II, Sec. 6.—The Republican county committee, or the Republican central committee for the counties in such counties where that committee constitutes the local county committee, shall have the general management of party affairs in the counties, and shall fix the times and places and manner for the holding of primary elections to send delegates to county conventions, except in so far as the manner of holding the same may be regulated by the State Central Committee, the Congressional Committees or Judicial Committees as to such county conventions as may be held for the selection of delegates to State, Congressional or Judicial Conventions, respectively.

About as pernicious a piece of local legislation, in some respects, as was passed by the General Assembly at its recent session, was the liquor license bill for Baltimore county. Increasing the license tax served as a blind for a provision, in substance, that only persons residing in the immediate vicinity of a place where liquor is sold shall become informers against the liquor seller who may violate the laws governing his traffic. This means that the saloons at Highlandtown and the riverside resorts near Baltimore, may be kept open and do a flourishing business on Sunday, may be converted into gambling houses and otherwise set the laws at defiance, without fear of punishment. The flagrant abuses perpetrated at the dives in question calls for stern suppression, but the influence of Mr. J. F. C. Talbott, the Democratic boss of the county, was sufficiently potent to provide a means for their protection in the legislation which was enacted as a sort of sop to the temperance people of the county.

The high standing of Secretary Taft with residents of the Philippine Islands was aptly illustrated by the action of a Democratic convention at Manila, last week. The convention was called to elect delegates to the National convention of the Democratic party, to be held at Denver, Col., to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States. An overzealous member of the convention, probably moved by the almost certain nomination of Mr. Taft by the Republicans as their candidate for the Presidency, introduced a resolution condemning the Secretary's administration of Philippine affairs when he was Governor of the Islands. But partisan as the convention was, it was not ready to go on record in favor of a resolution that would have been severely condemned by the people of the Philippines, generally, and hence it was voted down by a majority of the delegates. That action was tantamount to an indorsement of Gov. Taft's administration, and as such is a valuable contribution to the Presidential campaign of 1908.

An intelligent young Westminster Democrat remarked to the senior editor of the Sentinel, a few days ago, that in the legislation of the recent General Assembly the question with the majority on any bill introduced was: "Will it benefit the Democratic party; not will it benefit the people." That young man has higher ideas of public duty than the tricksters of his party who have been entrusted with power by its voters.

Unless President Seth, of the Maryland Senate, now that that body has adjourned, shall soon make public some reply to a letter addressed to him several months ago, by Ex Governor Warfield, he will deserve to stand as the worst discredited public man in the State. Mr. Seth, by a series of interrogatories directed to the Ex-Governor, in a speech on the floor of the Senate, indirectly charged that gentleman with certain acts of a discreditable character. Mr. Warfield replied in a published statement which showed the flimsy character of the charges against him and in which he asked Mr. Seth for a bill of particulars in writing. This was forthcoming, but, though some of the charges were reiterated and others added, the document was not of a very convincing nature, but dealt largely in innuendo. The Ex-governor, in righteous wrath, then addressed a communication to the Senate's president, in which that gentleman was held up to public scorn as a calumniator and wilful falsifier of the truth, Mr. Warfield pointing out the alledged flagrant mendacity of Mr. Seth's charges and declaring that that gentleman knew his statements were false when he made them. Continued silence on Mr. Seth's part will be a practical admission that Mr. Warfield was correct in impeaching his veracity.

VETOED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The Governor of this State is empowered by the constitution to veto particular items in appropriation bills, without rendering nugatory all the provisions of such measures. In pursuance of this authority Governor Crothers has eliminated portions of some appropriations and the entire amounts of others, passed at the recent session of the Legislature. Among the items vetoed is $25,000 of the $50,000 appropriated to Western Maryland College for the erection of a much needed library building. This means that the college will get for this purpose only $25,000 for the two ensuing years, instead of that amount for each year. Other items vetoed are: $11,500 for Lutz painting, $600 for Cecil Calvert's portrait, $600 for Montgomery county roads, $25,000 for Annapolis Hospital, leaving $25,000; $50,000 reduction from Springfield Hospital, $30,000 from Maryland Agricultural College, $1,000 from New Windsor College, $25,000 from Maryland School for Boys, $20,000 from Maryland School for the Blind, $10,000 from Eudowood Tuberculosis Institution, $15,000 from Peninsular Hospital, $20,000 from Franklin Square Hospital, $4,000 from Fifth Regiment Armory, $600 from appropriation for new carpets and furniture for Senate Chamber and House of Delegates, and a number of others. These are all special appropriations and the vetoes do not affect the regular appropriations to any of the institutions named. It is now stated, in relation to the Eudowood veto that it does not cover the amount named, but only a small part of it.
