MEMORIAL DAY.

The Nation, North and South, honors itself in honoring its sons "who gave the last full measure of their devotion" to the cause they loved, and who, having "crossed over the river," now "sleep beneath the shade of the trees" in every God's Acre in the land. Of all the memorial days we celebrate, none is more sacred, none more filled with hallowed memories than this one "Memorial Day," the day when to the soldier's grave as to a holy shrine are all hearts turned. History has recorded the deeds of many a gallant leader but is comparatively silent as to the brave and faithful private. But on this one day, annually recurring, rank is forgotten, and on every soldier's grave is reverently placed the wreath of flowers and the flag he loved, because he was a soldier. So numerous are these graves, that a monumental shaft, recording deeds of valor cannot be reared above each private soldier's dust. At the head of 152,103 graves in National cemeteries alone stand simple marble slabs with the single word "Unknown," for of the 353,385 soldiers who wore the blue and are buried in the eighty-three National cemeteries, almost one half sleep in nameless graves. And countless thousands both of those who wore the blue and of those who wore the gray await the sound of the trump, that shall call them to their crowning, in every great city's cemeteries and in country churchyards.

It is well that the Nation decks these graves with flowers, but since a monument cannot be erected above every private soldier's grave, would it not be well if every State and every county in each State should rear such a shaft to "the private soldier" and thus in honoring all do honor unto each.

In his long residence in the South the writer of this editorial was not more strongly impressed by any vital characteristic of the people of the Southland than their love and devotion to the memory of her soldier sons. In the beautiful city of Augusta, Georgia, on Broad street just before the Chronicle office stands a lofty monumnet erected by the city. On this monument "above brigadier general, major general, lieutenant general, and full general, yes, upon its very summit, stands the manly form of a private soldier of the Confederate army." In the centre of many a county seat in the South, the most conspicuous object is the monument erected by the people of the county to its soldier dead, and the time is not far distant when no county town will be without such a tribute of devotion to those who have gone, and such an object lesson to the young of coming generations.

Thus the Southland presents to the Nation an example worthy of emulation throughout its length and breadth, until in evey county of every State, from the Northern border to the gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Golden Gate, the soldier, who "Came for Freedom's cause, and died for Right," shall be thus worthily honored.

FOR GOOD ROADS.

Merchants & Manufacturers Association Takes the Initiative—Meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, Saturday, May 30, At 3 P. M.

Pursuant to the call published in the SENTINEL and Advocate last week, the stockholders of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association met at the office of Smith & Reifsnider, this city, on Monday night, and elected the following Board of Directors: Messrs C. C. Gorsuch, T. W. Mather, Jr., Fred D. Miller, O. D. Gilbert, Jos. W. Smith, F. C. Sharrer, E. D. Whitmore, F. Thomas Babylon, M. E. Walsh.

Immediately after the meeting of the stockholders, the directors met and elected the following officers: Mr. C. C. Gorsuch, president; Mr. T. W. Mather, Jr., vice-president; Mr. F. Z. Miller, secretary-treasurer; M. E. Walsh, Esq., counsel.

Much consideration was given to plans looking to the operation of the shirt factory, owned by the association, on Bond street, this city, and Messrs C. C. Gorsuch, T. W. Mather, Jr., and F. D. Miller were appointed a committee to secure a tenant for the factory as speedily as possible.

It was further decided to sell a few shares of stock additional to that which has already been subscribed and paid in. The stock already subscribed is in the hands of a large number of the citizens of the county, but it is desired that every one who has not already subscribed shall have the opportunity to become a shareholder in this very important enterprise, which has in the past paid out in wages tens of thousands of dollars. In order that there might be a wide distribution of stock, the original value per share, only Five Dollars, is adhered to. The following committee was appointed to solicit stock subscriptions: Messrs. F. Thos. Babylon, F. D. Miller, S. C. Stoner and John H. Cunningham. Our citizens should not wait to be called upon by these gentlemen, but should call upon one or another of them and subscribe to one or more shares of stock.

GOOD ROADS

Perhaps the most important business to come before the directorate was the consideration of the question of good roads for Carroll county. In view of the fact that the Roads Commission of the State, having in charge the distribution of the appropriation of $5,0000,00 in the building of roads in the State, must know the wishes of the people in the several counties, in order to intelligent action, and because every citizen should be interested in this matter of prime importance, The Merchants and Manufacturers Association, representing as it does every interest in the community, through its Board of Directors, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Merchants and Manufacturers Association of Westminster, Md., that the State Roads Commission should take into consideration the unimproved roads leading into Westminster in the distribution of the State appropriation of $5,000,000 for good roads, because Westminster is the county seat, centrally located in the county."

In view of the fact that every citizen of city and county should be interested and should be given an opportunity to manifest that interest in order that through concerted action the result desired may be secured, it was determined to call a public meeting to be held at Odd Fellows' Hall, Westminster, on Saturday, May 30th, 1908, at 3 o,clock P. M., immediately upon the conclusion of the Memorial Day services.

The following named gentlemen were appointed to take charge of the meeting in furtherance of the above resolution: Dr. J. W. Hering, Dr. Chas. Billingslea, Messrs. J. W. Smith, B. F. Crouse, T. Herbert Shriver, S. K. Herr, Chas. E. Fink, Theo. F. Englar, J. Milton Reifsnider, Geo. R. Gehr, Samuel Roop, Guy W. Steele, Wm. L. W. Seabrook, Joseph D. Brooks, Judge James A. C. Bond, Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis, Dr. S. Simpson and Dr. Geo. E. Baughman.

Messrs. Joseph W. Smith, M. E. Walsh, W. L. Seabrook, D. L. Farrar, W. N. Keefer, and F. D. Miller were appointed a committee to make all necessary arrangements, for the meeting. This committee has sent out the followng call:

To the Citizens of Carroll County: A meeting in the interest of good roads in Carroll county in the distribution of the State appropriation for good roads will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall, Westminster, Saturday, May 30th, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Every citizen of Carroll county is invited to attend this meeting. Do not fail to attend and invite your friends.

By order of
The Merchants and Manufacturers Association.

Governor Crothers and the State Roads Commission are visiting the counties and it was announced yesterday that they would be in this city on Tuesday, June 23rd, at 3 P. M.

The Undertakers' Law.

The Legislature of Maryland, at its last session, by an Act numbered 496, amended the Acts of 1902, chapter 160, and 1904, chapter 389, relating to undertakers, in important particulars.

The Act of 1908 provides that all persons, co-partnerships and corporations engaged at the time of the passage of the act in the undertaking business, and all their assistants, must have their names registered with the State Board of Undertakers, before July 1st. Parties complying with this provision will be given certificates of registration authorizing them to continue in the business. Otherwise they must apply to the Board by petition, for license. Persons, copartnerships, corporarions, and their assistants, not now following the occupation, but oesiring to do so, must first make application to the Board, by petition, for license and then pass a rigid examination to demonstrate their ability to properly perform the service required. Such applications must be made ten days before a regular meeting of the Board on the second Tuesday in April and October, but special meetings may be held, at the expense of applicants who may desire them.

The law only applies to Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Howard, Montgomery, Somerset and Talbot counties and Baltimore City. Presumably the meetings of the Board will be held in Baltimore.

DIED.

SHIPLEY.—In sad but loving remembrance of my sister, Minnie B. Barnes, who departed this life one year ago, May 28th, 1907.

The one we love is past and gone,
Laid beneath the willow shade;
Our hearts are sad and lonely
Since sister sleeps in her cold grave.

'Tis hard to part with one so dear,
But yet we should not weep;
Although her voice we cannot hear,
We know she is only asleep.
