IN MEMORIAM.

JAMES RIDER RANDALL.
1839-1908.

The battle hymn with stately rhythmic flow,
Hath hurled defiance to th' invading foe;
Hath cheered the weary soldier on his way,
Imparting strength and courage day by day.
With steady step he marches to the fight,
Well knowing that his Cause is just and right.
No more the campfire's seen, the drum beat's heard,
Nor rifles crack' nor the commanding word:
For thee the din of warfare now must cease,
Since thou art called to thine eternal peace.
Lanier, Key, Poe and Miles have gone before.
Waiting to greet thee on the distant shore.
These Maryland have given unto Fame.
And now, with them, is linked our Randall's glorious name.

H. C. W., in "The Sun."

MARYLAND NEWS.

Col. James Rider Randall, author of "Maryland, My Maryland," died in Augusta, Georgia, aged 69 years.

Hon. Aaron R. Anders, Republican leader in the House of Delegates, is ill with Bright's disease at his home in Frederick city.

Rev. J. Spangler Kieffer, pastor of Zion Reformed Church, Hagerstown, on Sunday, celebrated the fortieth anniversary of his pastorate.

Bears have been disturbing the farmers, living in the vicinity of Roadside, at the foot of South Mountain, Washington county. Two have been seen. An organized effort will be made to locate and kill them.

While crossing the railroad track at Havre De Grace, Mrs. Sallie E. Holloway fell and broke her leg. She was going to the home of her son, W. E. Holloway, who a few hours before had his leg broken at his sawmill.

It has been announced that Frederick City has been selected for the meeting on March 26 of the Third Interstate Biennial Young Men's Christian Association Convention, for Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia and the District of Columbia.

On October 1st, 1907, Mr. John C. Hutchinson was killed in an automobile wreck at Stony Run bridge, Merryman's lane, Baltimore. His widow and children brought suit against the Mayor and City Council. In the United States Circuit Court the plaintiffs were awarded $8500 damages.

At about 1.30 o'clock, Saturday morning, Mr. George L. Billups, proprietor of a hotel near Baltimore, and Mrs. Mamie Kahl, wife of Tilghman Kahl, were instantly killed by the wrecking of an automobile, driven by Mr. Leo H. M. Schaab, who escaped with minor injuries.

The meanest thief has been located. He is in Hagerstown. Nicholas Haines, an old soldier, is an epileptic. As he was taking a walk, he fell on North Locust street. While lying unconscious, a thief cut out his pocket and stole his pocketbook, containing $14, part of his pension money recently received from the Government.

GENERAL NEWS.

J. P. Morgan & Co. have denied the report that they have secured control of the Equitable Life Assurance Society through the purchase of the stock held by Thos. F. Ryan.

All moving picture shows in Mobile, Alabama, have been closed by order of the mayor, following the inspection made by the chief of the fire department and the announcement that exits were dangerous.

A preposterous story has been circulated that the Brazilian police, through information received from Germany and France, have uncovered an anarchistic plot to destroy part of the American fleet in the harbor of Rio Janiero.

Alarming reports regarding the health of Pope Pius were allayed by the official statement made by Dr. Petacci that his Holiness is suffering from an attack of gout and that there is nothing serious in his condition.

The miners who were buried in a mine at Ely, Nevada, December 4th, 1907, were released on Sunday last, after having been entombed for 42 days. Through a six inch water pipe they have been communicated with by telephone and supplied with food during their imprisonment.

The Imperial Underwear Manufactory, Scranton, Pa., was destroyed by fire. The building had a single exit, and only one fire escape, that was out of order. Eighty-five girls were employed in the building. Four are dead and twenty seriously injured, several of them fatally. The financial loss is $80,000.

Hon. Charles Emory Smith, for more than a quarter of a century editor of the Philadelphia Press, died on Sunday of heart disease, following an attack of grip, aged 65 years. Mr. Smith was appointed Post Master General in 1898 by President McKinley, to succeed Gen. James A. Gary, of Maryland.

The old Kurtz property, corner Braddock and Cork streets, Winchester, Virginia, known as "Washington's Headquarters," perhaps the oldest house in the city, has been purchased by the city of Winchester for $2460. Plans are on foot to make it a memorial building to be filled with relics of the Revolutionary and Civil Wars.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS.

A peculiar dust shower is reported from the Gulf of Mexico. A powder-like flour fell on the deck of the steamer Monterey, and became sticky after falling. It was not of volcanic origin as their was no grit in its composition.

Another warning against pistol carrying comes from Elkins, W. Va. Charles Williams leaned over to kiss his little daughter goodbye before going to his work. A large pistol slipped from its holster and was discharged. The ball passed through the child's head.

Counterfeiters have been working the catholic churches in Brooklyn, N. Y. They drop bogus half dollars in the collection plates and take good quarters in change. One church is said to have taken in $16 in counterfeit half dollars last Sunday. The priests in a number of churches have notified collectors to give no change hereafter.

The bank robbers, who opened the safe of the First National Bank, Hattisburg, Miss., have been brought back from Seattle, Washington, where they were captured. They have made a unique confession. The cashier of the bank is a sleep walker. They frequently watched him as he entered the bank sleeping, and finally got from him the combination, opened the safe and left him asleep in the bank.

At the annual banquet of the G. A. R., at Carrollton, Ill., Dr. J. B. Hayes was making an address. As he pointed to a vacant chair, draped in memory of J. B. Nolton, whose death occurred in 1905, he said that there had not been a death in the ranks since that time, and added "But the vacant chair is the victor." Then he paused and sank into his seat unconscious. He was carried to his home and died in a few hours of heart failure.

The "Prince of Pilsen" company played at Danville, Virginia, last Friday night. The members of the company stopped at the Morgan Hotel. One of the chorus girls would not pay the charge of twenty-five cents for fire in her room. After their departure, L. B. Morgan, proprietor, discovered that she had burned the bureau drawers for fuel. Only a few iron knobs and a pile of ashes in the fireplace remained to tell the story.

At the Pondtown sandbank, near Mont Alto, Pa., the men were thawing dynamite. A stick held in the hands of Samuel Ickes caught fire. Bully Groom, an experienced sandminer took the stick in his hands and with a knife tried to cut away the burning end, as he had frequently done. The dynamite exploded. Groom had both hands blown off, and the knife blade was imbedded in his arm. Ickes' nose was torn off and he was otherwise lacerated about the head. Irvin Hartsock's legs were badly torn and sand and stone driven into his body.

An Enjoyable Party.

On Thursday evening, 9th inst., a very enjoyable party was given in honor of Mr. George Murphy, at his home in Freedom district. Many of his warm friends gathered and in a social and pleasant manner spent a few hours. The host and hostess entertained their friends in a very agreeable manner. At 11 o'clock refreshments were served, after which the guests left for their homes bidding farewell to their generous host and hostess. Among the many present were: Mr. George Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pool, Mr. Peyton Pool, Misses Martha Pool, Maud Maoahan, Edith Smith, Blanch Smith, Beulah Shauck, Cleedie Gibson, Bessie Lockard, Stella Lockard, Amelia Steffee, Eva Ward, Icydean Easton, Minnie Pool, Katie Murphy, Millie Miller, Maggie Grimes, Annie Stocksdale, Elsie Easton, Clara Smith, Edith Myres, Grace Glover, Dona Pool, Mary Ford, Olive Pool, Messrs. Miller; asst. sec'y., Wm. Miller; treas., Geo. C. Albaugh; librarians, Misses Hilda Miller and Alice Blocher; organist, Miss Miller and Samuel I. Hoffacker; singing leader, H. C. Frank.

Mrs. Geo. Kerchner gave a delightful quilting bee, to a number of her friends and an enjoyable day was spent. A sumptuous dinner was served and later refreshments to which all did ample justice. Those in the merry quilting party were Mrs. George Kerchner, Mrs. Aaron Redding, Mrs. Isaiah Miller, Mrs. H. K. Miller, Mrs. Howard Hare, Mrs. John K. Miller, Mrs. Senora Bortner, Mrs. Elizabeth Richarts, Mrs. Rosa Richarts, Mrs. Geo. Barber, Mrs. Frank Sandruck, Mrs. Theo. Miller and Mrs. Amanda Lessner.

Mr. Rinehart Hoffnagle in out again after having been indisposed with the grip.

Mrs. Lewis Schaefer and daughter, Miss Anita, visited relatives in Baltimore on Monday of last week.

The friends of Miss Myrtle Rabenstine, were very sorry to learn of her death, which occurred on the 11th inst., at her home at Hanover, Pa., after a short illness. She was formerly of this place and had many friends here who tender their heartfelt sympathy to the family in this sad affliction.

Mrs. Henry M. Miller is on the sick list.

Mr. Ivan Miller visited friends in Baltimore last week.

Mr. Geo. Rinehart, returned home after a week's visit among friends in Baltimore.

Quite a number of our folks attended the funeral of Miss Myrtle Rabenstine at Hanover.

Shipley Items.

Our citizens are quite busy getting firewood, feeding, plowing and hauling. Our public roads are very muddy some days and rough other times, caused by the alternate freezing and thawing.

Mr. Frank W. Shipley and two sons, William and Theodore, of Baltimore, visited Mr. C. H. Shipley, Mr. W's. father-in-law, last week for a few days.

Mr. Harry Owings, of Westminster, raised Mr. E. G. Shipley's wind pump, five feet higher last week. It was previously 45 ft. high.

The warm, sultry weather has caused much of our cribbed corn to mould. There seems to be much complaint about corn not keeping well.

Many are hoping for ice. Most of us are quite anxious to have our ice houses filled.

On the 2nd inst. many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, of Joe's Branch Valley, gathered at their home at early hour and passed a very pleasant evening. Messrs. Levi Zahn and William Edmondson entertained the guests by giving selections on their graphophones and Mr. Noah Edmondson entertained by giving selections on his roller organ. The time was spent in social discourse, music and games until a late hour, when refreshments were served in abundance to all present. Then came good wishes and pleasant farewells. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Reno Waltz, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Zahn, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Zahn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zahn, Messrs. Noah Edmonson, Dayton Waltz, William Edmonson, John O. Zahn, Herschel Barber, McKinley Waltz, William V. Barber, Marshall Waltz and Levi Zahn, Jr.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

NO. 4394 EQUITY.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, in Equity.

Mary A. Gibson, Plaintiff, vs. John Gibson, defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce A Vinculo Matrimonii by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The Bill states that the plaintiff is now a resident of Carroll county, Maryland, and the defendant a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and that they were married on the 25rd day of February, 1878, in Westminster, in Carroll county, Maryland; that, though the conduct of the plaintiff to the defendant has always been kind and faithful, the said defendant has without just cause or reason abandoned her, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than 8 years and is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties is beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation, and that said parties have two children.

It is thereupon this 3rd day of January, 1908, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll county in Equity that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll county, once in each of 4 successive weeks before the 3rd day of February 1908, giving notice to the said defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 24th day of February next, to show cause if any he has why a decree ought not be passed as prayed.
