1859 November Ann Chesterton

SIDE TWO

1859

Mrs Ann C Morris
West River

Dr Morris writes me he is very busy. If he means to stick to his practice he must have a horse & carriage. I have recommended him to do the one, & have the other while his health is really good, & he can do it comfortably to himself. The great trouble of moving has been gone thro. & nothing more would remain to be done hereafter than to move personally. If he remains now had he not better take one of the horses from the Neck? I believe the little Browns are there.

I am under the impression after consulting Aud. Lidsey that Dan'l Murray is not an heir of Aunt Fanny. If so the distributive share of the others is of course increased in such case. I believe I have now enough in my hands (including a payment I understand Dr C. will make) belonging to the Doct. to pay off all he owes the Estate & the entire cost of the present improvement of the house. So his finances are beginning to brighten. I have written him to this effect to day.

With love to Mary & Harry

Yr affect. Bro.
