an opportunity to W. R.
Mult week, so Polly sent in to-day that thin grey talma she wore last summer, to which she said you took a fancy. I hope I have not ruined it in folding I did it in a very great hurry.
there is with it a little package for Sister Sally which I will thank you to take charge of
for her. Give my love to dear Mary and Harry & many kisses
to Dedie and Mary,
to all which add in much love to yourself Polly

Mr Dr
Polly sends her love to you & a great many thanks for the [illegible] which reached her safely
last week they are beautiful & she and Mrs Forster as well as the rest of us are delighted with them.
She tells you will not hurry or fret
worried about the
