LOCAL ITEMS.

To the Readers of the SENTINEL:

Read carefully and pass your copy of the SENTINEL to a Democratic neighbor and ask him to read it.

Hallowe'en, which always occurs on October 31st, falls this year on Wednesday of next week.

Patapsco Tribe No. 160, Independent Order of Red Men, will initiate a class of applicants for membership, on Wednesday evening next, 30th inst.

Elder A. L. B. Martin, of Harrisburg, Pa., will preach at the German Baptist Church, Sams Creek, on Sunday morning next at 10.30 and in the evening at 8 o'clock. He will preach in New Windsor at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

In the wreck on the Southern Railway, at Rudd, N. C., last Friday, in which 3 persons were killed and 37 injured, Mr. W. H. Yingling, of Honeysuckle Hill, this city, was severely bruised about the arms.

The first public recital of the college year will be given in Alumni Hall, Friday, Nov. 1st, at 8 P. M. The program will be given by Miss Alice Rich and Miss Nannie C. Lease, heads of the departments of music and elocution, respectively.

Mr. G. Hoskins Morgan, of Frederick, who was superintendent of the telephone exchange, this city, about 20 years ago, has been granted an absolute divorce from his wife, Florence M. Morgan, who resides in Baltimore.

A verdict for the defendant, in the suit of Mr. C. Elmer Wampler against J. Hinkle Wisner, was rendered yesterday in the Circuit Court for Baltimore county. Mr. Wampler sued for $2,000 damages for the alleged wrongful taking of 223 telephone poles by Mr. Wisner.

The lovefeast of the German Baptist Brethren at Meadow Branch, on Saturday last, was largely attended and was deeply interesting to the participants. Numbers of ministers from other localities were present, among them Rev. Charles D. Bonsack, of Washington, D. C., who assisted in conducting the services.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cole has sued Mr. Elias B. Arnold in the Court of Common Pleas, of Baltimore, for $10,000 damages. The nature of her claim is not stated except that the suit is based on statements of Mrs. Cole's daughter, Flora Aul, who was employed as a servant in Mr. Arnold's family. Mr. Arnold, who is an ex-sheriff of this county, is engaged in the grocery business on Frederick avenue, Baltimore.

The dwelling on the Van Bibber farm, near Avondale, now owned by the B. F. Shriver Company, narrowly escaped destruction by fire, which did considerable damage to the kitchen, but was fortunately discovered in time to prevent it from spreading to other parts of the building, on Sunday last. The loss was covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is not known. The building is occupied by the families of Messrs. John Gahl and Edward Brothers.

At the meeting of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church, in Washington, D. C., last week, three of the clergyman from Carroll county were honored by election to responsible positions on the general boards. Rev. C. S. Slagle, D. D., of this city, was elected to the four year term on the Board of Publication; Rev. J. B. Stonesifer, of this city, to serve for four years on the Sunday School Board; Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, of Silver Run, as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Potomac Synod.

One of the nine balloons, starting from St. Louis, Missouri, on Monday evening last, passed over this city, on Wednesday morning, and attracted much attention. It turned out to be one of the American balloons, the St. Louis, piloted by Major Alan Hawley and his aid, Mr. Augustus Post. They were in the air for 37 hours, traveled 712 miles and descended on the farm of Mr. Fred. Hook. The race was won by the German balloon Pommern, that reached Asbury Park, New Jersey, covering 873.4 miles.

New Windsor College has just received a coat of paint that gives the building a fresh and cheery appearance. The painting of the large building was quite an undertaking, indeed some thought it could not be done except by city painters accustomed to swinging scaffolds. But a man in this county was found equal to the task. This is Mr. J. T. Haifly, of Frizellburg. He undertook the job and pushed it on to a finish, doing the work in good form and in reasonable time. The painting is well done and Mr. Haifly commended for his work. There is no reason to doubt that many other painters in this city and county would have been fully equal to the work.

For the Sentinel.

A Pleasant Entertainment.

A very pleasant entertainment was given at the home of Mr. George A. Miller, of Westminster, Tuesday evening, in the interest of the Sewing Society of the Lutheran Church. The program was as follows: Piano duet, Misses Shriver and Reaver; recitation, Miss Shipley; vocal solo, Miss Yingling; recitation, Mr. Cover; instrumental trio, Misses Shunk, Roop, and Miller; reading, Miss Schaeffer; piano solo, Miss Shaw; piano duet, Misses Zepp and Henry. After the program refreshments were served. The entertainment was largely attended and all received a cordial welcome and greeting from Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Police Court Notes.

On the 21st. inst., on the information of Joseph L. Franklin, Wm. D. Arian and Frank L. Carter were arrested and brought before Police Justice Edwin W. Shriver, it being charged that "each of said persons, being in charge of a motor vehicle, upon the indication of the horses of Wm. G. Cashour being alarmed at said motor vehicles did not go as far as possible to the side of the road in Mt. Airy, in Carroll county, Maryland, and remain stationary until said Wm. F. Cashour had passed, on the 21st day of October 1907." The accused plead not guilty and each entered into personal recognizance for their appearance on November 6th, 1907, depositing $100 cash.

This case grew out of the frightening of the four-horse team of Mr. Cashour in Mt. Airy by the two Carter touring automobiles, driven by Messrs. Arian and Carter. One of the horses for which Mr. Cashour had just paid $225, was killed and he was badly cut about the face. The same motors badly frightened a horse driven by Mrs. Jeff Gunn, near Taylorsville. Two ladies were in the buggy, but got out. The motorists came to their assistance but were unable to hold the horse which ran away.

Justice Shriver committed John Nelson to the House of Correction for six months as an habitually disorderly character, and fined Israel Utz $2.00 and costs for allowing a vicious dog to run at large.

Ice a quarter of an inch thick was formed in some localities in this county this morning.

Rustina, owned and driven by H. R. Schultz, of Hampstead, won third money in 2.29 class trotting race at Frederick, yesterday.

No Postponement.

The rumor that the recital for the benefit of Salem Lodge No. 60, I. O. O. F., of this city, has been postponed, is not correct. The recital will be given in Odd Fellows' Hall next Tuesday evening, October 29th.

The synod indorsed the suggestion, and such a home will be established in Potomac Synod in the near future.

The Synod adjourned Monday evening.

DEATH OF JUDGE JAMES McSHERRY.

Hon. James McSherry, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, died at his home in Frederick, on Tuesday morning, after a long illness, in his 65th year. His last public appearance in his official capacity was at the court house in Frederick on the 11th of January last. His malady was disease of the heart and his death, while not unexpected, was sudden at the last. He was the son of the late James McSherry, of Frederick, author of McSherry's History of Maryland, and a grandson of James McSherry, who served in the Lower House of the Pennsylvania Legislature from 1807 till 1813, and from the latter year till 1817 in the Senate of that State.

Judge McSherry was elected to the bench as Chief Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit in 1887, and in 1896 was appointed Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals by Governor Lowndes. He was a very able jurist and held very high rank in the estimation of the ablest members of the bar in this State. Senator Wm. Pinkney Whyte says of him that "we shall not soon look upon his like again," and the regret caused by his long illness and death is shared by the entire bar of the State. He leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters.

THE ANTI-BRIBERY AGREEMENT.

In harmony with the resolution of the Republican county convention, offering and agreeing "to meet the officials and representatives of the Democratic party in this county with the object in view of taking such united action as will prevent the corrupt expenditure of money in the county during the present campaign," the Republican County Central Committee and the candidates for the several offices met and appointed a committee to wait upon the Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee. The committee was composed of Mr. R. Wesley Barnes, chairman of the County Central Committee, Mr. Walter R. Rudy and Dr. Luther Kemp, of the State Central Committee, Mr. Edward E. Reindollar, Republican candidate for the State Senate, and Mr. Joseph Englar, Republican candidate for the office of County Commissioner. These gentlemen waited on Hon. B. F. Crouse, chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, and presented the following proposition:

To the Hon. B. F. Crouse, Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee, of Carroll County, Maryland.

Dear Sir:

The Republicans of Carroll County, in convention assembled, September 24th, 1907, made the following declaration:

"We distinctly pronounce in favor of a "Corrupt Practices" act which will more effectually prevent the bribery of voters, but we recognize the fact that no change of laws can in itself bring about pure elections; and therefore now offer and agree to meet the officials and representatives of the Democratic party in this county with the object in view of taking such united action as will prevent the corrupt expenditure of money in the county during the present campaign, without which votes can neither be bought nor sold."

This action of the Republican convention was taken in good faith. The State conventions of both parties have declared strongly against the use of money in the bribery of voters and in favor of a "Corrupt Practices" act.

We do not believe that either party is in a position to criticize the other as to the past, nor is this a time for recrimination, but for action looking to the correction of an abuse which all recognize as having existed.

We are ready to enter into agreement with the Democratic party in this county to see that the present campaign is conducted without the illegitimate use of money or other bribe in the present campaign.

We would suggest an agreement, signed by the members of the State Central Committee of each party in the county, by the chairmen of the two county central committees and by each of the party candidates, pledging themselves individually and as representatives of their respective parties neither to use nor countenance the use of money or other bribe to influence voters in the coming election.

We repudiate the suggestion that such a pledge would be valueless unless made under oath of the parties signing, and believe that those by whom it is signed will regard the agreement and pledge shall be signed are honorable gentlemen, who will carry out their pledge in good faith.

We respectfully suggest that an answer should be returned to this proposition, or suggesting some better method in lieu thereof, that the agreement and pledge may be prepared and signed promptly, not later than the 10th day of October.

Mr. Crouse met them more than half way, and informed them that in view of the resolution of the Republican County Convention some positive action was anticipated, and that F. Neal Parke, Esq., had been employed as the Attorney for the Democratic party to act for it in the premises. Joseph D. Brooks, Esq., was thereupon appointed as the Attorney for the Republican party.

Mr. Brooks prepared and presented to the representatives of the Democratic party the following general outline, as a tentative proposition, looking to the preparation of a formal agreement:

The Republican party of Carroll county submits the following proposition.

ELECTIONS.

One conveyance at each precinct, the same to be hired from a known livery man, if possible.

Watchers—not more than two at any precinct.

Candidates of both parties and committeemen, both county and State, also State's Attorney of the county, to sign the agreement.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH D. BROOKS,
Attorney for the Republican party.
October 8th, 1907.

Mr. Crouse made the following response to this communication of Mr. Brooks:

Westminster, Md.,
October 14, 1907.

JOSEPH D. BROOKS, Esq.,
Westminster, Maryland.

Dear Sir:

Several days ago you handed me, over the signature of "Joseph D. Brooks, Attorney for the Republican Party," a memorandum in relation to bribery at public elections in Carroll County. Any practicable movement looking to the suppression of corrupt practices in elections has my cordial approval, and I have carefully considered the paper submitted by you, and have come to the conclusion that it would not be advisable for me as Chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee to submit your proposition for adoption to that body, because the memorandum does not embody certain conditions indispensable to an effective effort to put an end to bribery at the polls.

While the memorandum submitted by you is insufficient to accomplish the ending of corruption at the polls in this county, the Democratic Party is not willing that an opportunity afforded by your proposals should be allowed to pass without some real step being taken to end the use of bribery at elections. Therefore, as chairman of the Democratic County Central Committee of Carroll County, I enclose herewith an agreement which, in my judgment, will put an end to the evil, and which will be promptly submitted to the members of the Democratic County Central Committee of Carroll County and to the Democratic candidates for county offices as soon as there is any assurance that it will be favorably acted upon by the Republican County Central Committee and the candidates for county offices upon the Republican ticket.

This agreement is founded upon practical lines. It recognizes that any agreement to be effective should be based upon three salient points, (1) immunity for all offences of the past, no matter by whomsoever committed; (2) prosecution for all offences of the future of bribery, no matter by whomsoever committed, with immunity for the informer; (3) a reward for information leading to the conviction of future offenses.

In submitting the following agreement, I shall expect you to present it to the proper parties in the Republican Party in Carroll County; and I shall await their action in the matter, during their prompt consideration.

Yours truly,
B. FRANK CROUSE,
Chairman County Central Committee of Democratic Party.

The agreement to which reference is made in Mr. Crouse's communication has been accepted by the Republican party, and has been signed by the candidates and many members of the committees, and will be signed by all. The agreement itself, together with the provisions of the Constitution and the Code relative to BRIBERY AT ELECTIONS appears as an advertisement in another column today.
