1866 January - March

SIDE ONE

Please write whenever you can and tell me every thing.

Baltimore March 9th 1866

My dearest Mother

I feel quite worried that I did not write you a line last night or early this morning to let you know of our safe arrival, but was so tired mind and body that I could not make up my mind to make the attempt. Not even to Harry altho Uncle wrote a note to him about the trees which was to go down in the boat to day. I felt quite disappointed at not finding Cousin Mary & Nannie here I had felt almost certain that they would be but now I do not think it at all likely. I cannot tell you how I miss you all I feel lost, and now that Israel has gone it will seem worse than it has been. but then there is one thing it makes home look more inviting. Uncle & Aunt are