MARYLAND NEWS.

Governor Crothres and the Roads Commisssion have announced that the Baltimore, Washington boulevard should be completed from Hyaattsville to Washington, along the line of the Bladensburg turnpike.

Mr. J. Q. Barow has resigned as chief engineer of the W. M. Rairoad company, his resignation to take effect at once. He has accepted a position with the Southern Pacific Railway Company, with headquarters in San Francisco.

Com. Robert E. Peary announces that his plans for his fourth journey to the Arctic regions will begin July 1st. Peary says that he will be accompanied as usual by Henson, the negro from the Eastern Shore, who has been with him in three previous voyages.

Trolley car No. 33, on the Hagerstown and Funkstown line of the Hagerstown Street Railway system, ran into an open switch on Sunday evening about a mile outside the corporate limits and was derailed, and 15 or 20 persons were injured, 7 of them now being under the care of physicians.

The coroner's jury, which investigated the wreck on the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Railway, of June 5, 1908, in which a number of persons were killed, gave a verdict holding Motorman Wadsworth, Conductor Bernasco, and Train dispatcher Schumacher responsible.

Dr. Adolph Myer, a member of the faculty of Cornell University and director of the Pathological Institute of the New York State Hospital at Wards Island, has been chosen to direct the department for the study of insanity in Johns Hopkins University, founded by the recent gift of $750,000 by Henry Phipps. It is said that his salary will be from $8,000 to $10,000 a year.

The Thurmont Clarion says: Capt. H. L. Landers, of Ft. Du Pont, Del., through Col. John R. Rouzer, offered to the town authorities or the School Commissioners, two large cannons, about 8 tons each in weight, the same to be mounted at some prominent point or on the school yard. The cost of getting the cannons here and mounting them prohibits the acceptance of these large guns.

The Emmittsburg Chronicle says: When the Washington, Frederick and Gettysburg Railroad is built to Thurmont, which will be in a few months according to the time allowed the contractors, the company will run large touring cars from that point to Gettysburg by way of Emmittsburg. In this way through tickets will be sold from Frederick to the Battlefield.

The arrangements for the annual reunion of the Reformed churches of the Cumberland valley, Maryland, the Virginias and the District of Columbia, at Pen Mar, Thursday, July 16, have been about completed. Emory Coblentz, Middletown, is the chairman of the program committee. The Braddock Heights band will again play at the reunion. There will be but one address, which will be delivered by the Rev. B. B. Royer, of Heidelberg church, York.

While picking cherries high in a tree along the electric railway near Pen-Mar, 14-year-old John Monighan narrowly escaped death. The limb on which he was standing gave way and he fell across the electric wires. He seized a wire with each hand, thus making a complete circuit. After hanging there for a short time he fell to the ground unconscious, badly shocked and terribly burned. The flesh on the inside of his hands was burned and several of the fingers may have to be amputated. The condition of the youth is serious.

GENERAL NEWS.

Queen Victoria, of Spain, became the mother of a second son, on Monday. Her first son, who was born May 10, 1907, is the heir to the throne. Queen Victoria was an English princess, Princess Ena of Battenburg.

Scorching heat and humidity brought death and suffering throughout the country on Tuesday. Fourteen fatal cases were reported in Chicago. One of the victims was Edwin Palmer, nephew of the late Potter Palmer.

Louisiana has a leper home. The last report of the institution states that there have been 61 lepers in the home during the last two years. One has been discharged as cured and five are practically well, but kept under observation.

On Monday, Governor Magoon signed the decree authorizing McGivney and Rockeby to carry out their contract for the construction of a sewer and water system in Havana, and for the paving of the city. The work will cost about $11,000,000,, one-third of which is to be paid by the city and the remainder by the Cuban Government. It is expected that work will begin in a few weeks.

Six hundred families homeless; 400 business houses burned to the ground, with a loss aggregating more than $,200,000; six lives lost, and an area of half a mile square, containing the entire business and commercial district of Three Rivers, Quebec, swept by the flames, comprise the rough total of the havoc wrought by a fire which started at noon and burned until after sundown, on Monday last.

After a campaign lasting several months, the close of which was marked by a bitter fight, the so-called Locke Anti-Racing bill was passed on Tuesday afternoon by the Louisiana State Senate. The bill passed the House several weeks ago, and now requires only the signature of the Governor to become law. There appears no doubt that Governor Sanders will sign the bill immediately. The vote was 21 to 19.

The Novoe Vremya of St. Petersburg, Russia, published on Tuesday a dispatch from a correspondent who has just completed a perilous trip from Tabriz, Persia, to Urumiah through a country swarming with pillaging Kurds. He declares that Urumiah is now completely surrounded by Kurds, who are ravaging the villages on all sides up to the gates of the town. The sound of firing is constantly heard. The missionaries at Urumiah have held a meeting and sent out to their respective countries a statement of the critical position in which they find themselves.

The battleships Maine and Alabama, composing the special service squadron, which is preceding the Atlantic fleet around the world, sailed from Honolulu at 10:25 o'clock Tuesday morning for Manila. They will touch at Guam on July 7, and are scheduled to arrive at Manila July 21. The squadron is under the command of Capt. Giles B. Garber, of the Maine. The two battleships will, to some extent, act as a pathfinder squadron for the Atlantic fleet, which sails from San Francisco July 7.

Twenty-four companies, manufacturing manila wrapping paper, were fined $2,000 each, by Judge Hough, in the United States Circuit Court, New York, on Monday. They are members of the Manila and Fiber Association and all but one pleaded guilty of maintaining an illegal combination in restraint of trade. The case was instituted through the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, of which John Norris, of New York, acted as agent. The Defendant combination was formed in September 1906. The production of paper by the companies composing it dropped at once from 64,000 to 50,000 tons per quarter, and the price was advanced $5 per ton.

One of the most sweeping repressive measures ever attempted by the Czar was promulgated on Monday when M. Von Kaffman, minister of public institutions, decreed that all women students be expelled from Russian universities, and that none be admitted henceforth. It was known that such a move was under consideration by the Czar and his ministers, owing to the revolutionary activity of many of the women students and graduates, but there was little idea that such a radical step would be taken. The new edict affects 2,200 women, many of whom are nearing their graduation, and hundreds of whom are making fearful sacrifices that they may obtain an education. Hundreds of women students are arriving at the capital, and are seeking an audience with the Czar in the hope that he can be induced to change his decision. The aid of the Douma is also being sought, but its power in the matter can be nothing more than advisory. Men students are sympathizing with the women, and if the new order is enforced there will undoubtedly be a repetition of the students riots that for so long a time have featured the discontent and political unrest of the younger generation of Russians.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS.

Warren La France, night index clerk at the court house, Scranton, Pa., was alone in the building one night last week, when a number of rats of huge size attacked him viciously. For more than an hour he defended himself before the relief clerk arrived. The two men killed eighteen of the rodents.

Daniel Matthews, of Jerseyville, Ill., is the most bashful man in that state. He is a great wooer, but when it comes to the crucial point he is too bashful to face the music. On Monday night, for the fourth time, wedding guests were assembled, and the preacher and the prospective bride waited at the altar, but Matthews came not. His fiance says that she is willing to give him another chance.

Joseph Barosky, aged 26, laughed constantly for more than a week before he was taken to a hospital in Cincinnati. He laughed when eating, he laughed when he talked and laughed in his [illegible] Barosky says that he had a good job i[illegible] a brewery, and when he lost it found solace in smoking cigarettes. He smoked more than 100 daily and physicians attribute his attack of laughing hysteria to this cause.

At a meeting of a Woman's Missionary Society at Eden Park, near Wilmington, Del., an address was being delivered by Rev. Alexander Allison, pastor of the West Presbyterian Church, of that city when at a climax in his effort, the speaker said, "Now listen." Hardly had the words left his lips than a large rooster jumped upon the platform and crowed with might and main. The episode nearly broke up the meeting.

Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore, Md., witnessed a fox chase on Monday. How Reynard got into the city is not known. Three colored boys spied him and gave chase. A large crowd joined in pursuit. The animal was brought to bay and captured in Fahey's stables, on Lafayette avenue, but not before it had seized Robert Henry, (colored) by the hand and bitten him severely. On the advice of physicians at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Henry went to the Pasteur Institution for treatment.

Harry Miley, Rock Forge, Md., has a better knowledge of the voracity of cows than he ever had before. He drove home Saturday with his mail and neglected to take it out of the buggy promptly. While he was elsewhere Orran Kale's cow came along, glanced at the buggy, saw the mail and made a part of a meal off it. It contained two letters and a half-a-dozen papers and must have been very palatable for by the time Mr. Miley got back to his vehicle there remained only a few fragments of the entire lot.

William Burns, of Waukegan, and Miss Sadie Baker, of Rockford, Ill., were out in a small boat in the storm on Sunday night last. For two hours they were tossed between life and death. Burns who is an athlete and a strong swimmer succeeded in bringing his companion half drowned to the shore. After she had revived he escorted her to her home. As he turned down the street toward his own home, he stumbled over a live wire and was instantly killed. An aged man who saw the wire fall tried to warn him, but the roaring of the storm drowned his cries.

A side light on what women wear in their hair, when it comes to dressing it a la mode for the "Merry Widow Hat," came out when the steamer Seneca, from China, steamed into port at Boston, Mass. In the cargo was a ton of dead Chinamen's pigtails, consigned to a prominent Boston hair dealer. He will use it in making rats and switches and puffs. According to the steamer officials the importation of human hair from China is a thriving industry. No good Chinaman will part with his pigtail in life, but when he is dead it is different. He usually has a good supply of hair and his relatives will let it go cheap.

James Cantillon, a well known base ball player, member of the Des Moines, Iowa, team, met with an accident in Chicago several months ago, which made necessary the removal of one of his eyes. The other failed sympathetically, and he came to Bellevue, New York, to be prepared for an operation, with the hope of saving the eye. Physicians told him that an operation would be useless. The distressing verdict brought on an attack of hysteria, during which he suddenly cried out that he could see. The hospital surgeons say that the loss of sight was undoubtedly due to an affection of the nervous system, and that the hysterical attack is responsible for the restoration. They now hope for his complete cure.

Have You a Summer Stove?

The stifling air of a close kitchen is changed to comfortable coolness by installing a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove to do the family cooking.

No kitchen furnishing is so convenient as this stove. Gives a working heat at once, and maintains it until turned out—that too, without overheating the room. If you examine the

NEW PERFECTION

you will see why this is so. The heat from the chimney of the "New Perfection" is concentrated under the kettle and not dissipated through the room by radiation. Thus it does the work of the coal range without its discomfort. Ask your dealer about this stove—if not with him, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp is a very handsome piece of housefurnishing and gives a clear, powerful light more agreeable than gas or electricity. Safe everywhere and always. Made of brass finely nickel plated—just the thing for the living-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

Dentistry up to date is assured to those who patronize me. Charges are not higher but lower. They are lower on account of improved methods adopted. One trial will convince. THE NAME ON THE STONE may commence to show the effects of wind and weather. Show that you still remember by having us re-chisel it.
WE RESTORE AND REPAIR MONUMENTS of any age, size or description. Our charges for such work are always very reasonable. We shall be glad to estimate on the cost of making the old or worn monument in your plot practically a new stone. The memorial that was worth erecting is surely worthy of occasional attention.
