A GREAT OPPORTUNITY.

There are two things that should be in home of every progressive farmer, his COUNTY PAPER and a first-class FARM PAPER.

THE AMERICAN SENTINEL COMPANY has made an arrangement whereby subscribers can get THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE FARMER, the best Farm Journal published in the United States, at small cost.

If you are not already a subscriber to the AMERICAN SENTINEL, send to THE AMERICAN SENTINEL COMPANY $1.50, and you will receive both weeklies for one year. Old subscribers, who will pay their subscriptions to date and $1.50 additional can take advantage of the same offer.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Yesterday was Ascension Day in the church calendar.

Some hay is being made by farmers in this county this week.

Mr. A. H. Huber is having his residence repainted. Mr. Mead Ohler is doing the work.

Westminster Lodge No. 41, I. O. M., will have a banquet at its hall, on John street, Tuesday evening next, June 2nd.

Dr. George E. Baughman has had a neat porch erected to the front of his residence on East Main street, this city.

The summer term of the public schools of this county ended today, Friday, and the schools were closed for the summer vacation.

Mr. Bradley T. Hering, of this city, will remove to Hagerstown next month, where he will engage in the grocery business.

A story, Lincoln's address at Gettysburg and other matter appropriate to Memorial Day will be found on the first page of the SENTINEL this week.

Burns Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city, will hold memorial services in Hampstead, Sunday, June 7th. The order of exercises will be announced next week.

Mrs. Margaret L. Arnold, formerly of Uniontown, had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Rogers, in Baltimore, on Monday, on a charge of making an illegal claim for a widow's pension, and she was held for the action of the U. S. grand jury.

Mrs. George E. Sharrer, of this city, received a check for $3,000 on Monday from the Fraternal Mystic Circle, of which her deceased husband was a member. The check was sent through Mr. Theo. A. Kauffman, secretary of Westminster Ruling.

Tomorrow, Memorial Day, will be a legal holiday, the banks will be closed, the rural free delivery carriers will not make deliveries, the postoffice will be closed from 9 A. M., and there will be only one delivery. Court will not be in session and the county offices will be closed.

For the first time in many years, during part of the present term of the Circuit Court for Carroll County, the bench has been complete, with all three judges present during part of the term. The members of the bar gave Judge Brashears a cordial greeting, and the new Judge made a strong impression upon litigants and visitors to the Court room.

Plate matter is a delusion and a snare. A county paper of an adjoining county published the following timely advice last week in its Poultry Notes: "Empty the drinking vessels every evening. If you fail to do this they will be filled with solid ice in the morning." The AMERICAN SENTINEL cannot make such breaks, for it uses no plate matter. Every line is set in the office.

The 17th annual meeting of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the Middle Conference, Maryland Synod, Lutheran Church, will be held in St. Paul's Church, Uniontown, Rev. G. W. Baughman, pastor, on Wednesday next, June 3. Three sessions will be held, beginning at 11 A. M., 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. At the evening session an address will be delivered by Mr. Geo. G. Parker, a returned missionary from Africa.

Mr. H. Baumgartner and E. Oliver Grimes, Jr., Esq., of this city, are the owners of very fine bull dogs. They came together a few days ago, and were making the hair fly, when Mr. Baumgartner attempted to separate them. In doing so one of the dogs bit one of his fingers severely. Both dogs are healthy animals in normal condition, and an accident of this character under such circumstances gives no occasion for anxiety.

At the semi-annual convention of the Hampstead Local Union of Christian Endeavor, composed of the socieies of Hampstead, St. Peter's and St. Paul's Lutheran Churches, held at Hampstead on the 17th inst., the following officers were elected: President, Thomas F. Shearer, vice-president, Miss Flora Deal; secretay, Preston W. Snyder; treasurer, Preston Shafer. Among those who delivered addresses during the convention were Dr. J. E. Shreeve and Mr. George K. Mather, of this city.

While Mr. Leander Mathias was cutting and hauling firewood at his home near Union Mills, he met with a serious accident. After cutting at one pile of wood, he threw his axe into the wagon preparatory to moving to another pile. When he got into the wagon, one of the horses made a sudden movement forward and the other jerked backward, slacking the lines. The jar caused Mr. Mathias to lose his balance and he fell backward on the axe, which was lying edge upward, and sat on it. A deep flesh wound was made in the right thigh. The wound bled profusely. No serious consequences are apprehended.

The commencement exercises of the senior class of Westminster High School will be held in the Assembly Hall, beginning at 8 o'clock, Monday evening, when four young ladies and one young gentleman will be graduated. An address to the graduating class will be delivered by Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., president of Western Maryland College. Diplomas will be awarded the members of the graduating class and certificates of honor to others. Music will also be a feature of the exercises. On account of the limited space for the accommodation of spectators admisson will be by card.

At the meeting of the Mayor and City Council, on Monday evening last, Mr. Simon P. Weaver was elected clerk and tax collector. Mr. Weaver will enter upon the duties of his office Monday next, June 1st. An ordinance was passed providing that in the future the clerk, bailiff, street commissioner and other officers to be chosen by the Council shall be elected on the third Monday in May and assume their offices June 1st. An ordinance was passed placing the bailiff and street commissioner under the direction of the Mayor, who shall have the power of summary removal for dereliction in office. A second section of the same ordinance provides that any citizen shall have the right to lodge complaint at any time with the Mayor against these officials. The right of appeal from the judgment of the Mayor to the City Council is provided for.

GOOD ROADS MEETING at Odd Fellows' Hall, in Westminster, on Saturday, May 30, at 3 o'clock, P. M., immediately after the Memorial Day services. All who want good roads are invited to attend.

Sixty members of Sulphur Spring Lodge, I. O. O. F., New Windsor, including the degree team of the lodge, visited their brethren of Salem Lodge, this city, last night. The degree team, of which Mr. W. D. Lovell is captain, initiated and conferred the degrees upon 17 candidates for Salem Lodge, and won strong encomiums from their brethren here for the able and superior manner in which the work was performed. The team is a very strong and capable one. After the lodge closed, a banquet was served in the main Hall and a very pleasant time enjoyed by all present. The visitors returned home by a special train at a late hour.

It is the beautiful custom of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics to hold annually memorial services for those members who have died. This custom will be honored by Hampstead Council No. 68, next Sunday. Alesia Council No. 131, will join with Hampstead Council in the service; and Western Maryland Council No. 79, of this city, will also participate in the exercises. The members of Western Maryland Council will assemble at Harbaugh's Palace Livery Stable, on Sunday morning, at 9 o'clock, and drive thence to Hampstead. It is hoped and expected that every member, who can possibly attend, will be at the meeting place promptly at the hour named.

A number of the students from the Maryland School for the Deaf and Dumb, at Frederick, visited the office of the AMERICAN SENTINEL on Saturday, and were much intersted in examining the working of the Simplex typesetting machine. Mr. H. G. Benson, teacher of printing in the school, himself one of the silent people, accompanied them. The young men were visiting this city to play a game of base ball with the Western Maryland College team. Mr. Benson's home is near Mt. Carmel, Baltimore county. He described the printing plant at the school, which is equipped with a Hoe Cylinder press, front feed. The young men by their gentlemanly bearing made many friends while in this city, and the management of the SENTINEL was pleased to greet them.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

John J. Marsh.

Mr. John J. Marsh, son of the late A. P. Marsh, of Frederick, died on Monday morning, May 25th, at the German Hospital in Philadelphia, of lockjaw, resulting from an injury sustained in a trolley accident in that city on May 15th, in which he had his left arm shattered. Mr. Marsh, who was 26 years of age, and went to Philadelphia some years ago, was employed in a sporting goods store in that city and was prominent in the P. O. S. of A., having been president of Roxbury Camp and a member of the State Camp of Pennsylvania. Besides a widow and two small children, he is survived by his mother and the following brothers and sisters all living in Frederick: Pierce, Margaret, Paul, Elizabeth, Clara, Clarence, Florence and Catharine Marsh. Mr. Marsh was a native of this city.

Rev. Durbin G. Miller.

Rev. Durbin G. Miller, who was pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, this city, for several years, up to 1906, died at the home of his daughter, Miss Bertha Miller, at West Chester, Pa., on Monday night. Mr. Miller's health failed during his pastorate here and he was bedridden for several months and in a critical condition, but finally rallied, though he did not regain sufficient strength to engage again in the active ministry. He visited friends here last year. His age has not been announced, but he was probably 64 or 65 years old. It is probably not generally known that he was a veteran of the Civil War, having served in a Pennsylvania regiment. He seemed averse to talking about his experience as a soldier, but from other sources we learn that he was in many of the most important battles of the war and was a brave and faithful soldier of the country, as he was a true, tried and faithful soldier and minister of the Cross. Previous to his pastorate at Centenary Church, he was pastor of Mt. Vernon Church, Hampden, Baltimore. Of his previous record as a clergyman of the M. E. Church, for many years, we are without knowledge. He leaves a widow, one daughter and four sons. His funeral took place at Mt. Vernon Church, Wednesday afternoon, and his remains were interred in Druid Ridge Cemetery.

Levi N. Snader.

After several months of intense suffering with a diseased foot, from which his whole system gradually became affected, Mr. Levi N. Snader, one of the oldest residents of this city, died at his home on East Green street, about 1 o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Mr Snader was a native and lifelong resident of this county, where he was born March 2, 1828, making his age 80 years, 2 months 22 days. Before middle life he followed farming and afterwards became a successful merchant, first at New Windsor and then at Frizellburg. He was widely known as a man of upright and honorable character and was highly esteemed. He was quiet and unostentatious in demeanor, but firm in his convictions and faithful in discharging the duties and responsibilities of life. He retired from active business 16 or 17 years ago and removed to this city, where he lived an honored and esteemed citizen to the end of his life. Politically he was a staunch Republican and was once, while engaged in business at Frizellburg, the party's candidate for County Treasurer, but, with all the other Republican candidates, was defeated by a small majority. He was for many years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and also of Door to Virtue Lodge, A. F. and A. M. He was twice married, but both his wives are dead. Surviving him are one daughter and five sons—Miss Emma H. Snader, Mr. Frank M. Snader, the latter a merchant, of Frizellburg; Mr. Henry M. Snader, a carpenter and builder of Baltimore; Mr. Edwin A. Snader, a farmer near Taneytown; Mr. Reverdy N. Snader, proprietor of the Westminster Laundry, this city, and Mr. S. Scott Snader, dealer in hardware and plumbing, Connellsville, Pa. He also leaves two sisters and two brothers—Mrs. John Paul Murray, of New Windsor; Mrs. Samuel Weybright, of Detour; Mr. John T. Snader, near Sams Creek, and Mr. Philip B. Snader, near New Windsor, besides many other relatives among the influential citizens of the county. Mr. Richard Smith Snader, the only Republican member of the House of Delegates from this counnty, at this time, is his nephew. His funeral took place from his late home, at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, Rev. Dr. C. Herbert Richardson officiating, assisted by Rev. W. P. Englar, of Uniontown, and Rev. L. E. Bennett, of New Windsor. Interment was in the cemetery of Pipe Creek German Baptist Brethren's church. The pallbearers were Mr. Snader's five sons and a nephew, Mr. Elwood Snader. Mr. F. C. Sharrer was funeral director.

Stoner, of this city, has accepted an invitation of Captain Speddon, president of the Third National Bank of Baltimore, to be one of a party of 10 or 12 gentlemen to accompany him on his private yacht, on a four day pleasure trip down the Bay. They will leave Baltimore today, and will return on Monday.

Maryland Collegiate Institute Commencement.

The first event in the commencement of Maryland Collegiate Institute, at Union Bridge, was the baccalaureate service, held in the Institute Chapel, on Sunday evening, and the chief interest of that service the admirable baccalaureate discourse by the president, Rev. Wm. M. Wine, whose text was: "So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom:" Ps. 90:12.

In the introductory remarks of the preacher he recalled memories of the past of the Institute and said it was impossible to give a word to those who had gone out from its instruction.

But there was a word he could give to those whom he was addressing, and that word was "Prayer." He strongly urged the students to seek the Divine guidance, as by that alone could they hope to make the best use of their lives. The influence of the prayer taught by the mother to her child lingers with him through life and often the words of that prayer are the last on his dying lips.

The importance of numbering the days so that the heart may be applied to gaining wisdom, was urgently set forth, and examples of great leaders who pursued that course were cited. Moses, the great Hebrew Lawgiver, selected, not wealth and kingly power, but wisdom. Quoting the Divine word, the preacher said: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom," and to this he added that acceptance of Christ, which he strongly urged, was the best interpretation of the meaning of "fear of the Lord."

The literary contest for the prizes offered by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stoner was held in the Assembly Hall on Monday evening. There were six contestants, three with orations—Miss Mary Winey, Messrs. Gernie Baker and Martin D. Anthony—and three with recitations—Misses Bertha Keeney and Mary L. Lint, and Mr. Peral Neikirk. The prizes were awarded to Mr. Anthony and Miss Lint.

Tuesday evening the Choral Society rendered the cantata, "Joseph," to a highly appreciative and interested audience. This cantata portrays scenes in the life of Joseph, son of the Patriarch Jacob, giving the history of his visit to his brethren at Dothan; their envy, which led them to first cast him into a pit, then sell him to the Ismaelties; the exhibition of his torn and bloody coat to his father and the latter's grief; scenes in Egypt, which led to Joseph's elevation to the second place in the kingdom; the visits of his brethren to Egypt to buy corn and his final revelation of himself, a touching and beautiful story, beautifully set forth in the cantata, which was ably and effectively given by the society. The several characters were represented as follows: Joseph, A. J. Miller; Joseph's sister, Norma Fleming; Pharaoh, George Roop; Egyptian Queen, Ruthella Myers; Princess, Florence Shultz; Angel, Katie Miller; Butler, Charles Rowland; Baker, B. C. Whitmore; Jacob, D. R. Beard; Judah, S. P. Early; Reuben, Charles Rowland; Guard, M. D. Anthony.

Class Day exercises were held on Wednesday morning and on Wednesday evening an address to the graduates of the commercial department was delivered by Randolph Barton, Jr., Esq., of Baltimore. The commencement was held on Thursday morning, beginning at 10.30 o'clock. The program of exercises was as follows: Invocation, Rev. O. E. Bregenzer; salutatory, D. R. Beard; Hidden Pearls, Ruthella Myers; Unheralded Benefactions, B. T. Fox; solo, "At the Dawn," by Cantor, Norma L. Fleming; The humble Origin of Great Men, Gwendolyn E. Buckey; The Future of Latin America, C. E. Resser; Fata Morgana, Etta R. Smith; piano duet, Polonaise, by B. Hoffman, Op. 1, Ruthella Myers, Norma L. Fleming; Social Justice, B. C. Whitmore; "Even this shall pass away," Ada E. Hershberger; "Put Up Thy Sword," A. J. Miller; solo, "Call Me Thine Own," by Halevy, C. L. Rowland; address to graduates, by Rev. J. Theo. Pettit, of Baltimore; presentation of diplomas; valedictory, H. H. R. Brechbill; class ode. Twenty-one students were graduated from the several departments as follows:

The Art Department makes a good showing of the year's work, in the annual exhibition, held in the large Commercial Hall, during commencement week.

The freehand drawing classes exhibit many pleasing sketches, from nature and still life groups, drawn in charcoal and pencil, also some water color painting that calls forth much praise, especially the pansies and other flowers. Those deserving especial mention in these classes are: Misses Mary L. Lint, Gwendolyn Ruckey, Mildred Zumbrum, Elsie Baumgardner, Coral Diller and Messrs. H. A. Stoner, D. M. Englar, I. V. Wine, John Alexander, Roy Loewenback, N. B. Norris, N. E. Leyda, Marshall Roop, Marshall Wolfe, A. Hohf.

The careful perspective drawing in pen and ink by Miss Lint, Messrs. H. A. Stoner, N. B. Norris and D. M. Englar, also the mechanical drawing by W. R. Rohrbaugh and N. B. Norris are new features in the Art exhibition and by those who understand the true merits of such work are greatly praised.

The special art class exhibits many fine paintings in oil and water colors, also some crayon studies. "The Old Gentleman Partaking of his Lunch," painted by Miss Bessie Roberts, of Westminster, was one of the attractive features, as was the "Old Gentleman in His Library," painted in water colors by Mr. Stoner, of Union Bridge. Mr. Stoner has several very carefully executed water colors and the study of La France roses called forth much praise.

Miss Anna Snader, of New Windsor, has some fine water color and pastel pictures. A plate of peaches against a dark green drapery makes one hungry, so real and true to nature they are pictured in pastel. Her landscape sketches and marine scenes, in water color, are pleasing in their clearness and close approach to nature.

Miss Edna Buckey, of Union Bridge, a regular student last year, joined the class upon several outings and exhibited very creditable outdoor sketches in oil, among them a bridge along Pipe Creek, a quaint house near Quaker Hill and others. Miss Buckey, and also Miss Lint have at different times won prizes for their pictures at county fairs.

Miss Lint has several very large oil paintings, both scenes and flowers, which have been admired by the many visitors. Her portrait of a child, also that of a young woman, both executed in pastel, are lifelike and pleasing.

Mr. D. M. Englar, of Uniontown, displayed decided talent. His crayon studies of dogs and one of a horse are interesting and true to life. The pastel picturing a glimpse of woodland and dale has been greatly admired for its beautifully blended colors.

Winfield Academy.

The commencement of Winfield Academy will be held at Academy Hall, Winfield, on Saturday evening, June 6, and will be of an unusually interesting character. The principal writes in relation to it: "The commencement will be a little different from the ordinary ones. We want to show, as far as possible, the grade of work we have been doing. It will begin with two plays and several declamations. After that will be the regular commencement. We are expecting to have a good speaker present. As usual there will be a plenty of good singing and other music."

BASE BALL.

Playing Good Ball.

No more interesting series of games has ever been played in this city than that furnished by the students of Western Maryland College, this season. They are playing good ball and the games they have arranged should attract the local lovers of the sport, both because of their merit, and from a desire on the part of our citizens to show their appreciation of the work of the college on the athletic field.

The next game in the series will be played next Tuesday, June 2nd, with the fast team of the Louisiana University, which has been spending a month in a tour through the North, crossing bats with a number of the leading college and university teams, Harvard and Yale among the number. The game will be called at 3.30 P. M.

W. M. C. 4. M. S. D 3.

The game between Western Maryland and the Maryland School for the Deaf and Dumb, of Frederick, on the local field on Saturday last, was an interesting event. Among the prominent citizens of Frederick, who witnessed the game, were Dr. Steiner Schley, of the Board of Directors of the school; Mr. Herman Flick, son of Rev. H. H. Flick, Lutheran pastor at Manchester, this county, who is the supervisor of the school; and Messrs. Hogarth, Keefauver, Dinterman, and Annan, members of the Board of County Commissioners of Frederick county.

Both the home team and the visitors played an excellent game. W. M. C. did not score after the third inning. The visitors made three runs in the third inning but were unable to score in any other.

The Game By Innings.

In the first inning, Cadden and Foxwell were the first to face Hanks. When neither could touch him, Devillbiss undertook to bunt but failed. Short for W. M. C. connected with the ball and though he did not make a clean hit, Donsife failed to field it; Thompson sacrificed and sent Short, who had stolen 2nd, to 3rd; Dooley sent the ball to Donsife, who held it just a little too long, and Short came home.

In the 2nd, Boyle made the only two-bagger in the game, sending the sphere over the left field fence, but played in hard luck in an effort to steal 3rd, overrunning the base and caught by a fine throw of Gibson. Donsife struck out. Hanks walked Miller to 1st, but Gibson caught him trying to steal 2nd. For W. M. C., Adkins made a hit; Smith bunted, Zimmerman juggled the ball and while he played marbles with it, Adkins stole 2nd. Gibbon's bunt advanced both men; Gibson sent the ball to Boyle, who failed to field it in time, and while it was in the air on the way to 1st, Adkins raced home. Hanks struck out. Short tried Donsife with a fly and found him ready.

In the 3rd, Benson gave Thomas an easy one, and he fielded it promptly. Duvall tried a bunt, but Gibson got it within two feet of the home plate, and the ball reached 1st ahead of the runner. Zimmerman treated Short to a fly. For W. M. C. Thompson sent an easy one to Boyle, who missed his opportunity; Dooley made a safe bunt. Thomas advanced both by a sacrifice, and Adkins followed his example, bringing both home. Smith sent Donsife a fly and was gathered in.

In the fourth Cadden tried to bunt the third strike and failed; Foxwell walked. Devilbiss bunted safely. Boyle went out on a fly to Adkins. Donsife made a safe hit to right and brought Foxwell home. Miller stole 2nd, and Donsife came home before the ball thrown to 2nd by Gibson could be returned. Benson gave Gibbons a chance but he did not hold the ball and the batter reached 1st. Duvall lost out on a foul fly to Adkins. Lippincott, who took Gibbon's place, struck out. Gibson made a safe hit to left. Hanks struck out. Short sent Boyle a red-hot liner and was gathered in.

In the 5th, Zimmerman walked to 1st and stole 2nd, but accomplished nothing, for Cadden, Foxwell and Devilbiss could not find the ball. When Thompson "k"ed for W. M. C., Duvall had butter on his fingers and Thompson reached 1st, and stole 2nd. Dooley gave Donsife a fly, and also a chance for a double play which he accepted, catching Thompson. Thomas set a hot one to Boyle, who fielded it well but slipped up on a poor throw to 1st. Adkins gave Donsife another fly.

In the 6th, Boyle tried to bunt but failed. Donsife put another hit to his credit, and stole 2nd on Lippincott's bad throw to Hanks. Benson connected with the ball, but Donsife, overran 3rd. Smith for W. M. C. struck out; Lippincott sent an easy one to 1st and could not overtake it; Gibson gave Cadden a fly.

In the 7th Duvall hit safe to right field; Zimmerman gave Thomas another liner but Thomas likes that kind and gathered him in, and then shot the ball to first, catching Duvall in a double. Cadden struck the ball to his feet, on the third strike-out. Hanks and Short fanned the air Thompson sent the ball to Boyle who fielded it in time but Benson had his foot off the bag. Dooley sent Donsife a grass-cutter, which was well picked up and splendidly thrown to first.

In the 8th, Foxwell and Devilbiss found the ball but were thrown out by Dooley and Short. Boyle struck out. For W. M. C., Thomas fanned; Adkins gave Donsife a chance, but he missed it. His tardiness, however, cost nothing for Smith immediately gave him a fly which he was not slow in scooping in; and Twigg, who batted in place of Lippincott gave Benson a fly.

Up for the last chance, Donsife tried hard for a third hit, but got the ball into Thomas' hands and was thrown out. Miller fanned and Benson repeated Donsife's experiment with Thomas with the same result.

The score and line up were as follows:

Bishop John H. Vincent.

Bishop John H. Vincent, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was greeted by large audiences at Centenary Church, this city, on Sunday last, morning and evening. At the morning service he preached a sermon on the theme, "A Study in Spiritual Arithmetic." It was an interesting, instructive and eloquent discourse and grew naturally out of the text, "Add to your faith." The several things to be added, as he described them, are: "Virtue, (manhood) knowledge, temperance, (moderation) godliness, brotherly kindness and charity. Each of these graces was described in graphic language and the hearers were earnestly enjoined to add all of them to faith in the Christ. The entire sermon was filled with sound Christian doctrine and wholesome advice to the audience to make it the ruling, guiding influence of their lives.

The evening discourse was in the nature of an address or lecture on the topic, "A Gospel for Grown-Up and Old Folks," and was heard by a congregation that filled all the pews and many chairs placed in the space around the altar. A brief summary of the address would give but a very inadequate idea of its force, eloquence and value. It is enough to say that its central thought was the duty of the young to the old and of the old to the young, and of this a thorough analysis of the methods, means and general conduct of the one to the other, by which that duty can be performed.

After each service many of those in attendance were presented to the bishop and received a warm grasp of the hand and a cordial greeting. The music by the choir, at both services, was of a high order.

Graphophone and Social Party.

Graphophone entertainments and family socials, which have been extremely popular in this neighborhood during the past winter, seem to have lost none of their popularity, as was evidenced by the great crowd of both old and young who gathered at the hospitable home of one of our most highly esteemed and venerable citizens, Mr. T. The musical part of the program was presided over by Mr. Morley Farver, who very agreeably entertained both old and young with many choice selections on his Edison graphophone. After this part of the entertainment had been concluded and refreshments had been served various games and party plays were indulged in, not only by the young, but grandmothers and grandfathers were engaged in the lively play of "Skip Come A Lou," until the clock on the wall warned them that Sunday morning was about to be ushered in, when all departed for their homes, thanking their kind host and hostess for the welcome received at their hands, and wishing them many more years of life and happiness. COMPANY "H," FIRST REGIMENT, M. N. G. IN CAMP.

Some Excellent Shooting Records Made.

Westminster's "Boys in Blue," Co. H, 1st Regiment, M. N. G., put in a week of solid enjoyment at the State Rifle Range, near Glen Burnie, Md., last week.

While there was more or less rain, all during the week, everybody had their full share of fun.

All of the boys enjoyed good health and if appetites are an indication of good health, no one could have been in better condition. In addition to the other provisions, forty-five loaves of bread were used every day.

The officers of the Company, Captain Weigle and Lieutenant Frizzell, deserve a great deal of credit for their efforts in looking after the comfort and pleasure of the Company.

If the young men of Westminster knew what enjoyable times the members of Co. "H" have while in camp, the Company would be filled to its limit in a very short time.

Out of the forty-two men and two officers on the trip, a large percentage returned home entitled to medals and an increase in pay due to their excellent shooting.

The following scores were made:

The ice cream and strawberry festival on Saturday evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall, for the benefit of the baseball team, was much enjoyed by the young folks, with a fairly good patronage, that gave the boys an addition to their treasury. On Saturday afternoon they had the Shrewsbury team here, that played a fine game of ball, in fact among the best games we have had upon the diamond, as it was full of interest from start to finish. There were a number of strike outs and if a ball went flying into the field it was sure to be taken, so that at the close of the ninth inning the score was one, one; the tenth two, two; the eleventh three, three. In the twelfth the visitors failed to score and the home boys made a run, finishing the game with a score of 4 to 3 in their favor. Tracy and Theiret were the battery for the home team.
