assure you. I am sorry to hear you do not like Mr Cracraft but suppose that you will not feel bound to ~~stay~~ go constantly to the Epiphany I am rather afraid of your going to the Dorcas but dont see how you can help yourself, but do be careful. I am very glad that you like Miss Bohlen she seems very kind hearted and I suppose her devotion to Pully makes her take a fancy to all her friends Harry says that Father is going to take her to Media in order to get something for the asylum Father must feel as if his wishes for the E. Hospital were in a fair way to be accomplished and I suppose they will soon erect a suitable building..

I have not been able to find out what the difficulty between Mr Hughes and Mr Hagner was but Harry says that there was a card from Mr Hughes in to days Sun stating the whole case and if we can procure one I will send it to you. The only thing that I know about it is that Mr Hughes has a very black eye and wears a patch over it, and also that he was drunk when he made the speech which is said to have been a miserable one they think that his chances of being elected is very slim. Cousin Sally told me that Mrs Markoe is to go to Orange as Mr M. insists on that being the only thing to save them from ruin. I have had a very quiet day but have not felt lonesome Harry went to Mount Zion to a political meeting and did not get home until after dark, but I expect to have a merry time tomorrow as Cousin Mary, Annie and the Thomas girls are coming to spend the day. Aunt Rachel starts on her trip tomorrow she will stay in Baltimore until Saturday when
