This is St. Valentine's day and the mails are loaded with characteristic emblems, and some not at all in harmony with the character of this patron saint of lovers. Valentines—sentimental and comic—and cards ap-propriate to the day, are very numer-ous and add to the work of the post-offices and carriers in handling the mails.

Much valuable live stock and many farming imple-ments are thus advertised.

For the Sentinel.

Miss Jones Entertains.

At her home, Westminster, on the evening of the 8th inst., Miss Fannie Jones entertained a few of her friends in a very pleasant social way, with music, vocal and instrumental. Games followed, with enjoyable refreshments. Those present were, Misses Pansy V. Routzahn, Maud Manahan, Etta Bank-ard, Agnes Gorsuch, Lucille Gernand, Elsie Gernand, Lottie Troxell, Rena Pleagle, Fannie Fringer, Mrs. Sellman, Mrs. Routzahn, Messrs. Day, Wiley, Wright, Smith, Lewis, Phelps, Taylor and Routzahn.

Diffendal, of this city, who were com-ing home with the remains of their infant son, who died in Gassaway, W. Va. After the accident the railroad company did all in its power to relieve their mental suffering and provided a special train on which they reached this city shortly after midnight on the 6th. Mr. and Mrs. Diffendal were severely though not ser-iously bruised, and the company at once expressed its desire to make prompt and generous settlement for the injuries sustained. Mr. and Mrs. Diffendal met the corporation in the spirit in which the offer was made and have been paid $103.75.

The Evangelistic Services.

The special series of services at the Methodist Protestant Church, this city, has been steadily increasing in in-terest, and the church has been crowd-ed nightly by large congregations. Rev. William L. Mitchell, the evan-gelist, has presented the truth force-fully and sympathetically. The num-ber of conversions has not been large, but much good has been accomplished in the quickening of the spiritual life of Christians. Three services will be held on Sunday, the regular morning and evening services and a special service for men only at 3 o'clock, P. M. The men of the city are earnestly invited to attend the afternoon ser-vice. It is possible that the meetings will conclude on Sunday, but it is hop-ed that there will be such interest in the services of tonight and of the following day, that it shall be clearly demonstrated that they should be con-tinued during the coming week.

Books For All.

The Westminster Free Library is an assured fact. It has been in operation for several weeks and though the sel-ection of books has been limited to those secured from the Maryland Li-brary Association, about 75 volumes, it has been well patronized.

The Executive Committee has placed an order for about 125 volumes, which will be ready for circulation in a few days. In making its selection of new books, the committee was limited by the circumstances which had to be considered. The amount of money to be expended is very small, and variety in the character of literature provided is essential. A sufficiently large num-ber of books to meet the demand is necessary. If only new copyright books are procured, the number would be very small. Among the standard works upon which there is no copy-right there are many with which the younger generation should become familiar. With these two thoughts in mind the selection was made. About 25 copyright books, that have been published within the last two or three years, and 12 or 15 that have appeared within five or six years, have been or dered. With the means at command, an effort has been made to cover the ground of need and to provide something for every proper desire, and among the new books will be found a great variety, fiction, biography, trav-el, adventure, books for boys and books for girls as well as for older readers.

In addition to these, the Enoch Pratt Library has donated about 250 volumes. It is only fair to the public to make the statement that these have practically fulfilled their day of usefulness and are not fit for a very much longer term of service, but they are placed upon the shelves for the benefit of those who may wish to read them.

It is the purpose of the committee to add from time to time new books, as they come from the press, that should have a place in the library. A portion of the money left in the hands of the treasurer, or to any member of the ex-ecutive or canvassing committees. The library, at the rooms of the Country Club, will be open each Monday, from 7 to 8 P. M., Thursday, from 7 to 9 P. M., Saturday, from 2 to 4 P. M., for distribution of books to members and others who may be vouched for by members of the Association.

Song Recital.

The "SENTINEL man" is not a mu-sical critic and cannot employ technical language in commenting on the splen-did recital given by Mr. Frederic Mar-tin, basso, at Western Md. College, Alumni Hall, on the 7th inst. He can only say that it was "great." Mr. Mar-tin is a great big man, with a great big voice, and he knows how to use it to the delight of his auditors. At the close of the long program he was in as good voice as at the beginning, and to the vociferous applause following the last number, that would take no denial, he sang again. One of the numbers not on the arranged program, but sung by request, was that glorious bass solo from the "Messiah," "Why Do The Heathen Rage?" Miss Alice Rich, of the College faculty, was the accompan-ist, and Mr. Martin could not have ac-complished his splendid success with-out her help. The program was as fol-lows:

WEDDING BELLS.

Groshon-Weant.

Miss Rosa Arabella Weant, of Taney town, and Mr. John David Groshon, of Motter's Station, Frederick county, were married at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Frederick, on Tuesday, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. J. Gill. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Groshon went to Motter's Station, where they will make their home.

Payne-Erb.

A special to the Winchester, Va., Evening Star states that Mr. J. M. Payne, commissioner of revenue of Berkeley county, W. Va., and Mrs. Katharine Erb, of Berryville, Clarke county, Va., were married in that town last week. Mrs. Erb is the widow of the late Chrisopher Erb, a former well known resident of this county. Both bride and groom are ad-vanced in years.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

Dr. H. C. Morrison.

Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, formerly of this county, died at his home in Kansas City, Missouri, on the 7th inst., aged 64 years. Mrs. Morrison, Dr. Morrison's mother, was Miss Grimes, an aunt of Mr. E. O. Grimes, of this city, and of Mr. John E. Sen-seney, of Linwood. Dr. Morrison read medicine with the late Dr. William A. Mathias, father of Dr. John S. Mathi-as, this city, and was for several years associated with Dr. John F. Buffing-ton, in the practice of his profession, in New Windsor. About the year 1869 he located in Kansas City, Missouri, and engaged in the drug business, in which he has been very successful. After removing to Kansas City, he married Miss Carrie Morrison, who survives him. In the days of long ago, while Dr. Morrison was practicing in New Windsor, his cousins, Mr. Frank Grimes and Miss Margaret A. Grimes, and his intimate friend, Mr. Alexander McKenna, were all mem-bers of the same household. It is a remarkable and sad coincidence that these four friends have all passed away within two years, Mr. McKenna, at Buckeystown; Mr. Grimes, at the home of his brother, Mr. O. Grimes, of this city; Mrs. Margaret A. Grimes Russell, at Herndon, Va., and Dr. Morrison, in the West; and that though so far apart, the same disease, paralysis, caused the death of each.

Joshua Myers.

Many hearts were made sad by the announcement, on Saturday morning, 8th inst., that Mr. Joshua Myers, of Fountain Valley, had expired at an early hour of that day. Mr. Myers had been suffering with a severe attack of grip, became enfeebled by the disease and gradually sank under the suffer-ing and the infirmities of old age until death ensued. Mr. Myers was born in Pennsylvania in 1835, but spent most of his life in this county. He was mar-ried three times, his first wife having been a daughter of John and Eliza-beth Brilhart, of Bachman's Valley. By her four children survive—Mrs. U. J. Babylon, of Fountain Valley; Mrs. Wm. Wright, of Union Bridge; Miss Emma Myers, of Baltimore, and Mr. Edward Myers, of Pleasant Valley; also eleven grandchildren and one great grandchild. His second wife was Mrs. Abbie Butler, of Westminster, who died about nine years ago. The surviving wife was a Mrs. Fogle. In politics Mr. Myers was always a staunch Democrat and in religious af-filiations a member of St. Mary's Lu-theran Church, Silver Run. His funer-al took place at the latter place on Monday, 10th inst., and although the weather was bitterly cold the service was largely attended by sympathizing friends and relatives. The officiating ministers were Rev. J. O. Yoder at the church, and Elder Uriah Bixler at the house. The pallbearers were Messrs. George Harman, Wm. Wantz, Fred. Harver, Howard Wareheim, Claude Reifsnider and Jacob Fitze. Mr. Jas M. Stoner was funeral director.

Circuit Court.

The February term of the Circuit Court for this county, commenced on Tuesday morning, with Judge Chief Wm. H. Thomas and Associate Judge Wm. H. Forsythe, Jr., on the bench. Mr. R. B. Owings, is crier, Mr. C. Carroll Henry, messenger, Messrs. Frederick Zahn and Philip Wagoner, bailiffs at the gates and Mr. Christian Rather, bailiff to the jury.

On Monday no other business than the call of the docket was transacted.

On Tuesday, with Judge Forsythe sitting, the appeal case of Lester Pat-erson vs. Daniel B. Bosley, appeal from John T. Hill, J. P., was tried before the Court. Judgment affirmed with costs. Chas. E. Fink, Esq., for appel-lant. J. Milton Reifsnider, Esq., for ap-pellee.

State of Maryland vs. Howard Zentz, disorderly conduct; plea of guilty con-fessed; sentence suspended and tra-verser recognized in the sum of $100 to appear and be of good behaviour for one year.

On Wednesday, Court was called and the jurors discharged until Thursday morning.

Thursday and Friday.

Hitchcock & Devilbiss vs. Harry Dell; action of assumpsit on promis-sory note; on trial before jury. Mr. Reifsnider for plaintiffs, Mr. Steele for defendant.

The School for The Deaf and Dumb.

The SENTINEL has received from Prof. Chas. W. Ely, principal of the Maryland School for the Deaf and Dumb, Frederick, the biennial report and catalogue of that institution. The report of the President and Visitors pays the principal a well deserved compliment in saying that the credit for the success of the school "is due to his ability and thorough fitness for the position to which he was dedicated his superior mental endowments and his uncommon aptitude for the special work he has chosen." For the support of the school $58,767.57 was expended during the biennium. An appropria-tion of $35,000 for each of the next two years is applied for. The whole num-ber in school during the two years was 136. Of this number 41 were new ad-missions. The pupils from this county are Verda A. Beeuhler, Howard F. Hood, Mary C. Myers, Burgess N. Reed, Lil-lie E. Shaffer, and R. Sylvia Troyer, and Roland L Stultz, formerly of this county, now of Frederick.

Minstrel Carnival.

A minstrel carnival was given in Odd Fellows' Hall, New Windsor, on Fri-day evening last, which was a great success. The hall was crowded and it is estimated that about 500 people were present. The minstrel company which gave the carnival is composed of twelve male members and a lady who presides at the piano.

The program was in two parts, the first consisting of solos, duets, quartets, jokes and comic poetry, and the sec-ond of three comic plays, several of the latest songs, a negro sermon and a funny monologue. There was not the slightest vulgarity in the show nor anything to offend the taste of the most fastidious.

It is the purpose of the minstrels to give the carnival in several of the ad-joining towns, in the near future.

Winfield Academy Debate.

The people of Winfield were pleas-antly entertained at the Academy Hall, Saturday evening, by a spirited de-bate. The question, "Resolved that an education can be gained better by reading than by traveling," was de-bated, affirmatively by Arthur M. Zile and Rev. W. F. Carey; negatively by E. E. Hearn, the principal, and Grover Stem, of Union Bridge College. Mr. Stem volunteered for the debate a few minutes before the time, as one of the scheduled debaters was absent. He deserves great credit for the masterful way in which he handled the question without previous preparation. The vote of the judges was two to one in favor of the negative. Mr. Tony B. Fleming was the presiding officer. De-lightful music was rendered by Miss Addie Barnes and Mr. A. M. Zile sang. After the debate Miss Minnie Sayers and Messrs. Walter Sayers and E. E. Hearn recited.

On the 22nd inst. the school will give an entertainment consisting of short plays and appropriate music. The pro-ceeds of the debates and entertain-ments go to the library fund. The principal is endeavoring to establish a library of good reference books and standard literature. He would be pleased to receive contributions of books from any one who may desire to help the school in that way.

A few days ago Congressman J. F. C. Talbott, at the request of the principal, presented to the academy a large wall map of the United States and Territor-ies. It is a very useful and handsome ornament for the school room.
