REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.

FOR GOVERNOR,
GEORGE R. GAITHER,
of Baltimore City.

FOR COMPTROLLER,
JAMES H. BAKER,
of Kent County.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,
HAMMOND URNER,
of Frederick County.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT OF APPEALS,
THOMAS PARRAN,
of Calvert County.

FOR CHIEF JUDGE OF THE FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.
JOHN WIRT RANDALL,
of Anne Arundel County.

Julia says Mr. Mudd bossed the Republican State convention, and in the eyes of the average Democrat that settles it. He must be a hardheaded Republican, too, who refuses to agree with such a brilliant and lovely character as Julia. Who's Julia? Oh, you must get that information from some Democratic newspaper. They all quote sweet-tempered Julia and believe she knows it all.

The story of what Mr. Geo. R. Gaither has done to promote the prosperity and elevate the standard of municipal government in Baltimore, and to enforce just claims for the State, which will be found on the outside pages of the SENTINEL this week, should be read by every patron of the paper. It shows what a man of ability, integrity and fidelity to duty can accomplish for the public welfare. Judge Crothers, of Cecil county, is his Democratic competitor for the Governorship of Maryland, and in contrast with Mr. Gaither's record as a public man it is pertinent to inquire what he, Judge Crothers, has done to advance the interests of Cecil county or of the State. What is Judge Crothers' record as a public man?

MR. RANDALL NOMINATED.

The Republican convention of the Fifth Judicial Circuit, which met in Ellicott City yesterday, unanimously nominated John Wirt Randall, Esq., of Annapolis, as the party candidate for Chief Judge. Mr. Edward Blake Ney, of Howard county, was chairman of the convention and Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., of this city, secretary. After the convention adjourned the delegates were banqueted at the Howard House.

Not Much Bossism in This.

In a statement published in the Baltimore American of Monday last, made by Hon. Sidney E. Mudd, in an interview on the previous Saturday, and attested by his signature, he tells in a simple, straightforward way the story of the proceedings of the recent Republican convention which he has been accused of bossing. In the first part of the interview he nails a canard attributing to Hon. Wm. H. Jackson a declaration that "Sidney and me had the votes to nominate anybody we wanted." Having seen the publication of this alleged declaration he wired Mr. Jackson to know whether he had made it, and received, both by wire and by mail, a positive denial of the story. He then gives corroborative proof of the truth of this denial.

Following this he shows that Mr. Jackson strongly desired the nomination of Mr. Goldsborough; that his own preference was in that direction, but that upon arriving in Baltimore he reached the conclusion that a majority of the delegates to the convention, uninfluenced by any one, had concluded that Mr. Gaither was the strongest man with the Republican voters of the State; that the sentiment of the Republicans of Baltimore was overwhelmingly in Mr. Gaither's favor; that both Collector Stone and Mr. Wachter agreed in that sentiment, and that Mr. Goldsborough also reached the conclusion just recited and acted upon it by withdrawing his own name and putting Mr. Gaither in nomination before the convention.

Mr. Mudd further explains that instead of favoring the renomination of Mr. Parran for Clerk of the Court of Appeals he had advised that gentleman to decline to be a candidate. Finding, however, that the convention was practically unanimous in favor of the renomination, Mr. Parran, against his own expressed desire, finally agreed to accept it.

And this is the story, as briefly as it could be told, of Mr. Mudd's exercise of bossism in the Republican convention, epitomized from that gentleman's own statement.

The explosion of the boiler of a steam saw mill, near Cavetown, Washington county, on Monday morning, caused the death of three men and the fatal injury of another. The men killed were George W. Beard, of Middleburg, Pa.; Elmer Stevens, of Smithburg, and Samuel Shirley, near Lancaster, Pa. The injured man was Edward Ridenour, near Cavetown. He died on Tuesday morning. The men were in the employ of Dr. A. M. Kalbach, who had purchased the timberland on the Huyett farm near Cavetown, and was having the timber sawed into logs and lumber. Beard, one of the victims of the explosion, was well known in the upper part of this county, having worked for Dr. Kalbach in his lumber operations through that section. He leaves a wife and seven children. He was foreman of the gang operating the sawmill. The other men killed were married and leave families.

ENDORSED BY THE COUNTY.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by all Drug stores. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

THE LIMIT OF LIFE.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by all Druggists. 50 cents.

Friendship Sunday School, near Fenby, will hold a picnic on Saturday, Sept. 7th, in the grove near the schoolhouse. There will be entertaining exercises by the children and the Junior Order United American Mechanics will also be present and render an interesting program. Everybody is invited and will be given a pleasant time.

"EVERYBODY SHOULD KNOW"

says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by all Druggists. 25 cents.

The Deer Park (M. P.) Sunday School will hold their annual picnic on Saturday, August 31. If weather is unfavorable it will be held following Monday. Pleasant Valley Band will furnish music.

The annual Sabbath School festival at St. Luke's, Winter's Church will be held on Saturday, August 31st, in the tent adjoining the church near New Windsor.

"REGULAR AS THE SUN"

is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by all druggists. 25 cents.

Harmony Grove M. P. Sunday School will hold their annual picnic, afternoon and evening, Sept. 14th. If weather is unfavorable the first fair evening the following week.

In loving remembrance of dear mother, who left us 19 years ago today, August 31st, 1888.

"Gone but not forgotten."

Dear mother smile upon us from on high;
Ask God to lead us when we die,
That we may meet you up above
Some sweet day by and by.

Mamie Shipley, Bird Hill.

Near Bloom, August 23rd, 1907, Elise Hanner, daughter of George W. and Lilly Wolf, aged 1 year, 9 months and 24 days.

Home is sad, Oh God, how dreary,
Lonesome, lonely, every spot,
Listening for her voice till weary,
Weary, for we hear it not.

Vanished are the little playthings,
No wee footsteps in the hall;
All is silent and so lonely
For Elise Hanner's gone, our joy, our all.

By her Parents.

Oh, what is she doing, our darling,
Who left us those few days ago?
Does she watch from the beautiful city?
Of our trials and griefs does she know?

Does she know how I long to embrace her,
To feel her wee hands clasped in mine;
How in fancy I feel her caresses
Her arms round me softly entwine?

By her aunt, Laura V. Prugh

Elise we miss you more each day,
We are lonely, lonely when at play.

By her cousins, William and Hilda Prugh.

DELL.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dearly beloved husband, John C. Dell, who departed this life three years ago to-day, August 28th, 1904.

Why should my tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own,
And bids him leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?

His trials are o'er, his work is done,
And he is fully blest;
He has fought the fight,
The victory won and entered into rest.

By his loving wife, Amanda Dell.

Oh, father, thy gentle voice is hushed,
Thy warm true heart is still,
And on thy pale and peaceful face
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast,
We have kissed thy lovely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know,
We have know father now.

By his daughter, Irena.

When they ask me do I miss him?
Yes, it fills my heart with pain,
But his spirit softly whispers, courage,
Gertie we will meet again.
Dear father, may your slumber
Be as gentle as your love,
And when God shall call me
Homeward, may we meet in heaven above.
Rest on dear father, your labor is o'er,
Your willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful father, both true and kind,
A truer father you will not find.

By his daughter Gertie.
