1900 January 14th

desires me to give five kisses to Grandma five to Grandpa one to Effie another to his Papa and another to his Mamma.

I am very glad to hear that you think of coming down before the Bohlens and suppose I may look for you in about a month. Have you and Cousin Emily come to any decision as yet? But I must stop now as I want to write to Annie Perot to night. I do feel so sorry to hear of her being so sick. Did Cousin Emily receive a letter from me a week ago?

Monday morning

I have only time to add that we had a good night and Mary is better this morning. Harry says if you did not send Uncle G's account in the box please send it by mail.

Yours in haste
Mary H. Murray
