My dearest Mother

You will I know be glad to hear that we are to have service at Oweasville this afternoon Uncle James got Mr Beckwith to come there. I am truly glad as I do not see how I can very well go in the morning on account of the baby, her bath comes just at the time for us to start or indeed rather later. Harry has gone this morning to South River. I was very glad as you may immagine to get your letter last night and I wish you could have seen Cornelia's face as I read ~~Dear~~ father's to
