FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1908.

The tax rate in Baltimore county for 1908 is 75 cents in $100 and the expense account levied for is $810,900, or about $9 per capita of the population. Government comes high under boss rule in that locality.

John D. Rockefeller's vast fortune does not save him from serious trouble. He is exceedingly fond of his grandchildren, Fowler and Muriel McCormick, and now seems to be in mortal dread of injury to them by the Black Hand, an organization of Italian blackmailers, which has recently committed some deeds of desperate violence for the purpose of extorting money from men of wealth. The organization now threatens the McCormick children unless Mr. Rockefeller accedes to their demand for a large sum of money. Mr. Rockefeller went to church with the children on Sunday, but they were attended by a body guard of six private detectives. Muriel started to run in childish glee but was promptly called back and forced to stay in company with her brother and grandfather, under the protection of the detectives. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," and uneasy is the lot of the richest man in the country, who cannot go to church unguarded by detectives. After all too great riches may be a curse in more ways than one.

Little Black Orphans Saved To Usefulness.

On the first page of the SENTINEL this week is reproduced, from the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, under the above caption, a story from the pen of Mr. William Buehler Seabrook, city editor and special writer of the Chronicle. It is reproduced, not only because the writer, who is a son of the junior editor and grandson of the senior editor of the SENTINEL, has many friends in this city and county, but because the story itself throws light on the country's greatest problem. It will be a revelation to some northern minds to learn that such an article by a member of the editorial staff of the oldest southern daily finds place in its columns. Only by residence in the South can one learn the true relation of the better element of the white and negro races, the one to the other. The story brings out strongly many traits of the negro character, and indicates the feeling of the true Southerner toward men like Uncle Dan McHorton, who in his spirit of love and devotion to duty will remind many of our older readers of one of the worthiest men who ever lived in this city, the late John Baptist Snowden.

JOHNSON REPUDIATES DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

C. Porter Johnson, former Illinois State Senator and Democratic candidate for Congress, at an informal reception in St. Louis, Mo., has renounced his allegiance to the Democratic party. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat gives the substance of his address, as follows:

"I was reared a Democrat," Johnson said, "and have always affiliated with that party. I am now 45 years of age. I have seen the great party leaders," and he referred to Tilden, Hendricks, Daniel, Manning, Patterson, Morton, David B. Hill and others, "give way before a grafter in one state, a gambler in another, a gas trust representative in Illinois, a Prohibitionist in Missouri, and a d—m fool in Arkansas. The Democratic party today is the party of one man. It is thoroughly saturated with Populism and other isms, and is drifting on a sea of uncertainty.

"Under the administration of strong men we have seen the country rise out of the throes of a civil war to take its place among the foremost nations of the earth. And I say to you now that I will support the Republican nominee for president.

His remarks were heartily cheered by the Republicans present. Johnson is widely known in Illinois, Oklahoma and Missouri for his eloquence.

At the annual election of church officers the following were elected for the term of two years: Mr. Jacob Lawyer, elder; Mr. Hollie Myers, deacon of the Lutheran congregation; and Mr. David Frock, elder, and Wm. R. Unger and Harry Myers, deacons of the Reformed congregation.

Miss Sallie Lawyer is having her house repainted. When completed it will make a fine appearance. Mr. Jos. Hahn is doing the work.

Mrs. Emma Fowler, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lawyer.

It is reported here that a Sunday School convention will be held in a grove near this place some time in July, probably on Thursday, the 30th, of which due notice will be given. It is hoped that the county will be well represented. It is the earnest desire of the members of the executive committee to aid every Sunday School in the good work. We understand the motto of the International Sunday School Association is "The Gospel to the whole world as speedily as possible."

Melrose Items.

The "Pewee" snow has not yet, up to April 21st, made its appearance, but a strong cold northwest wind is blowing. A man told your correspondent he walked over his wife's newly made garden one morning recently and the ground was frozen so hard it did not give way, yet no vegetation was injured.

Our printer sends his magazine regularly to far away Japan, Austria, Hawaii and other distant places.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos G. Fair, of Glen Rock, Pa., and Mrs. Elmira Schue, of Hanover, Pa., were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ziegler on Friday of last week.

One day last week a valuable horse belonging to Mr. James W. Martin, of Bachman's Valley, which was apparently in good health, became sick and died in less than an hour. Cause not known.

Grandma Riffle, of Bachman's Valley, died suddenly, at the home of her son, of the infirmities of old age on Tuesday last. Her age was 93 years, 11 months and 15 days.

M. C. I. Notes.

Mr. Albert Wine arrived Friday last and stayed until Tuesday evening.

Miss Savilla Reiley, of Washington, D. C., is our last student.

Many of the students went home or visited their friends over Easter.

A number of the teachers and students attended the District Meeting at Rocky Ridge, Tuesday.

Miss Anna Hutchinson reports having had a pleasant visit with her friends in Frederick and Middletown Valley.

The Alumni Association of M. C. I. has had several business meetings lately, preparatory to its annual meeting here in May.

Mr. Chas. Resser's visit home was saddened by the unexpected death of his mother. His parents had changed location this spring for the improvement of Mrs. Resser's health.

Owing to the large number absent over Easter the Emersonian Literary Society did not render a program last Friday evening, but by permission of the Hiawathian Society they will give a program on the 24th.

Personal.

Mr. Henry Little, of Frederick, visited relatives in this city, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Keefer, of Baltimore, are visiting their son, Mr. William N. Keefer, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Turfle, of Winchester, Va., spent the Easter holidays with Mr. T's. mother in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Gorsuch and daughter, of Waynesboro, Pa., are visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. Reuben Shipley and daughter, of Patapsco, spent the Easter holidays with her sister, Mrs. Harry C. Davis, of East Main street, this city.

Mr. William Weeks and sister, Miss Sarah, of Washington, D. C., spent Easter with their father and his family, this city.

A marriage license was issued at Towson, on Wednesday to Mr. Robert H. Dietz, of Woodlawn, and Miss Annie F. Knight, of Finksburg.

Miss Molly Sachs, of Harrisburg, Pa., a sister of Mr. Louis Sachs, will spend several months here, at her brother's, 73 E. Main St.

Mrs. Philip Brock and children, after spending some time visiting in Virginia, have returned to their home in this city.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore, yesterday, to Mr. Truman C. Smith and Miss Bessie L. Bankard, both of New Windsor.

DEATH WAS ON HIS HEELS.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: An attack of Pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come, "says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. 50c.

MARRIED

At Reformed Church parsonage, Carroll Place, April 20th, 1908, by Rev. Jas. B. Stonesifer, Mr. Clifford Burton, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Ida M. Dolan, of Westminster.

DIED.

In Baltimore, April 16th, 1908, Robert A., beloved husband of Esther V. Pruett.

In this city, April 19th, 1908, Maria E., widow of Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Benson, in her 74th year.

In Uniontown, April 18th, 1908, George H. Routson, in his 73 year.

At the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, April 22nd, 1908, George E. Sharrer, of Westminster, aged 56 years and 9 days.

Died, April 10th, 1908.

Esther, widow of John B. Baker.

She saw a hand we did not see,
Which beckoned her away;
She heard a voice we did not hear,
Which told her not to stay.

What is home without our mother?
'Tis a cottage robbed of flowers,
Where our broken, bleeding hearts,
Have spent many lonely hours.

"Good night" dear mother, sweetly rest
Until the dawn shall come;
We'll say "Good morning," when we reach
Our Father's promised home.

By the Family.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Julia A. Ingels, who died April 19th, 1906, two years ago.

The last farewell was spoken
Two years ago to-day,
Our family circle broken
When dear mother passed away.

Oh dear mother, we loved you so!
How sad it was to part,
And just one thought of your sweet face
Will cause the tears to start.

Two weary years have passed, dear mother,
Yet it seems but yesterday,
Since we saw them place your form
Beneath the cold and silent clay.

Oh a mother, who is like her,
No one on earth can take her place,
And we will try to heal our sorrow
Till again we see her sweet face.

By her daughter, Maggie.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, Peyton H. Conaway, who died April 26th, 1906, just two years ago, this 26th day of April, 1908.

Loved in life in death remembered
Oh, how sudden was the summons,
Time was too short to say farewell
To those he loved so well.

Before the evening had arrived
Oh, how sore our hearts had bled;
For he who left us full of life
We were told that he was dead.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhood's bloom,
Torn from the hearts that loved him
To sleep in the silent tomb.

Flowers may wither,
Flowers may die
Everyone may forget him
But never will I.

By his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Conaway.

In loving remembrance of our daughter, Susie Caple, who departed this life one year ago, April 21st, 1907.

In her health she sought the Saviour,
In affliction He was by her side,
And in death he sent his angel
Safely her spirit to Heaven guide.

When her voice grew weak and feeble
And she no more on earth could sing,
Then she whispered, "Blessed Jesus
Soon with the angels I will sing."

By her Mother.

Farewell, farewell, our sister dear,
We've spent one sad and lonely year;
You left us with a bleeding heart
That sad morning you and we did part.

She left a memory fair and sweet,
Its fragrance can never die;
Her life was brief yet still complete
When she was called on high.

And now our home circle is broken
And the parting has filled us with pain;
We hold as a glorious token
The bright hope of meeting again.

By her Sister.

SHIPLEY.—In loving but sad remembrance of our beloved mother, who departed this life one year ago to-day, April 21st, 1907.

Farewell, farewell, our mother dear,
We've spent one sad and lonely year,
You left us with a bleeding heart,
That sad, sad morning we did part.

Our hearts are sad and lonely yet,
Our grief too deep to tell;
But we hope the time will later be
That we will with thee dwell.

By her daughter, Ursula Wilson.

Home is not home, mother's not there,
Angels have taken her out of our care;
We have loved her, but God loved her more,
He's taken her away to that bright, happy shore.

By her son, Brodlie Shipley.

Sleep, mother, sleep, and take thy rest,
God called thee home, He thought it best,
It was hard indeed to part with thee,
But God's strong arm supported thee.

By her daughter, Henrietta Shipley.

Our dear mother now has gone to rest,
Beneath the tree of life,
She leans upon the Saviour's breast,
So free from pain and strife,
It seems to us unjust
To lay her in the cold damp clay
To moulder into dust.

By her daughter, Mrs. Rachel Wilson.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Far away from care and pain,
May she rest in Jesus' keeping,
For we hope to meet again.

By her son, Bob A. Shipley.

She will never be forgotten,
Never shall her memory fade,
Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger,
Round the grave where she is laid.

In the cold, silent graveyard,
In the narrow casket bed,
They placed our dear mother,
With the peaceful dead.

By her son, Matthew Shipley.

NEW SPRING MODELS

IN SCHLOSS FINE CLOTHES FOR MEN

The Adonis
Copyright 1908 by Schloss Bros. & Co. Fine Clothes Makers Baltimore and New York

Everything New for.. Spring

Here are the swell new Clothes for Spring; different from the ordinary; right up-to-the-minute in style;—just the things a young fellow wants, to be well-dressed

Fashions have changed, this year. The suit you had last season won't do. You'll have to have a new Spring Suit very soon, even if not now,—so why not come in to-day and look over our new goods, anyway, while you can get your choice of the best and have the pleasure of wearing it the whole season? Our lines are complete now; see them before the best things are taken. Come now!

Among our best Suits is a splendid collection from Schloss Bros. & Co., the great Master-Tailors of Baltimore and New York. We were fortunate in buying early and so have been able to secure the very best of this maker's stock.

THE "ADONIS" FOR YOUNG MEN

Two of these swell Schloss models are shown here—or rather two slightly different Suits of the same model—the famous "Adonis." This is the Schloss specialty for Young Men, a class of garments entirely different from the ordinary ready-for-wear Clothes and especially designed to give that snappy up-to-date appearance so much desired. These Suits come in both single- and double-breasted shapes and all possible combinations of good cloth, color, shade and pattern. Full of little distinguishing marks of good taste and good fashion that you could not duplicate at a tailor's for twice the price. Our special offer $10 to $25

Besides the "Adonis"—a model, by the way, that has made a great hit among the colleges—there are the "Royal," "Imperial," "Baltimore" and many other new models, some of them quiet and conservative, others more extreme. While we make a special effort to provide the very latest things for Young Men, we by no means forget the needs of the older ones, or those who are less particular about leading the fashion than of having well-made, well-fitting, becoming patterns. We can provide for the needs of every man, no matter what his taste, size $10 to $25 proportions, or pocketbook. Come and see for yourself.

Western Maryland College
WESTMINSTER, Md.
42nd Year Opens September 16th, 1908.
PERFECTLY SAFE,
where your sons and daughters are surrounded by the best moral and religious influences; where pure mountain air and water keeps them healthful and where new buildings equipped in modern fashion house them in comfort.
WISELY PLANNED
for both sexes, but reciting in separate classes; making EDUCATION its great business, and keeping athletic and social matters incidental; reducing the cost so as to reach the largest number, but tolerating no student who will not study.
THOROUGH,
offering three separate courses for the degree of A. B., one with Greek and two without; well equipped Scientific Building; Gymnasium and a Faculty of twenty-one specialists.
OF GOOD REPORT.
You will find our students everywhere, ask them. Without large endowments or splendid gifts from the rich we have slowly built up a College whose only claim is the good work it does, and this has kept it growing for forty years
Rev. T. H. LEWIS, D. D., LL. D.,
