The Republican Platform.

On the first page of the SENTINEL, this week, is printed the platform of the Republican party, adopted in convention, at Chicago. It is published in its entirety, because it is a document which should be read by all. Any attempted analysis would require reference to every section of this strong campaign paper, for in every line there is a thought to be emphasized. Its greatest strength is in the concluding paragraph, which forcefully and truthfully shows the fundamental differences between the Republican and Democratic parties, differences that fully explain the fact that in all the States, even those of the real South, there are thousands of men, who in National affairs invariably desire Republican success and in all States where it is possible for them to do so, aid in bringing about that success by voting for the Republican electors. The popularity of President Roosevelt is chiefly due to the fact that he is a true exponent of the principles of the party, which placed him in office. To use the words of a political leader in the far South to the junior editor of the SENTINEL. "We admire Roosevelt, because we cannot help liking a man who does things. He represents a party that accomplishes. The Republican party stands for something positive. The Democratic party is a negative party. Taft, like Roosevelt is a man who does things and though of course local questions keep us from voting for him, we nevertheless hope for and look for his election."

Why Not Erect A Monument In Carroll County To The Memory Of Our Soldier Heroes.

In nearly every county in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware there are monuments erected to the memory of their soldier heroes who fought and died for their country, either in the War for Independence, the Civil War or in the Spanish War.

It is a well known fact that many of our citizens fought and died in all three of these wars, and I think we who are living should erect to their memory a monument or something to show the world at large that we are proud of those who fought for us, proud of their share in the struggle, and proud that they were our fellow-citizens and friends.
