success. A large crowd of persons patronized the occasion. After treating all scholars and those connected with the school the net proceeds left for the benefit of the school were about $25. Had it been fair in the morning the proceeds would have been larger.

Mr. Francis P. Hoyt and wife, Mrs. Daisy B. Hoyt, daughter of Robert E. and Annie V. Barnes, arrived at her parents' home about midnight Saturday night. Mr. H. had been on a business trip through the South for several months and was called away again to York, Pa., and other points yesterday, 23rd inst. He left on the afternoon train and his wife will spend some time with her parents during the hot weather.

Farmers are about through with their grain harvest and are now saving their grass crop and oats.

Baseball.

The Sykesville Athletic Club defeated the Towson Baseball Club, in a game at the former place on Saturday last, but the Patapsco A. C. suffered defeat in a game at Pikesville, with the Baseball Club of that place.

In the game at Sykesville the pitching of Shipley and catching of Beadenkopp for Sykesville were easily the feature of the game.

The Sykesville Athletic Club is jubilant over its victory, as Towson played the Mount Airy team a 1-to-1 tie game, and as the two country teams are to play each other soon for the championship of Carroll county, the Sykesville boys have a great deal more confidence in themselves.

JULY 26, 1907.

Manchester Items.

Mr. Theo. Tracy, whom we mentioned in our last as being quite ill, died at his home on Friday evening, 19th inst., unexpectedly, although there was no hope of his recovery. His age was 60 years, 11 months and 3 days. In early manhood Mr. T. became a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church of this place and held his membership here until his death. His remains were laid away to rest in the cemetery of the Reformed Church, of which his wife is a member, attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends, Rev. H. H. Flick and Dr. Land officiating. Mr. T. during the last year had a fine home built at Lineboro which he and his family occupied several months ago. His fine farm in the Tracy Valley, the old homestead, is tenanted by Mr. Wm. Wertz. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Annie Gettier, a native of this place; two daughters, Misses Erma and Annie Tracy, at home, and one son, Mr. Grover Tracy, a student at Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg. Mr. T. was a quiet unassuming gentleman, a steadfast friend and a kind parent. Politically he was a Democrat and held a quiet influence in the councils of his party. He was the president of the Dug Hill Fire Insurance Co. at the time of his death, having been a director for a number of years and at the retirement of the late P. H. L. Myers from the presidency was chosen to fill the vacancy. The members of the company attended the funeral in a body and draped the building in mourning for 30 days. Mr. Geo. Miller, of Glenville, had charge of the funeral.

On Saturday last the Dennings baseball team was here and crossed bats with the home team on their diamond. The lineup was:

Manchester		Dennings
Myers	p	Jenkins
Theiret	c	Danner
R. Spenser	s s	Tracy
G. Land	1 b	Stem
J. Land	2 b	Smith
T. Barnhart	3 b	B. Spencer
C. Kexel	r f	Byers
Eckenrode	l f	Williams
Burgoon	c f	More

Score by innings:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Manchester	1	1	0	0	0	1	1	0	0	4
Dennings	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2	1	5

Myers pitched a good game and was well supported by Theiret until the fifth inning, when he split his finger in taking a ball and had to retire, Barnhart taking his place, putting Wink on 3rd.

On Friday evening Mr. Richard Martin drew the reins over his team of four, hitched to a large farm wagon, fitted up for a straw ride, on which twenty or more young folks embarked and were driven to the home of Mr. Benjamin F. Bosley, at Greenmount, where the number was augmented by friends from Hampstead who enjoyed a jolly time in the home and on the fine lawn until a late hour, when abundant refreshments were served and the happy company reached home in the early hours of the morning.

The board of directors of the Dug Hill Fire Insurance Company met in special session on Saturday last to make an assessment to replenish the treasury. An assessment of 3 per cent. was levied and Mr. Whitfield Stansbury was appointed collector for the same. Suitable action on the death of the president was taken in the series of resolutions which appears in this issue of the SENTINEL.

The town authorities are fitting up the old lamp posts to light the street with coal oil at the next lighting, making the town history to read backward 40 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Motter and Mr. and Mrs. Robison and niece, of Baltimore, were guests at the home of Mrs. J. M. Motter on Sunday, with whom Masters Bixler and Harvey Weaver, nephews, are spending their holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, of Littlestown, Pa., were visitors at the home of Dr. J. F. B. Weaver, their brother-in-law.

Mr. Geo. Gettier and family, of Baltimore, spent several days here with Mr. G's. brother, W. H. Gettier, of the Hotel de Stick.

Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker is ill at her home with jaundice.

Mrs. Charles Coltrain and sons, of Baltimore, were visitors at their uncle, Mr. Charles H. Everhart's, from Friday to Monday. Mr. Charles is continuing his stay during his vacation.

Mr. Flavius Sullivan, of the Washington House, who spent some time with the fishing club last week was unfortunate in spraining his ankle which has caused him much pain and put him on crutches.

Miss Ethel Gettier and friend spent from Tuesday to Sunday with the family of Mr. J. T. Lawyer, of Littlestown, Pa., enjoying a pleasant visit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boring and children, of Woodberry, are spending the week here with Mrs. B's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Shaffer.

Mrs. Chas. T. Warner, of Baltimore, is visiting her son, Mr. Clinton Warner, on York street.

Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Reiter and niece, Miss Lillian Steveson, of Harmony, Pa., spent from Thursday to Wednesday with their sisters, the Misses Rica and Eliza Cox, on York street. Mr. R. informed us that he preaches in the church built by Geo. Rapp more than 100 years ago, who founded the town of Harmony and the sect of Harmonites. It is the scene of the plot as given in the Feuilleton of the Baltimore American, "Hearts' Haven," in the present issue. Many years ago they left and went to Indiana, but not liking the climate returned to Pennsylvania and founded the town of Economy on the Ohio river where a remnant of the sect still holds to the Rapp doctrine and are called Economists.

Mr. Horatio Loats went to Red Line, Pa., on Saturday and pitched a game of ball for that team.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houck and son are visitors at the Trump home.

Mrs. Chas. Loats was called to the home of her son-in-law, Augustus Bendig, Wolf street, Baltimore, where he died on Saturday after a lingering illness.

Mr. H. G. Myers is spending his vacation week here with friends.

At this writing farmers are finishing cutting late ripened grain while quite a number have their's in their barns.

After the regular meeting of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening twenty of the members marched to the ice cream saloon of Mr. Chas. W. Motter and enjoyed a dutch treat of ice cream, cake and soda.

Several ministers of the Free Methodist faith, from Baltimore, rented the grove of Mr. Wm. Hahn, near Greenmount, where they are holding services every night to continue for 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Curvin Leese and children, of Hanover, Pa., spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. L's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Berngen.
