1860 May

SIDE ONE

Mrs. Caspar Morris
West River.
Maryland.

Phila. May 31st/60

Dear Mrs. Morris,

Although I cannot get this to you in time to prevent your taking the trouble of sending for us, yet I can at least let you know the reason of our deferring our visit. If the weather is as unsettled at West River as it is here, you probably do not expect us on Saturday. At any rate yesterday and today seemed to settle the question with the Dr. and all of us, as to Annie's leaving home just now. Yesterday was damp and cool, and today the sun is out one minute and the clouds the next. Annie was